FLOODS ARE GOING DOWN

Swollen Streams in Missouri and Kansas Are Receding.

Des Moines River Valley Is Being Swept By Raging Water.

Kansas City, Mo., July 8.—Flood conditions in Missouri and Kansas today were rapidly improving. Except at Kansas City, where the Kansas and Missouri rivers converge, most streams in this part of the Southwest were receding this morning and it was believed that the worst stage had been reached and passed.

In Kansas City the damage so far has been slight, and the river here must come up nearly ten feet yet before the stages of the floods of 1903 and 1904 are reached. Such a rise at Kansas City is not considered at all likely with the streams above here going down. But little rain has fallen since last night.

No additional lives have been lost so far as known. At Chillicothe, Mo., the Wabash railroad bridge across Grand river went out yesterday afternoon. (Continued on page 5, fifth column)

MAKE RECORD IN DEPORTATIONS

Immigration Authorities Have Excluded 688 People Since June 26.

New York, July 8.—Since June 26 the immigration authorities at this port have ordered the deportation of 688 aliens, approximately double the number heretofore ordered during any similar length of time. The deportations ordered yesterday, amounting to 150 cases, broke all records for a single day.

ORDERS PEOPLE TO PRAY FOR RAIN

Chinese Government Issues Official Mandate in Farmers' Interests.

Washington, July 8.—A raising of voices in prayer, the Chinese imperial government hopes may be followed by copious and greatly needed rains and a consequent raising of crops. So dry has it been in China this summer that the government has issued a decree ordering a number of the provinces to offer up prayers for rain. A copy of this document has just been received in Washington. "It is hoped that beneficial showers may respond, and gladden the hearts of the farmers," the decree concludes.

VICTORY FOR PURE MILK

Minneapolis Ordinance Is Sustained by Decision of Court.

Decision Will Have a Direct Bearing on Conditions in Duluth.

Judge Frank C. Brooks of the district court in Minneapolis yesterday handed down a decision that applies directly to Duluth.

The court holds that the tuberculosis test for cattle and the Minneapolis milk ordinance, prohibiting the sale of all milk not taken from officially inspected cattle, is valid. The case was the result of an application of several milk dealers for an injunction restraining the city and Dr. P. M. Hall, health commissioner, from destroying the milk. Duluth has a milk ordinance which contains a provision similar to the one in question in the Flour City.

This is the first decision upholding an ordinance requiring milk to come from herds subjected to the tuberculosis test ever rendered either in Minneapolis or elsewhere, and is a decisive victory for the health department.

The case had been in court since Jan. 26. The Seven Corners Milk company, the Flour City Creamery company, the Flour City Creamery and the Flour City Creamery filed a joint application for an injunction. The health department had contested quantities of milk belonging to these concerns because the milk came from uninspected herds.

The plaintiffs argued that the pasteurization killed the milk germs of tuberculosis and that inspection was not necessary. The court held, however, that as no method was universal, by use of which the milk could be kept from being infected, the health department had a right to demand inspection of all herds.

Evidence showed that the milk in question came from herds that had not been subjected to the approved

YOUNG IRISH LACE MAKER ON TRIAL IN CHICAGO COURT

ELLA GINGLES.

She has told strange stories of being attacked by two women and a man in the Wellington hotel in Chicago, and her testimony has been of such a character that women have been barred from the courtroom. The girl is accused of stealing lace from her employer, and has told her own stories to explain how she came to be found bound and gagged in a bathroom, with the door and transoms locked on the inside. The state's attorney claims that the girl is a victim of imposture, and that her stories are pure fabrications.

BEARS OUT GIRL'S STORY

Woman Testifies for Defense in Ella Gingles' Trial in Chicago.

Tells of Visit to Girl After Alleged Orgy in Hotel Room.

Chicago, July 8.—It was with the expectation of finishing the defense evidence and starting the state's rebuttal that the trial of Ella Gingles was resumed in Judge Brennan's court here today.

Assistant State's Attorney Short said that he would produce a mass of testimony to impeach the remarkable evidence given by the young defendant. Experts, it is said, will testify that the lace maker is a victim of mythomania and that, while her story is improbable, she firmly believes it in all of its details.

Throng of spectators flocked to the criminal court building today, but only those directly concerned with the proceedings were admitted.

Miss Gingles, simply clad, her innocent blue eyes seemingly a flat contradiction of the knowledge of things to which she had testified, entered the court room with her attorney, P. H. O'Donnell.

"What was Miss Gingles doing at the time?" asked Mr. O'Donnell.

"She was ironing some lace."

This testimony was introduced to show that the defendant possessed the necklace which she alleges was stolen from her by Miss Agnes Barrette, complainant in the present case.

DROWNED IN RABBIT LAKE

Edward Pascoe Makes Fatal Jump From Boat to Canoe.

Deerwood, Minn., July 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Edward Pascoe, a fireman for the Rogers-Brown mine at Curwina, was drowned in Rabbit lake Tuesday evening. In company with Thomas Haskin, a Finn, he was rowing on the lake, towing a canoe. Pascoe, who could not swim, attempted to jump from the large boat to the canoe and upset the canoe. He sank into deep water and, up to 6 o'clock Wednesday night the body had not been recovered.

Pascoe was a Cornishman and had no relatives in America so far as known, but is said to have had half brothers and sisters in the old country.

Dr. Jordan in Winnipeg. Winnipeg, Minn., July 8.—Dr. David Starr Jordan, the American member of the international fish commission and president of Leland Stanford university, arrived here today to study the fisheries of Lake Winnipeg and Lake of the Woods.

TROOPS ARE CALLED OUT

British Regulars Sent to Scene of Strike in Canada.

Coal Company Says It Is Prepared for Long Fight With Men.

Gloucester, N. S., July 8.—The arrival of troops today from the barracks at Halifax to assist in quelling disorder at the mines of the Dominion Coal company, demonstrated the serious condition into which the strike of the United Mine Workers has developed. The Dominion Coal company states that it is well prepared for a long conflict, with practically all of its summer contracts filled and between 100,000 and 150,000 tons of coal at the mines, while the strikers say that they will have the mines completely tied up in a few days.

PETTY GRAFTS IN CANAL ZONE END

Free Carriages for Officials Are Ordered Sold By Col. Goethals.

Washington, July 8.—The wave of economy first noticed at Washington some time after the advent of the Taft administration is reported as having arrived at the Isthmian canal zone. Its first effort was to sweep away nearly all the government carriages used by the commissioners and other officials on the zone.

Col. Goethals, chairman of the canal commission, has issued an order discontinuing the use of these carriages and directing the chief quartermaster to sell all such transportation facilities and equipment on hand, with the exception of a few surveys to be used exclusively for the transaction of public business. None of these is for the use of any member of the commission.

In contrast with this policy is to be noticed the methods of the French during their attempt to construct the canal. The commission has issued an order discontinuing the use of these carriages and directing the chief quartermaster to sell all such transportation facilities and equipment on hand, with the exception of a few surveys to be used exclusively for the transaction of public business. None of these is for the use of any member of the commission.

New York, July 8.—Phillip Lomeli, weighing 270 pounds, has won the championship medal as a beefsteak eater. In a contest with Max Meyers, 275 pounds, at a political club's outing, Lomeli gorged himself with ten pounds of beefsteak at one sitting, while Meyers ate only eight and three-quarters pounds.

WARD COUNTY FEELS GOOD

Despite the Late Spring, Outlook Is For a Large Crop.

Wheat Acreage Increased Over Last Year, But Flax Decreased.

Minot, N. D., July 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Though the late spring has necessarily set down the natural increase of cultivated acreage in Ward county the crop experts are unanimous in their belief that the crop this year will rival, if not surpass, any of preceding years. Upon the weather of the next few weeks will in a great measure depend the success of the wheat supply. Moist, fairly cool weather has given the grain ample opportunity to get well rooted, and a week of warm, but not hot weather will allow a growth that will insure protection against any climatic change later. While there is still a natural risk, incurred by the ten to twelve days of tardiness, of a possibility of frost in the fall no uneasiness is felt by the farmers in this district.

Increase in Wheat Acreage.

Ward county, which for years has taken the lead among the wheat producing counties of the state, shows an increase of fully 25 per cent in wheat acreage over last year. It is estimated conservatively that in Ward county which comprises 3,600,000 acres, 600,000 of which are under cultivation, 325,000 are in wheat. The increase in wheat acreage was not largely affected by the late spring nor was that of oats, 120,000 acres being (Continued on page 5, fifth column)

LIVELY CONTEST ON RESOLUTIONS

Missouri River Congress Divided on Distribution of Fund.

Yankton, S. D., July 8.—The Missouri River Navigation congress, which opened yesterday, will close tonight. Today Victor Rosewater of Omaha, speaks on "Publicity and Promotion," and Mayor F. S. Ziever of Kansas City, Kan., on "Missouri River Navigation, Past and Future." Governor John Burke of North Dakota, Judge James Reed of Sioux City and John Fox of Washington, D. C., special director of river and harbor work, also make addresses. Then will come the election of officers and the selection of the next meeting place. In the evening there will be a banquet.

A lively contest over the nature of the resolutions is in prospect. The river delegates from the upper section of states do not take kindly to the distribution of the fund for the improvement of the stream, as recently announced by the war department.

From the present outlook Omaha will have no opposition for the next convention. It is expected Edgar A. Ellis of Kansas City will be re-elected president.

TAKE OFF THE TIME LIMIT FOR LAST DAY OF WORK ON THE TARIFF BILL IN SENATE

REACHES THREE SCORE AND TEN

Nestors of Congress Mutely Agree to Finish It Up at Once.

Opponents of New Rates on Tobacco Abandon Plan to Fight.

Corporation Tax Feature Is Subject of Talk By Daniels.

Washington, July 8.—A suggestion of a protracted session of the senate to conclude the consideration of the tariff bill was contained in a motion presented by Senator Aldrich as soon as the senate convened today. With the experience of last night's session in mind, Mr. Aldrich moved to amend the order of procedure by striking out the provision for an automatic adjournment at 7 o'clock.

Senator Bailey had gone over to the desk of Senator Daniel, who was about to resume his speech on the corporation tax. The two senators heard the motion, but neither nor anybody else made objection, and the motion was agreed to.

This attitude on the part of the two Democratic senators was due, not to a failure to hear Mr. Aldrich's suggestion, but to a general understanding among the Democrats as well as among Republicans, that the final vote on the tariff bill should be taken before adjournment today. There was no effort to reach an understanding as to the hour, but the general feeling was that, whether early or late, the measure should be disposed of.

No Use Trying to Change. It had been supposed that much time would be consumed in the discussion of the tobacco tax, but even before that item was reached it had been decided that it would be taken up (Continued on page 5, sixth column)

ASIA FEELS TREMBLOR

India and Turkestan Are Affected by Shaking of Earth.

Shock is Recorded on Instruments in German Observatory.

Hamburg, July 8.—The seismograph at the university here registered an earthquake at 10:45 o'clock last night which is equal to any shocks which occurred at Messina since that city was devastated last December. It is estimated that the earthquake occurred about 2,600 miles to the eastward, evidently in Central Asia.

Houses Thrown Down.
*****

Simla, India, July 8.—A severe earthquake occurred at 3 o'clock this morning and was felt from Rawalpindi, the capital of the Rawalpindi division, to Chitral, the capital of the state of Chitral. Several houses were thrown down. The shock also was felt at Iskardo, the capital of Bultistan.

*****
Shock in Turkestan.
*****

St. Petersburg, July 8.—Telegrams received in this city today from Kerki and Kattikurgan in Turkestan and Chokan in Asiatic Russia report that an earthquake damaged several houses at those towns at 2 o'clock this morning.

JAPS MAKING MUKDEN STRONG

Reinforcements of Garrison and Ammunition Supplies Shipped in.

St. Petersburg, July 8.—A dispatch to the Reel today from Harbin reports that the Japanese are strongly reinforcing the garrison at Mukden, which now consists of 22,000 men, including fifteen squadrons of cavalry. Trains of ammunition and provisions are constantly arriving and the Japanese are actively repairing and extending the fortifications.

GIVES SEISMOGRAPH TO GEORGETOWN.

Washington, July 8.—Through the generosity of P. F. O'Brien of Chicago, the newly established seismograph observatory of Georgetown university will receive its complete equipment. This will consist chiefly of two earthquake recording instruments, one horizontal and the other vertical, and accessories. Announcement of O'Brien's intention was made at the university today.

SECOND OF CONCERTS

Cascade Park Scene of Herald's Sunday Musical Treat.

Excellent Program Has Been Prepared by Director Flaaten.

The second of The Herald's series of popular band concerts will be given next Sunday at Cascade park, square between 2 and 5 p. m., weather permitting.

The Herald has secured the services of the Third Regiment band for all of the series, and the same aggregation of uniformed musicians, which made such a hit last Sunday at Lincoln park, will appear Sunday at Cascade park.
The program prepared for next Sunday is one of the best in the series. Cascade park is one of the city's most prettiest spots. It commands one of the finest views in the city. West Duluth and Lakeside being visible on a clear day.
Strange to say, it is comparatively little known as compared with some of the other city parks, possibly because of its situation high on the hillside. It is located at First avenue west and Fifth street.

At last Sunday's concert the crowd in spite of the holiday spirit, was a perfectly orderly one, and the excellent and stirring music of the military band was highly enjoyed by everyone without even a hint of rowdiness.
The central location of Cascade park should result in an even larger crowd being in attendance than that which thronged Lincoln park on the holiday.

The program which will be played Sunday is as follows:
March—"Grandioso".....Seitz Overture—"Morning, Noon, and Night".....Suppe
Cornet solo—"Selected".....Holmes Idyll—"The Glow Worm" by request.....Lincke
Intermission
Grand Selection from "Lucia De Lammermoor".....Donizetti Humoresque—"Comin' Thro' the Rye" Intermezzo—"Mimosa".....Chiafardini Intermezzo—"Lily of the Prairie"
Mills
Popular Potpourri.....Edwards Introducing "The Hat Brigade" Brigade....."Sambonet Suite" Day, Sweetheart, Some Day, "Schoolmates," "My Cousin Carson," and "Sunburnt Salome."
The program will conclude with
"The Star Spangled Banner."

STRIPPED OF ITS FIXTURES

County Will Push Claim of $1,700 Against A. M.
Miller, Jr.

Attorneys Fail to Reach Settlement Before County Board.

To avoid carrying the matter into the courts for final settlement, A. M.
Miller, Jr., and his attorney, H. B.
Fryberger, appeared this morning before the county board at its regularly monthly meeting to argue against the claims made against him by the county, for the alleged stripping of the house bought by the county that formerly occupied a site on the present new courthouse grounds.

The county claims that it has $1,700 coming from Mr. Miller. After the house had been bought by the county,
Mr. Miller rented it from the county for $50 a month until the time came for moving it.

When the appraisers came to look the house over after it had been vacated, they found that the inside had been stripped of everything that could be carried away. All the gas fixtures, mattresses and radiators had been torn up and removed, and even the tiling that had been laid in several of the rooms had been taken away. The plumbing fixtures had been torn out and all the shrapnel taken from the yard.

W. J. Stevenson, county attorney, says that the county paid full value for the house, and that it was entitled to everything that went with it. They claimed that the goods carried away amounted to $1,700, and this amount will be demanded in the courts.

Mr. Miller claims that he took nothing from the house that was not personal property. He says that much of the furniture had been built to fit the house. After they had repurchased the dwelling he considered the furniture, personal property that was both sold and purchased back with the house.

As to the shrapnel, he says that most of it was ruined by the workmen. Some of the trees that he was very anxious to purchase, were chopped down before he could get the shrapnel that he did get, was purchased from Mr. Ramstead, the contractor, to whom all property of this class was turned over.

He says that many of the articles mentioned by the county he never got.
He believes the house was ransacked and much of the unaccounted for property taken by thieves.

Attorneys Stevenson for the county board and Fryberger for Mr. Miller got together this morning and tried to reach an agreement. There were many articles, however, that the county attorney termed fixtures, and Mr. Fry-berger, personal property.

Mr. Miller claims that he took nothing from the house that was attached in any way, and the point of what are fixtures and what personal property will probably be fought out in court.

John Quackenbush appeared before the board and asked for damages to the amount of $150 for injuries alleged to have befallen his horse, due to the poor condition of the road near the Clouet river. His claim will be investigated.

The morning was given over to the reading of the minutes of the last meeting and the reading of communications to the board. Most of them asked for roads.

There are many applications for a license for a saloon in the town of Cotton. This matter will be taken up this afternoon.

SPEND DAY ON VERMONT SIDE

Champlain Celebrators Hold Program of Exercises at Burlington.

Burlington, Vt., July 8.—The scene of the Lake Champlain tercentenary celebration shifted today from the shores of New York, where it has been in progress at Crown Point, Fort Ti-llicott, Burlington and Yonkers, to Vermont, with Burlington as the setting for the day's ceremonies.

When the steamer bearing President Taft, the French and English ambassadors, Governor Hughes of New York and the New York commission and the members of the legislature, arrived at the King street wharf it was met by the Vermont division of the national guard and the visitors were escorted to City Hall park, where literary exercises were held over which Governor Proctor, chairman of the Vermont Champlain commission, presided. The program included a prayer by Right Rev. Arthur C. Hall, Protestant episcopal bishop of the diocese of Vermont, and addresses by President Taft, Ambassadors Bryce and Jusserand Governor Hughes and Postmaster General Lemieux of Canada.

A parade was held at noon for reserved, followed by a luncheon given by Governor Proctor to the presidential party and ambassadors and official guests at the Ethan Allen club, and a luncheon to the New York state legislature at the gymnasium of the University of Vermont. The Indian pageants were a feature of the afternoon program.

Vaudeville Actress Rewards Attorney

New York, July 8.—Maybe Lawyer

from the Far Rockaway police court.
Just maybe he was not. For Eva Tanguay everybody. She was his client, and he got Magistrate Gilroy to acquit her.

There must have been a reason—

—It is well to bear in mind that Gidding sales do not mean a jumbling together of small lots or "odds and and anywhere.

—Do not make the mistake of waiting until stocks are too far reduced before attending these sales, but come now while they are practically at their best—and you still have practically the entire summer's wear ahead of you.

—Then, too, Gidding styles are so far advanced that they can be worn into the Fall season, which makes them doubly valuable.

its proper place."

"And are you sure that she was not "Well, her act was a scream, all right," said McVey. So then Lawyer Grossman made quite a speech, touching on the Constitution of the United States and the proper length of skirt for a lady taking a walk on a vaude-

When the speech was over, Magis-

RICH VIRGINIANS GET THREATS THROUGH MAIL.

Richmond, Va., July 8.—The Black Hand or some other similar agency is operating here. Wealthy men of this city have received letters threatening the abduction of their children if the writers were not paid money.

Though the letters may be jokes, of a doubtful element of humor, it is not improbable that the perpetrators will themselves be brought to the conclusion that they are serious. Postoffice inspectors have been enlisted in a search for the writers, and today they are putting forth every effort to discover them.

With such alarm did one of the respondents regard the letters that he forthwith sent his wife and children to a neighboring city.

EXCURSION UP THE RIVER

The Herald's Excursion Will Be Run Next Monday.

Why not plan for a day's outing at beautiful Fond du Lac, the famous old Indian trading post, next Monday?
You cannot find a more beautiful place to take the family or your company for a day of pleasure.

In order that everybody may have the opportunity of visiting this pleasure resort up the St. Louis river. The Herald has made arrangements for popular-priced excursions on the steamer Newsboy on the river every Monday morning, leaving the foot of Fifth avenue west at 9 a. m., and returning at 6:15 p. m. A 15-mile ride up grand old St. Louis river and return for only 25 cents. Nobody can afford to miss this opportunity for a day's outing, with picnics, swimming, boating and fishing. If you enjoyed one of The Herald's "up-the-river" trips last summer you will surely want to go again.

Every Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock the steamer America will leave Booth's dock for a 60-mile trip on the lake, returning by moonlight. This is another of The Herald's popular-priced excursions. The fare is only 30 cents for the round trip. Tickets

WERE DENIED A PERMIT TO WED

Willing Couple Will Have to Wait a Few Months Longer.

Walter N. Walker and Rebecca G.
Whipple were this morning denied a marriage license by the clerk of the district court because the wife-to-be had not waited the required six months after receiving her divorce before attempting marriage, against.

Mr. Walker appeared at the clerk's office and asked for a license. On answering the questions, however, he was unable to say how long it was since his wife-to-be had been divorced. On looking the matter up he found that it was less than six months ago, and the license was denied him.

The length of time differs in the several states. In some states the time is set at a year. In Minnesota it is six months.

GETS CALL FROM SWEDISH CHURCH

Rev. Gideon Nylander May Return to His Native Land.

Rev. Gideon Nylander, for the past two years the pastor of the Third Swedish Baptist church, Fifty-ninth avenue west and Ramsey street, may give up his local charge to accept a call to a church in Sweden. Mr. Nylander has received a call from his native people and may accept.

The call to Rev. Nylander came from Sundsvall, a city in the northern part of Sweden, which is but a mile from the old home of Rev. Nylander. The church is a larger one than the one in Duluth.

Rev. Nylander came to Duluth two years ago from Sioux Falls, S. D.

For the past year and a half, domestic life at the Clough home has been anything but pleasant, according to Mrs. Clough. About six weeks ago her husband left her, and when an account of the domestic condition of the family was published in The Herald, kindly neighbors came to their assistance.

Mrs. Clough is a courageous woman under the circumstances, and regretted that she has been made an object of charity.

Her youngest child is yet but a babe in arms and the oldest of the six little girls is now pining for her father.

Today neighbors brought supplies up to the house, and they were greeted with cries of joy from the children.

Mrs. Clough says her husband is a blacksmith and is able to make $3 a day when he feels inclined to work.

She says that he is a victim of the drink habit and spends all of his wages for liquor.

Mrs. Clough charges in her complaint filed yesterday, that her husband left her on June 25. He led her to believe at the time that he was going to work at Woodland. She later inquired at Woodland and found that he had never worked there.

Late this afternoon the police had found no trace of Clough.

PRETTY WEDDING.
Miss Louise Remfry becomes Bride of Martin M. Meldahl.

A very simple but pretty wedding took place last evening, when Miss Louise Remfry became the bride of Martin M. Meldahl. The ceremony was read by Rev. Thomas Grice, pastor of the Ashbury M. E. church, at the home of the bride's parents, 526 North Fifty-sixth avenue west.

Neither the bride nor the groom was attended. The house was very tastefully decorated with ferns and evergreens. The bride carried a bouquet of American heavy roses. Miss Maud Gilbert played the wedding march, and Miss Gertrude Smith sang "Oh! Promise Me."

The following were guests at the wedding: Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Meldahl, Andrew M. Meldahl, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Demond, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Meldahl, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Remfry, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Remfry, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Meldahl, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Meldahl, Mrs. William Foubister, Miss Angelland, Mrs. John F. Kennedy, E. J. Kennedy, Gertrude Smith, Eliza Remfry, Jane Black, Vera Rockwell, Ray Stone, Eva Meloyman, Daise Meloyman, Carrie Stone, Maude Gilbert, Ethel Remfry, Helen Meldahl, Herbert Remfry and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Grice. The out-of-town guests were: Miss Sallie A. Oliver of Winnipeg, Miss Minnie Johnson of Austin, Minn., and A. J. Chappell of Minneapolis.

ADJUDGED INSANE.
Mary J. Stuntz Will Be Sent to Fergus Falls Asylum.

Mary J. Stuntz, aged 54 years, of 6 Munger row, West Duluth, was yesterday adjudged insane by Judge J. B. Middlecott of the probate court. She will be sent to the state hospital at Fergus Falls.

The unfortunate woman labors under the delusion that she is immensely wealthy. She also believes that she has been wronged by her husband. She has been in the state hospital at Fergus Falls for several months.

She has been demented ever since her husband died several years ago. She has been in the state hospital for the insane before, but was released in 1897.

W. T. HYDE FUNERAL.
Services are in Charge of Willis A. Gorman Post.

Funeral services over the body of William T. Hyde, aged 68 years, who was accidentally shot at Proctor, Saturday evening, July 3, and leaving them in an almost destitute condition. A warrant for his arrest was sworn out last yesterday by his wife.

The body will be laid to rest in the old soldiers' lot in Forest Hill cemetery, Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the home of the deceased, 311 South Sixty-seventh avenue west.

There was instrumental music, and games were played during the evening. Refreshments were served. The evening was very pleasantly spent.

West Duluth Woman Swears Out a Warrant for His Arrest.
John Clough of 5501 Grand avenue west is wanted by the police for deserting his wife and six small children on June 25, and leaving them in an almost destitute condition. A warrant for his arrest was sworn out last yesterday by his wife.

For the past year and a half, domestic life at the Clough home has been anything but pleasant, according to Mrs. Clough. About six weeks ago her husband left her, and when an account of the domestic condition of the family was published in The Herald, kindly neighbors came to their assistance.

Tammany Hall Visitors in Duluth Discuss Recent Upheaval.

Say Fine Hand of Brooklyn Senator Can Be Seen.

Judge L. J. Conlan, judge of the city court of New York city, a member of Tammany Hall and an honorary member of the New York Press club, and William N. Penny, clerk of the general session court of New York city, also a member of Tammany Hall and an active member of the New York Press club, are guests of the Spalding today.

The two New Yorkers have some interesting stories to tell regarding the recent upheaval in the city of New York. They are both intimately acquainted with members of the force and leading politicians of New York, and they are of the opinion that the recent upheaval is the result of a conspiracy.

Both of the visitors state that there is nothing in the stories that Tammany Hall is not at perfect harmony. They both state that Murphy will be succeeded by some new leader.

The trouble with New York police force, according to the statement of Judge Conlan, is that the police force of New York city is too large. Judge Conlan says that the police force of New York city is too large and that it is too expensive.

IS SHROUDED IN MYSTERY
Nothing Made Public Regarding the Bar Banquet Program.

Aside from the fact that the business meeting is to be held at the Commercial club rooms at 6 o'clock, nothing is known of the program for the evening. The program committee, composed of G. Engstrom, Bert Foster, Chief Congdon, Frank H. Adams, and Wilson G. Crosby, is keeping the matter very quiet.

Reports from the range indicate that nearly all the business meeting district are planning to attend, and about 150 guests are being arranged for. The business meeting will precede the bar banquet, which will be held at 7 o'clock by a banquet.

The retiring officers are: John G. Williams, president; Howard T. Rogers, secretary; and Francis W. Sullivan, treasurer.

Attorney General Wicksham Gives Address to Kentucky Lawyers.

Paducah, Ky., July 8.—The state control of corporations doing an interstate business, was discussed in an address before the state bar association by George W. Wicksham, attorney general of the United States. In this city last night, of paramount importance, he discussed the federal complete treatment of the trust question as it appears to the present national administration, the address was notable chiefly by the recommendation that congress should enact a law providing for nationally created incorporations to carry on interstate commerce.

Previously, by exhaustive reference to important state and federal court decisions, Mr. Wicksham sketched the ways by which states may regulate business of foreign corporations within their boundaries, and had advocated that the license of any foreign corporation be vacated if 30 per cent of its stock was owned by any company, domestic or foreign, or if that amount became later so owned.

"The device of the holding corporation," he said, "is a device which has made possible the rapid growth of the great trust and monopolies."

Italian Woman Took Novel Method of Circumventing Inspectors.

But Her Feminine Weakness for Pretty Things Was Her Undoing.

The sight of Inspector Perdomo of the local United States immigration office flying signals of distress, yesterday afternoon, aroused the curiosity of a Herald man who was at the Omaha depot trying to spot a departing celebrity. The appearance of the newspaper investigator attracted a smile of relief to the inspector.

"Here, hold this woman for a minute, will you?" he cried. "I want to telephone," and then he made a dash for the interior of the depot.

The reporter, greatly astonished, doubtfully eyed the young lady, a brunette of obvious nationality, who, in turn, coldly eyed him and then turned her head away in evident dissatisfaction. She made no attempt of breaking faith with Mr. Perdomo, did not deem it necessary to lay hands upon her, and thus for a moment she was left alone.

After an uncomfortably long interval returned, and then had only a minute to pour out his entire wrath before the Chicago train pulled out, with him and his charge on board. The woman, who had been so coldly eyed by the inspector, now looked at him with a look of triumph. She had been so sure that she would not be detected, and she was right. When she landed in this country, less than two years ago, and there she was.

Force Up Her Clothes. Inspector Deane some little time ago, at Hibbing, Minn., she was greatly enraged, and asserted in the most vigorous manner that her companion, that she would not return to Italy. Inspector Deane had refused to do what she could to throw her out of the country, and she was placed in her cell, with the exception of a small which it was hardly for her to appear in public.

As fast as new garments were ordered, they were destroyed them, announcing that if the government men took her to New York she would accompany them clothed only in the all-glass attire.

Mr. Perdomo says the nude in art may be all right, but in real life, in a day of different proposition. When the supply of available women's clothes became exhausted, Sonia was allowed to exit as best she could in her scanty attire, but she became such a general nuisance that Inspector Deane decided to hasten her departure to New York, and thus get her off the hands of the local authorities. The boat on which she leaves for Italy does not depart until July 16, but it was decided to ship the woman to New York, and let her amuse herself in her original clothes-tearing act at Ellis Island until the vessel sailed. Accordingly, Mr. Perdomo was detailed to undertake the contract of getting her to the nation's metropolis.

The other women huddled around in admiring groups, and advised her to do the best garments, such as silks, satins, etc., into bundles, while she wore only an old cotton gown for train use. They argued that she would want to keep the real nice things in good shape until she arrived in Italy.

Those arguments looked logical, and she agreed to them. Her alleged friends did up the best clothes for her, and gave her an affectionate farewell when the time for her departure came. All went well until the arrival at the depot. There Sonia could not resist the temptation to look at the bundles, and again admire her new possessions. She was horror-stricken to find the bundles contained only waste paper and rags. The other women prisoners had robbed her of the good clothes, substituting anything they could lay hands on to replace them in the bundles.

Flying into a rage, Sonia started in to tear off the old garments she was wearing, and the thoroughly frightened immigrant inspector was kept busy trying to prevent her becoming a living exemplification of some of the famous French art styles. Perspiration rolled from his brow in beads while he held her and talked as he had never talked before. Finally he succeeded in convincing her that if she would retain her person such clothes as she had on, she would get the rest from the jail later and have them shipped on to her at New York. This he why he telephoned. As the train pulled out Mr. Perdomo still looked greatly worried, but he smiled a hopeful smile at the Herald man, and waved a feeble farewell.

The theft will be investigated at the jail, and proper punishment will be meted out to the offenders.

Deepest Mines in America.

The deepest metal mines in the world are in the Lake Superior copper region. The Red Jacket shaft of the Calumet & Hecla mines has a vertical depth of 4,250 feet, while the Tamarack has two deeper shafts, one being 5,150 feet down and the other 5,230. By attaining a depth of a mile underground and showing with what ease operations are conducted at such great depths demonstrates that it is probable to penetrate as far into the earth as one goes. It is wonderful how much strength and vigor a glass of Golden Grain Belt beer will give a fatigued body. Every home should have a case in its cellar and use regularly. ### PAYING OFF THEIR DEBTS

Red Lake County Farmers Prospering With Milch Cows.

Creamery Industry of County Furnishes Them Big Incomes.

Thief River Falls, Minn., July 8.— (Special to The Herald.)—Probably no other section of the state has made more rapid progress in the dairying industry within the last four years than the territory tributary to Thief River Falls.

Five years ago a creamery was a curiosity; in fact, one did not exist in Red Lake county. Today the creameries are almost as numerous as the schools, and the receipts for 1908 were in the neighborhood of $250,000. This year the output will eclipse that amount, as the number of these institutions is increasing and the present ones are being enlarged.
The farmers are fast paying off their mortgages, which for many years have encumbered many of the Red River valley farms, and it is getting to be a common occurrence for a farmer to have a fat cash balance in the bank.

The local creamery, which is right in the heart of this city, has been in operation but three years, and the report of Secretary Peter Eglestad shows that the sum of $4,615 was received during the month of June for the sale of butter. This is the cost returns to the farmers who patronize this creamery as their share of the returns for one month. The St. Hilaire creamery, some six miles south of this city, for the same month paid its patrons the sum of $6,554. These are but two of the many similar institutions in this county. The total receipts for the month of June for only the two mentioned went up the tidy sum of $11,169. Nearly all the creameries in this section are the so-called farmers' co-operative creameries, only two privately owned ones being in operation in this territory.

Acquitted.

Langdon, N. D., July 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—John Grubb, the Great Northern roundhouse employee at Saries, who was charged with assaulting William Gill with intent to kill, was acquitted in the district court of Cavalier county today. Grubb and Gill had a fierce fight on the platform of the Great Northern train at Saries last winter and as a result Gill sustained several severe stab wounds in his back, which did him much harm. Gill was in the hospital for some time, and was unable to work for some time. Gill is a student of the North Dakota university and a star football player.

RELEASED ON PAROLE.
Former Deputy Auditor of Ramsey County Is Given Freedom.

St. Paul, Minn., July 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Walter B. Bourne, chief deputy from Ramsey County Auditors D. M. Sullivan and W. R. Johnson, was paroled today by the state board of corrections. Bourne was sent to the prison Jan.
9, 1902, on conviction of false imprisonment and grand larceny in the first degree for a term of fifteen years. He has served out his time and would not have been released until April 3, 1912, although he had good time and was working with the intent of obtaining his freedom by falsifying the county records in his charge.

WHOLESALE PIG RAIDS.

Illegal Liquor Sellers in Ward County, N. D., Gathered In.

Minot, N. D., July 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—The sheriff's office made a wholesale raid on this section of Ward county Saturday and Monday with the result that there are sixteen alleged piggery in custody and almost a carload of beer on the hands of the county.

The fireworks started Saturday when five men and a large quantity of beer were seized at Kenmare. Monday a sixth man was seized there, but it is claimed that he was only selling malt.
At Logan, Harry Selzer, a local drayman, was arrested just as he was about to deliver a dray load of beer to the piggery there. Two other men were also arrested as accomplices.
William Kelly, a well-known local character, was arrested on the charge of maintaining a common nuisance at Wildwood, where he had several cases of beer in a little dugout. Kelly furnished a bond for $1,000 this morning with Jack Shields, Capt. Whitcomb and J. Seefeld as sureties.
Deputy John Schaefer raided piggeries and secured three men and a quantity of beer. This makes nearly twenty cases that will have to be tried in the near future on a pigging charge.

Bismarck Physician Gives His Friends Quite a Surprise.

Bismarck, N. D., July 8.—The marriage of Dr. G. H. Holt, who was formerly a practicing physician here, associated with a firm of physicians, and Miss Carrie Delzer, up to a few days ago a waitress employed at the Northwest hotel, occurred at Mandan recently.

The couple took the train from this city and were married at the town across the Missouri and then are said to have extended their trip to Portland, Or., where it is rumored the doctor will locate and establish a practice.

People at the hotel have been aware of the fact that there was an attachment between the two young people for some time past, but few of them were wise to the fact that there was to be a wedding in the near future.
The doctor is said to be the son of a well-fixed and influential family in Boston, Mass. while the bride has been called one of the most beautiful women in the city of Bismarck.

One Killed and Three Hurt in Southern Minnesota Town.

Red Wing, Minn., July 8.—Francis, the 4-year-old son of Oscar Bennett, was fatally burned while playing with matches. The little fellow's waist caught fire and his chest, abdomen and right hand were severely burned. He died shortly after.
Miss Mabel Oelberg of St. Paul, while attempting to step on a merry-go-round, fell and broke her leg. The right leg above the ankle.
Miss Margaret Nibbe of Goodhue, in an attempt to get over the way to a team that threatened to run away, was run over by an automobile and received painful injuries to her right arm.

BURIED AT MANKATO.

Funeral of Itasca Railroad Victim Held in Southern Town.

Mankato, Minn., July 8.—The funeral of T. J. Mahoney, the Omaha railroad switchman killed at Itasca, near Superior, Minn., on Friday, was held Sunday from St. John's Catholic church.
The deceased was raised in Mankato, and for years was a fireman on the Omaha, part of the time under James Spelman. He was offered a promotion to the position of engineer, but declined on account of the responsibility.
He was a single man, 35 years of age, and leaves one brother, Michael, who lives in Tinkom's addition, and one sister, Mrs. O'Brien of Superior, Wis.
He was a member of the new revolution and Charles Wyatt of this city.

science hall went to William Perkins.

KENMARE IN TROUBLE.

Well-Known Citizens Including the Mayor Are in Trouble.

Kenmare, N. D., July 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—This city is thoroughly stirred up as a result of complaints which have been lodged with the state's attorney against a number of prominent residents.
Several members of the fire department and a number of others are charged with rioting and hazing. The mayor and several other officers are also being charged with hazing. The city is in a state of confusion and the people are being asked to stay at home. The city is in a state of

GALLIVAN STILL AT LARGE.

Alleged Burglar Who Broke From Beltrami County Jail Not Taken.

Beltrami, Minn., July 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Matt Gallivan, who broke jail here June 25, while being held to await the action of the grand jury, being accused of burglary, is still at large, despite the efforts of Sheriff Hazen and deputies.
The morning after his escape it was found that the lock on the center window on the north side of the second story of the jail had been picked.
One lock was found near the barn in the courthouse yard and another was recovered from the gutter near the fence. A crooked wire and a key were also found on the premises, indicating the manner in which Galliv-an had made his escape.
Sheriff Hazen offered a reward of $50 for the apprehension of Gallivan.

good health, with its blessings, must understand, quite clearly, that it involves the question of right living with all the term implies. With proper knowledge of what is best, each hour of recreation, of enjoy-be made to contribute to living aright.

Then the use of medicines may be dis-

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

St. Cloud.—A committee representing the Catholic congregation at Hawley visited St. Cloud Tuesday to confer with Mr. Nagle, who is in charge of the affairs of the diocese in the absence of Bishop Trebeck, relative to the erection of a new $20,000 church at Bon-du. Work is to be commenced this week.
Aitkin.—Rev. P. A. Brunner arrived last week from Denver, Colo., to take charge here of St. John's church and the Episcopal mission. Rev. Brunner was assistant to the bishop of Colorado at the pro-cathedral in Denver, and bishop Morrison of Duluth highly recommends him.
Brainerd.—A telegram was received here Tuesday announcing the death of Joseph W. Slipp, formerly of Brainerd, at his home in Clarkson, Wash. The remains will be shipped to Brainerd for burial and will probably arrive here Friday.

Anoka.—George Foster as chairman of the Anoka, Minn., and W. A. Aikin as mayor of Anoka, met at the courthouse and selected E. I. Trippe of the Anoka county commission as a member of the Anoka city commission.

Brainerd.—Harold Strand was seriously injured in the saloon of the Anthers hotel Monday night. In some way he fell or was pushed through the ground glass screen in front of the doorway building, when completed, will be one of the finest in these parts.

MINERS' ANNUAL PICNIC.

It Will Be Held at Calumet & Hecla Park Aug. 7.

Calumet, Mich., July 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Arrangements are being perfected for the annual picnic of the Calumet & Hecla miners of this district, to be held at Calumet & Hecla park Aug. 7.

General Manager MacNaughton has been named chairman of the day, and the speaker will be Dr. E. T. Abrams of Dollar Bay. Four bands were named to take part in the monster parade of the miners in the morning.
These are the Calumet & Hecla, Tamarack, the original Red Jacket city band and the Laurium band. A vote was taken at a meeting of miners as to which bands should render music for dancing at the park, both afternoon and evening, and the choice fell on the Calumet & Hecla band for the afternoon and the Tamarack band in the evening.

Another meeting of the miners is scheduled to be held in the Cately Wiggins' hall on Saturday afternoon, July 17, when final arrangements for the picnic will be made.

STRAY HORSE LAKE GIVES UP ITS DEAD.

Benidji, Minn., July 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—The body of a Tasterud, the 15-year-old son of Ed
Tasterud, was recovered from Stray Horse lake, three miles south of the village of Fowlde, Wednesday, neighbors having been dragging the lake since Tuesday morning in search of the body.

Young Tasterud, who was living with his parents on the shore of the lake in a rowboat, taking a gun with him.
A short time afterward a sister of the boy looked on the lake and noticed that the boat was overturned, and gave an alarm.
The body was recovered, but there was no visible sign of its occupant.
Diligent search was made along the shore, but there was no trace of a body.

Neighbors living near Tasterud's joined in the search and dragging was commenced. The searchers dragged the lake all day Tuesday, and brought the body of young Tasterud to the shore Monday morning. The water at the spot where the body was found was twelve feet deep.
The body will be held in the church at Spaulding this afternoon.

RICH FARMER DESPONDENT BLOWS HIS HEAD OFF.

Neche, N. D., July 8.—Brooding over the fact that his daughter was the only member of his family still living, a rich farmer, who had no further charms for him, Goddard Fisher, aged 63 years, a wealthy farmer of Embury county, committed suicide Monday by blowing his head off with a gun.

GRATIOT MAN FOUND DEAD BESIDE TRACK.

Calumet, Mich., July 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—Robert Cunningham, found dead Monday night under the Albion trestle of the Houghton company. An examination revealed the fact that the man's neck was broken, and he also had a bad wound just back of the left ear.

WRECK VICTIM DEAD.

Dickinson, N. D., July 8.—J. W. Hayes of Dickinson, a victim of the Sentinel Butte train wreck, died Tuesday. He was paralyzed from his shoulders down. His father resided in Missouri, and he has two brothers in Nebraska. He was about 40 years of age.
The supposition is that the man was walking over the trestle, and was knocked off by a passing car. He had no other injuries than those on his neck.
Cunningham is said to have been a sober, industrious man, and just before he should have been on the track at the time is a matter of conjecture.

Killed Boarding a Car.

Chipewah, N. D., July 8.—A brakeman James P. Flaherty, aged 19 years, of this city, was killed Tuesday morning by a train wreck. He was shot down by a passing car. He was attempting to board a flat car. He was thrown under the wheels and his head was cut in two.

Currie Nation at New Chm.

A. Nation, while on her way to lecture at the Chauquaqua at Redwood Falls, stopped off here for two hours Tuesday and while walking along Minnesota street entered two saloons. She immediately upbraided the proprietors for running a hell hole and a disreputable joint.

mer months.
Houghton.—Mrs. Mary Sullivan, aged 80, widow of the late Daniel Sullivan, was found dead in her bed Tuesday morning. Her demise was sudden as she was up and around about midnight Monday night when a fire broke out in

COPPER COUNTRY IS PROSPEROUS

Says John Cuddihy of Calumet, Who Is in Duluth.

John D. Cuddihy of Calumet, a prominent capitalist of the Copper country, the proprietor of the opera house at Calumet and interested in various mining properties of Upper Michigan, is here today, the guest of Charles A. Marshall. Mr. Cuddihy says that the mining outlook in the Copper country is very encouraging, the people believing that the price of copper will mount to 15 cents this fall. From Duluth Mr. Cuddihy will go to Butte, where he will join John D. Ryan, the head of the Anaconda Copper company, in a trip through the national park. Mr. Cuddihy and Manager Marshall were discussing the current status of the struggle between the Klaw and Erlanger and Shubert theatrical interests. Theatrical managers in this part of the country are deeply interested in the outcome of the theatrical war, and both Mr. Cuddihy and Manager Marshall are keeping in close touch with the fight.

LEARNING NEW BOAT SIGNALS

Naval Militia Men Are Drilling for the Maneuvers Next Month.

Members of the signal squad of the Minnesota Naval Militia are applying themselves diligently in the learning of the new boat signals, which have just been received from the navigation department. The boys are working hard in order to make a good showing at the annual maneuvers of the naval militia on the Great Lakes, which take place next month. The Illinois, Ohio and Michigan militiamen are also working hard to learn the new signals, and the advantage of a month's study over the local militia.

However, the Duluth signal squad is not worrying over the matter, but rather putting in its best time at learning the new signals, and the chance is that they will have them at their finger tips when the ships gather. They are drilling under the direct supervision of Ensign Joseph Nelson, acting signal officer. At the maneuvers last year Duluth took high honors in the signal work, and it is expected that this year will be even better this summer, as the new signal bridge of the Copper will greatly facilitate the work of the squad.

TELLS "WHAT AILS FARMERS"

Canadian College President Talks at Educational Convention.

Denver, Colo., July 7.—"Pocketbooks glued shut," "that dangerous little education"—these were the words of the charges made against the farmers of America by James W. Robertson, president of the National Educational Association, who spoke before the rural agricultural department today at the National Educational Association meeting. "It is not a matter of education being dangerous," said the speaker. "It is the farmer of today. He wants a little education, but he does not want to pay for it. He does not want more education, because he thinks his son will leave him. This is where he is wrong, because if the son knew more, the farmer's acres would be worth more."

R. J. Crosby of the United States department of agriculture pleaded for a closer relation between the rural schools and the farmer. He wanted to shift the emphasis from the "three R's" to the "four R's"—reading, writing, arithmetic and the ability to make fences where required. Ashley Van Storm of the Iowa agricultural school, who was in the North Dakota agricultural school, also spoke. The controversy between the university and the normal school as to whether the latter is also to be a school for women for teaching came up in the meeting of the normal department. Samuel E. Harwood, superintendent of the training school at Carbondale, Ill., took up the benefits of the normal training with the assertion that training and observation will give to a prospective teacher the necessary foundation for a teacher's education. C. B. Robertson of the New York normal school, Cortland, N. Y., took a similar attitude.

New Testament Studies

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON: JULY 11. Acts xviii:10-19. The Philippian Jailers.

By Rev. J. S. Kirtley, D.D.

THE CONNECTION. We read of the conversion of a business woman, Lydia, who sold those rare purple made over in Thyatira. Now the apostles are in Thyatira, and there are four of them, Paul and Silas and Timothy and Luke. The latter seems to have joined them at Troas.

The place of prayer by the Ganges river became a regular meeting place. Day after day, as they went to and fro, a girl met them and as a woman crazy with grief crying out, "These men are the servants of the living God, who show us the way of salvation." In these mythological regions of Greece they preached the word of life, beneficent or malignant, and they thought it was their duty to do so. Pythia. She was a slave, in fact, seems to have been owned by a company who made money by having her mutter out the fortunes of the superstitious people.

Paul was grieved; not that she testified to them, but that she was not possessed by an evil spirit. He was not irritated, but indignant. He would not have his gospel defiled by the testimony of demons, just as Jesus would not for the faith. Just as Jesus would not rest on such testimony, and besides he would restore her to her sanity. Her owners were enraged at Paul

Madam, See How Much You Are Losing

The raw milk you serve is germ-laden. The raw milk you cook with is only a half-milk. And see what you miss in convenience. Yet you pay more for this milkman's milk than your neighbors pay for Van Camp's.

Some day you will quit the milkman as scores of your neighbors have done.

You will buy Van Camp's Milk by the case, and have your own cow in the kitchen. You will do this when you cook one dish with Van Camp's; when you learn what milk should be.

We are trying to hurry the day for your own sake. You are missing more than you know.

But the day will come anyway. Up-to-date women won't cling to out-of-date ways.

No Disease Germs

The bane of raw milk is disease germs. For any germ in milk breeds with frightful rapidity.

There may be germs of consumption from tubercular cows, which are common. Infections may come from diseased milkmen or from dirty dairies.

These germs make raw milk the most terrible foe of humanity. For one thing, two-thirds our infant mortality is due to them.

Van Camp's milk is germless.

Our cows are inspected; so are the men who milk them. Our dairies are sanitary. Our buildings are built without wood. We make a business of cleanliness.

Then Van Camp's is pasteurized after the cans are sealed. Not a germ of any kind can remain in it.

Van Camp Packing Co.
Indianapolis, Ind.

Nothing But Milk

Van Camp's is simply rich Holstein milk, with two-thirds the water evaporated. Nothing whatever is added. Nothing is subtracted save water.

It's not a peculiar milk.

Our cows are the finest breed. Our dairies are in the best dairying sections. Our milk is evaporated while it is fresh.

That slight almond flavor—apparent only when the milk is drunk cold—is due to sterilization. It means nothing added. It indicates simple purity.

When you heat the milk—as in cooking or coffee—the almond flavor disappears. You have then the natural flavor of milk or cream, save our surprising richness.

Six Cents Per Quart

Van Camp's is as thick as thick cream—so thick that you add one part water for coffee. Yet it doesn't cost half what you pay your milkman for cream.

Add two parts water and you have rich milk. The cost of such milk, when you buy Van Camp's by the case, is but six cents per quart.

Then you have no waste—no milk left over. That saving, in itself, is enormous.

So you have a cow in your kitchen—rich milk or cream whenever you want it. And it costs less than hand-to-mouth buying.

You have a pure, rich milk for less than you pay your milkman.

Matchless Milk Dishes

Just make one milk dish with Van Camp's. Note the wonderful flavor and richness. Then you'll forever use it.

Yet that flavor is not artificial. It comes solely from the whole, rich milk.

You are used to cooking with half-milk—you who buy from the milkman. For milkman's milk separates, before and after you get it.

The butter fat rises; the solids fall. You get so you don't know what whole milk means. You get all the milk in Van Camp's.

But Be Careful!

Condensed milk is half sugar. You can't use it for cooking. Don't think that Van Camp's is like that.

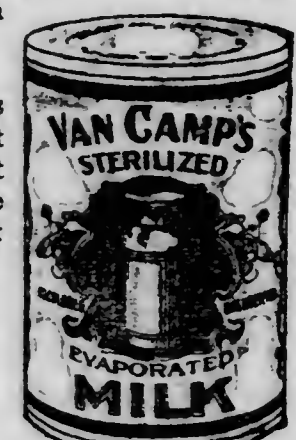

And don't think that all evaporated milks are alike.

Van Camp's Milk shows about 8 per cent of butter fat. That's because we use Holstein milk, and take out two-thirds the water.

But milk less rich, and with more water left in, may still be called "evaporated."

If you'll compare Van Camp's with other brands, you will see what a difference there is. Yet others cost as much as Van Camp's.

Van Camp's Milk comes in 5 and 10-cent cans, at your grocer's. It is put up at our dairies, in five states, where we milk 20,000 Holstein cows.

Van Camp's Milk Evaporated—Sterilized—Unsweetened

other two were praising. Instead of considering their imprisonment an unfortunate interruption of their work, they knew it meant opportunity for a new kind of work.

Strikingly Delivered. 20-31. And suddenly there was a great earthquake so that the foundations of the prison house were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and every man's chains were loosed.

The jailer, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing the prisoners had escaped. But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm; for we are all here. And he said, I would have killed thee, but thou shalt be saved, thou and thy house. And they spake the word of the Lord unto him with all that were in the house. And he took them the same hour of the night and washed their stripes, and was baptized, he and all his, immediately. And he brought them up into his house and set meat before them and rejoiced greatly with all his house, having believed in God.

As God guided them over the sea He will guide them through this bloody incident. They submitted willingly to His will, to His arrangement. They took the form of praise rather than of prayer. To that faith and honor, the conversion of numerous people and the furtherance of the cause, it was done by the power of God. The earthquake was not to break the chains of the minds of the heathen. It was not necessary, in order to break the chains or unlock the doors. It was either supernatural or supernaturally timed.

Paul and Silas were aware of the greatly with all his house, having believed in God. The first effect was to lead him to suppose that all the prisoners had escaped. The second effect was instant preparation for suicide with their own sword rather than death at the hands of the law for allowing prisoners to escape. But Paul heard the rattling of the sword as it was drawn from its sheath and saw it flash for an instant in the full light. He knew well what it meant. In an instant his voice stopped the mad act with assurance that no one had died, as soon as he could procure lights the jailer was at his feet in a paroxysm of fear. It was not fear of the prisoners, his prisoners were safe. It was the fear of the God of these two men. Evidently he had caused the earthquake. He was angry with them for their sins, and especially the sin of beating and imprisoning his servants; these two men were his favored and were offering tokens of peace and salvation. For he had heard of what the Lord had done for Paul and Silas, and he was now seeing the same thing in his own house. He was now seeing the same thing in his own house. He was now seeing the same thing in his own house.

Paul's first words were a definite answer to the definite question, and then he took time to speak "the word of the Lord," more fully explaining more about Christ and the duties of those who believe. As the jailer was totally ignorant of Christ, Paul and Silas must have answered many questions and attempted to enlighten him on all important points. One interesting incident, they submitted willingly to his household on the same terms as to him, and that they were immediately called together to hear the word in the outer prison. All this was done very quickly before the hour had passed. The man believed and gave immediate evidence, beginning at the right place. Paul told them the duty of being baptized, but he did not wait another duty first. All in sympathy with the men who had had their backs bled, he was in and unlocked the doors. It was either supernatural or supernaturally timed.

Paul and Silas were aware of the greatly with all his house, having believed in God. The first effect was to lead him to suppose that all the prisoners had escaped. The second effect was instant preparation for suicide with their own sword rather than death at the hands of the law for allowing prisoners to escape. But Paul heard the rattling of the sword as it was drawn from its sheath and saw it flash for an instant in the full light. He knew well what do still further for his new friends. What can he do? Give them something to eat. Sure enough, that is the very thing. They have had much loss of blood since eating, have had wasting expenditure of vital force in enduring it all, and after such a nervous shock all of them may be a little hungry. Yes, set the table and refresh these men with food. Now the jailer's joy bursts forth, for he has believed according to command and has obeyed and has done all he could for his guests. Of course, he rejoiced; it is the greatest day of his life. One element of his joy is that his whole household are sharing his salvation. Each one had the conviction of sin which he had had salvation offered on the same terms, had the word made clear by the apostles, believed, was baptized, repented.

Happy household! Next morning Paul claimed his right to be brought out rather than slip out. He would not do that injustice to his cause nor to the officials themselves.

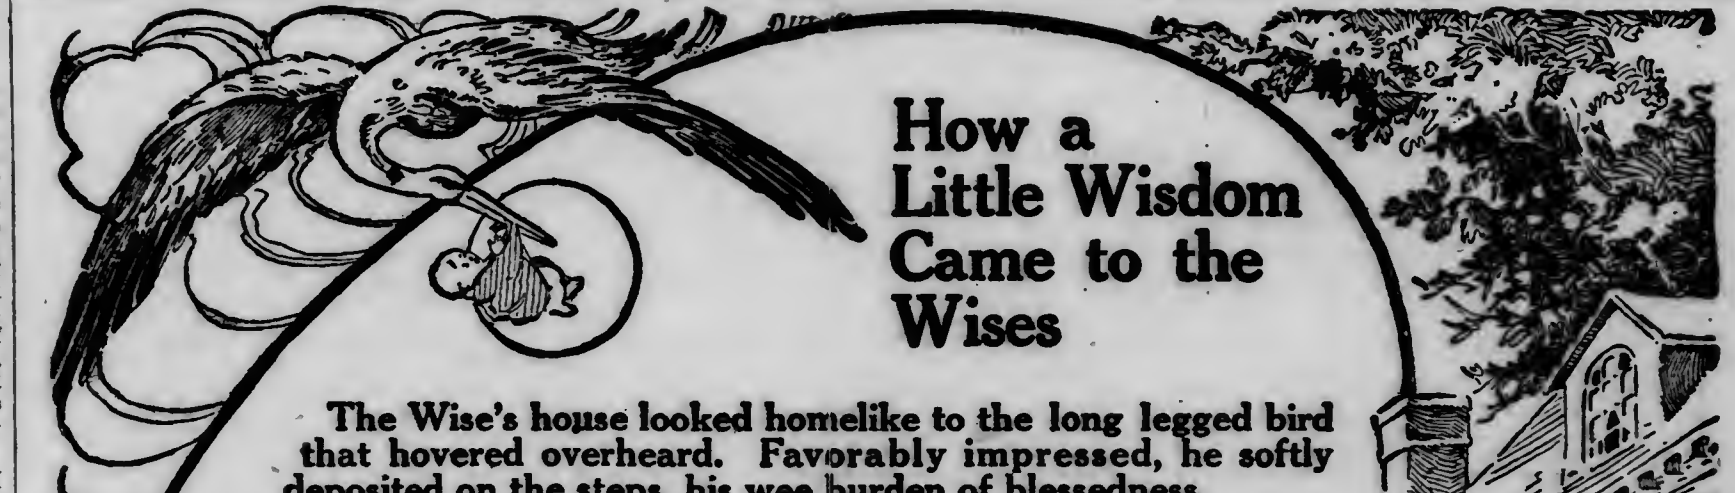

WHAT THE MASTERS SAY. Satan was encountered here, not as he manifested himself in Jesus in Jesus' day, but as he wrought in heathenism. He was not a man, but a power in the sacred record, belated, perhaps, exclusively to that day. They may have passed away, but he who caused them has not. Certain ancient sins have ceased, but he who caused them is still full of "deceit" (2 Cor. ii, 11). He has not abandoned his throne, his method may vary; it was one thing then, it is another now, but he is ever the same, the enemy of all truth—Satan.

Even the hardest place brings with it some opportunity of service and testimony. Not a prison even can cage you from that. Forth from their dark cell sounded these praiseful notes and they cast their spell upon the other prisoners. How they must have wondered and been taught that Paul and Silas and something joyfully mastered in their hearts which they did not have.

PERTINENT QUESTIONS.

1. Is it the purpose of Christianity to put a stop to all unholy occupations? 2. Will she succeed? 3. Is every hard experience a new opportunity? 4. Does such experience ever fail to accomplish something, if borne aright? 5. To what extent has a man a right to surrender his rights?

How a Little Wisdom Came to the Wises

The Wise's house looked homelike to the long legged bird that hovered overhead. Favorably impressed, he softly deposited on the steps, his wee burden of blessedness.

The Wise's pleasure at the Stork's thoughtfulness was tempered by Mrs. Wise's following illness and her inability to provide nourishment for the Blessing.

It looked as tho the precious gift might be taken away.

Wise's doctor saved the day. He said "DIGESTO." Mrs. Wise became healthy and rosy and the Blessing became healthy and rosy.

One more credit mark for DIGESTO. It is a necessity before and after the Stork's visit.

TOM TAGGART TELLS STORY

eratic ticket last year, paved the way for Mr. Taggart.
As a preliminary to his testimony on the point which brought him into court, Mr. Taggart stated that he had lived in Indiana for thirty-five years, that he was married and had been in the hotel business at French Lick, Springs for a great many years.
"I have been mayor of Indianapolis, chairman of the Democratic national committee and president of the street railway company," the witness continued.
"Do you know Miss Barrette, the complainant in this case?"
"Yes."

"How did you get acquainted?"
"I met her at French Lick," he answered. "She worked as a manicure for a man by the name of Gibson at French Lick. He sold out to her and I, of course, resented to her the man in one of my hotels."

"Did you ever hear anything against her character?"
"This question started a wrangle between the attorneys in the midst of which Attorney O'Donnell, addressing both the court and Mr. Taggart, made a formal statement, exonerating Mr. Taggart in every particular, saying:
"I want it distinctly understood that Mr. Taggart's name was brought into this case over my protest. We have proof that Miss Barrette never was acquainted with Mr. Taggart and his name was mentioned only indirectly to her. It might have been any one of those wealthy men, but it happened to be Taggart and in this particular Mr. Taggart is unfortunate."

The following of the witness was exceedingly brief.
"Do you know Miss Gingles?" asked Attorney Short.
"I do not," answered Mr. Taggart with emphasis.

"Does Not Know Girl."
Miss Gingles was called on the witness as she spoke. She looked over every detail of her tight suit, her gloves and the diamond which sparkled in her ear.
"Did you ever hear of Miss Gingles before this case?" continued Mr. Short.
"Only some months ago when somebody brought me a newspaper containing the names of Miss Gingles and Miss Barrette."

"You were not subpoenaed here by the state were you?"
"I was not subpoenaed by anybody. I heard that my name was being used, and as a man of family I came here to clear my name of any shadow which might have been thrown over it."

At this point Attorney O'Donnell repeated with emphasis his statement declaring that there was not a vestige of evidence in his possession nor in that of his client justifying the use of Mr. Taggart's name. He declared that it had been brought into the case by the prosecution.
"You don't know me, Mr. Taggart, do you?" Mr. O'Donnell asked.
"I do not."

"Attorneys in Clash."
"And I don't know you," echoed the defense lawyer.
"Oh, you're too busy trying to clear your own skirts," said Mr. Short, glancing sharply at the rival attorney.
"Did you know of any branch of the 'white slave' traffic that has its branch

CLOQUET THIEF SOON CAPTURED

Anton Johnson Robs Man Giving Him Place to Sleep.

Cloquet, Minn., July 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—Alex Nygati and Emil Maki were robbed of $64 in cash and a gold watch valued at about $20 respectively yesterday afternoon. But the thief was caught before he had gone far.
Nygati is a bartender in a local saloon, and during the afternoon Anton Johnson, an acquaintance of Nygati, asked if he could go to sleep for a short time in Nygati's room, which was in the rear of the saloon. He was allowed the sleeping place, but Johnson did not stay long. He ordered a hack soon afterwards from a local livery stable and started for Carlton. In the meantime Nygati had gone to his room and found that the $64 was missing, also the watch belonging to Maki; he notified the police, and they in turn notified the Carlton officials. Johnson was arrested at Carlton by a deputy sheriff and returned to Cloquet, where he was given a hearing. The watch and $25 in cash were found on his person.

TALK ABOUT THEIR WORK

dom Come"—marched on the capital of the state of Minnesota yesterday afternoon, and amid hymns of praise and thanksgiving and huzzas anew the Minnesota state structure in a flow of love and Christian brotherhood.

Brotherhood Their Theme.
The key-note of the hymns and the subject of William J. Bryan's address was international brotherhood, and over the great throngs there seemed to float the spirit of Christian unity and kinship.

It was just after 4 o'clock when the great procession, which started from the Auditorium, came into sight toward St. Peter street. Heading it was a line of mounted police under the command of Lieut. Budy. Then came a line of marching patrolmen, and behind them came the automobile with the official party. In it were William J. Bryan, President Clark, Prof. Clark, Justice Secretary Shaw and Ames J. Wells.

Then came the rank and file of the great host. Heading it was the aged Bishop Fallows of Chicago, who walked the way from the Auditorium. With him were ministers of the gospel and Williams distinguished in every city in the country.

It took fully twenty minutes for the crowd to adjust itself, and when it did the delegates were found stationed on one of the great stone pedestals to the left of the stairs.

Bryan the Speaker.
Secretary Shaw opened the proceedings by stating that the Hon. George Nicholls, member of the legislature, preacher and labor representative who had been scheduled to speak with Bryan, was unable to attend. He read the letter of Mr. Nicholls.

Mr. Bryan's address then followed, which took up the rest of the afternoon.
At a prolonged meeting of delegates last night, Atlantic City, was selected as the place of next year's convention of the Christian Endeavor society.

Epworth League Picks Boston.
Seattle, Wash., July 9.—The board of control of the Epworth league of the United States and Canada has decided to hold the next international convention in Boston, May 18, 1910.

The movement to make the Epworth league more democratic and to take it out of the hands of the bishops and other dignitaries, found expression at yesterday's afternoon session of the convention, when Rev. Dr. J. C. Colman of New Albany, N. Y., looking out upon the audience, said:

"I don't like this audience. There are too many old people—too many grayheads. The Epworth league should be young people. The place for the fathers and mothers should be in the prayer meetings in the church."

The speakers last night were Rev. H. A. Baker of Columbus, Ohio, president of the National Anti-Saloon league, and Rev. C. Stutz, secretary of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Ko-Konks at St. Louis.
St. Louis, Mo., July 9.—The National convention of Ko-Konks, an organization of more than 4,000 coal mine operators, began here today. Stephen Thomas Ayres of Philadelphia is presiding.

SUPERIOR

IS INDICTED FOR MURDER

police at 5 o'clock the same morning near the interstate bridge. He told the officers when captured that he was on his way to Superior to work.

The murder was witnessed by nobody. The inmates of the house, however, are sure that Barilla was the man who did the cutting. Barilla himself, it is said, admits this part of it at the present term of court.

Zumbarelli was terribly cut. Nearly every vital part of his body was touched. The main blow seemed to have been one struck from underneath, and ran from the pit of his stomach up nearly to his neck.

The man will probably be tried largely on circumstantial evidence, as there was no one present at the time of the affair. The trial will come up at the present term of court.

Jacob Johnson was indicted for the crime of grand larceny in the second degree. On May 30 last he is said to have stolen 150 pounds of pork loins from the Morris Packing company.

An indictment was returned against Isaac Johnson for the crime of assault in the second degree. On July 6 last he is accused of attacking Bert W. Blomhorn with a knife. The victim, it is said, was slashed about the head and neck.

The jury returned an indictment against Edward Fling. He is held on the charge of assault in the second degree. On June 19 last, he is accused of assaulting J. H. Erickson with an iron cupholder in a saloon brawl on lower Lake avenue.

John Esterlund is held on the charge of grand larceny in the second degree. On July 1 of this year he is accused of stealing a gold watch from Bert Wahl, the value of which was $25.

Fred Raymer Smith is held on the charge of burglary in the third degree. He was arrested in the Sterling Wine house on Dec. 8 of last year, which place he had broken into, with intent to steal. It is claimed by the police.

GIRL DEFIES GOVERNMENT

will not conform any longer with the prison regulations. As political offenders we will insist on being treated as such, and not as ordinary criminals, and in the last resort we will act as did Miss Dunlop."

Miss Dunlop secured her release yesterday by starving herself for ninety-one hours.

Appeal Their Cases.
Mrs. Haverfield, daughter of Lord Alinger, was given the same sentence as Miss Fankhurst. Both the women notified the court of their intention to proceed to abstain from sending further deputations to the house of commons during the present session. The cases of all the other suffragettes arrested with Miss Fankhurst were adjourned pending the outcome of the appeal.

Followers of Miss Denard, who have been acting as sentinels surrounding the houses of parliament for the last week, picketed Premier Asquith's residence in Downing street this afternoon, but four of the women were promptly arrested by the police.

CALHOUN'S SECOND TRIAL IS SET FOR JULY 19.

San Francisco, July 9.—Patrick Calhoun, president of the United Railways, will go to trial Monday, July 19 for the second time this year on charges of having offered a bribe to a supervisor to influence his vote on the overland trolley permit granted in 1906. He will be tried again before Superior Judge William P. Lawler, who denied yesterday the motion for a change of venue asked by the defendant on the ground that the court was biased and prejudiced against him.

NORTH DAKOTA'S NEW SANITARY LAW EFFECTS.

Fargo, N. D., July 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—One of the results of the new sanitary law which became effective in this state July 1 is the order of the sanitary commission to close the slaughter houses of four of the leading meat markets here, to close up one of the cheap meat markets and to order an entire remodeling of one of the largest bakeries.

NORTH STAR TEMPERANCE SOCIETY ELECTS OFFICERS.

Hancock, Mich., July 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—North Star Finnish Temperance society has elected the following officers: President, Alma Oja; vice president, H. MAY BREAK PRECEDENT OF JAPAN'S ROYAL FAMILY—Copyright 1939, by George Grantham Bain.
CROWN PRINCE OF JAPAN.

The crown prince of Japan is booked as a possible visit to the Seattle exposition. If he comes it will be a shattering of precedent. None of the royal family of Japan has traveled before, except to China or Korea. We have had some experience in entertaining visiting royalty. The present king of England was here when he was crown prince. Albert, heir to the Belgian throne, has visited us. Among lesser members of royal families we have had Prince Henry of Prussia, the (late) Grand Duke Alexis of Russia, and Prince Louis of Battenberg. If the crown prince should come here, the state department would appoint a representative to entertain him and he would undoubtedly visit Washington or wherever the president might be—possibly Beverly Hills. The visit is fixed by rumor for August.

BOGUS MONEY
PLANT RAIDEDMilwaukee Police Find a Counterfeiting Factory in Frame Cottage.

Milwaukee, Wis., July 9.—A quantity of counterfeit dollars, half dollars and quarters and a complete counterfeiting plant was discovered by the Milwaukee police in a small early today of a frame cottage at 525 Reed street. Mrs. Hajdukovich, her three small children and her sister, Anna Hajdukovich, the latter charged with attempting to pass a bogus coin, were taken to the Central police station.

BRYAN RIDES
WITH JOHNSONDoes Not Expect Much Change From Republican Tariff Law.

St. Paul, Minn., July 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—William J. Bryan, who was here yesterday to address the Christian Endeavor convention, went to the city today to see Governor Johnson, President H. W. Topping of the park board, and Mayor Sawyer. When the governor reached the city, he shook hands warmly with Mr. Bryan.

"I've got my automobile outside," said the governor, "and if you'll just come down we'll take a spin around town."

"But I've got to be here at 11:30," said the Nebraskaan, "to meet Mayor Sawyer."

"We'll take him with us," said the governor, "and if you'll just come down we'll take a spin around town."

"All right then," said Mr. Bryan, and he got into the governor's car. The car that is making history on Capitol Hill dashed up Sixth street and around to the Wisconsin street entrance of the city hall, where Mayor Sawyer and Mr. Topping were waiting. The car hardly stopped, the mayor springing into his seat with the activity of an athlete, and they were off.

The party made a rapid run out and over Summit avenue returning by way of University avenue and passing the capitol. There was not much political discussion, but some things were touched on incidentally, and among other things, Mr. Bryan said that he did not believe the tariff policies of the Republican party would work much change. On the contrary, he believed conditions would be as over Secretary Day, speaking of the Democratic race at the last presidential derby, suggested that Governor Johnson should have run for president instead of Mr. Bryan, who Nebraskaan should have waited for the next nomination.

"But would the result have been changed?" remarked the Commissioner. And then he went into a long explanation to show that it would not have been, and that the Democratic party was due for a defeat that could not have been sidetracked by any candidate.

SHELL LAKE EVENTS.

Shell Lake, Wis., July 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Longtin are here on a three weeks' outing. They have rented a furnished cottage on Elwood Beach, a summer resort. They have as their guests for a few days Mrs. Lizzie Hagen and children of West Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Riley of Spooner, and Mrs. Riley of Wilson, Wis., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Longtin at Elwood Beach on the Fourth.

Miss Agnes O'Leary of Chicago was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Longtin at Sunnyside cottage, on the Fourth, returning home the fore part of the week.

Mrs. Cecilia O'Leary of Chicago, who has been visiting relatives in Shell Lake and Spooner, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Longtin.

Mrs. Lizzie Hagen of West Duluth, and Mrs. Minnie Reid of Shell Lake, gave a luncheon party on the Fourth in honor of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Longtin at Sunnyside cottage, Elwood Beach. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Riley of Spooner and Mrs. Riley of Wilson, Wis., Mrs. Sarah Beale, Newton Beale, Mrs. F. Lampton, Miss Bessie Eke of Shell Lake, Wis., Miss Agnes and Miss Cecilia O'Leary of Chicago, Miss Sarah Hagen and Master William Hagen of West Duluth. After luncheon a launch cruise was enjoyed around the lake.

WANT MAILS DENIED TO COTTON EXCHANGES.

Atlanta, Ga., July 9.—The house yesterday adopted a resolution directing Georgia congressmen and senators to favor measures to deny the use of the mails to the New Orleans and New York cotton exchanges.

WOMEN WRECK 'JOINTS' THAT WILL NOT SELL TO THEM

Pittsburg, Kan., July 9.—Fifty-six women were arrested at West Mineral, a coal mining camp, yesterday, following a raid by them on 'joints' or illicit saloons at that place. The places had

TO HAUL ROCK FREE.

Three Roads Not Afraid of the Anti-Pass Law.

St. Paul, Minn., July 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—Three Minnesota railroads will haul free the stone crushed at the St. Cloud reformatory, in spite of the provisions of the anti-pass law. The rock crusher is now at work and some shipments will be made in a few days for road purposes. The Great Northern, Northern Pacific and Northwestern have each agreed to haul stone free seventy-five miles, and the first shipment will be made to Princeton. The Minneapolis & St. Louis has declined to haul the stone free on account of the sweeping provisions of the anti-pass law, which seem to prohibit any such public service.

Big Bienville Statue. New Orleans, La., July 9.—After nearly 200 years, the first statue of Bienville, founder of New Orleans, is to be placed in one of the public squares of the city, according to plans which have taken for mure. A small statue of Bienville was yesterday placed in the exhibit rooms of the

JAPANESE TEA IS HIT

Modest Little Joker Is Discovered in the Tariff Bill.

Duty on "Metal Containers" in Which Japs Pack Tea.

Washington, July 9.—There has already been adopted into the tariff bill a modest little joker, which will serve to impose 5 cents a pound tax on a large share of the tea coming to this country from Japan.

Students of the tariff schedules assert that it will have the effect of increasing the cost of the better quality, or of giving a monopoly of the trade to a few great importing interests and driving the small importer out of business.

In the tariff schedule was inserted an item imposing a duty of 5 cents on "metal containers," plain, or ornamental. Nobody dreamed that this was a means to tax tea. But the tea importers explain that recent years the Japanese have been in the habit of putting up their teas in highly ornamented, japanned containers bearing oriental designs. It is claimed that tea thus packed reaches its destination in much better shape than if packed in the old or wooden containers.

Tea merchants all over the country have discovered the joker and their protests are coming to the capitol in buckets. Their representatives and senators are looking into the matter in an effort to learn what can be done. It is probable that the senate will refuse to change the tax, but the senators most interested will endeavor to add a proviso, that the metal containers shall only be taxed as metal and not add the tax to the tea which takes a much higher rate.

Speaker Cannon is a frequent visitor to the senate. He is often seen in the chamber consulting with the members and personally "cussing" them out for their slowness in getting rid of the tariff bill. But "Uncle Joe" is interested in a number of schedules. One of these is read, which he promised the folks down jolly way, he would stand by in the committee that fall. He is also anxious over oil for a tariff on which he personally made a plea on the floor of the house.

That Americans are not the awe-inspiring individuals that people who have never been abroad imagine they are, is the opinion of Daniel Healy, a mining engineer, who has just returned from a visit abroad. Mr. Healy says he was shown every courtesy wherever he went, but nobody made a fuss over him just because he was an American. They paid no more attention to a visitor from the United States than Americans give to visitors from foreign countries. Americans are welcome everywhere because of their reputation as liberal spenders, but the people as a rule do not take him nearly as seriously as he takes himself.

Mr. Healy was at Villafraña when Admiral Sperry's fleet was there. The French people were cordial and sincere in their reaction of the American sailors, said Mr. Healy, but they

PASTOR ACCUSED OF NOT BEING A GOOD BAPTIST

REV. DR. CHARLES F. AKED.

John D. Rockefeller will have to do a lot of thinking for himself in religious matters because his religious doctors have disagreed. Rev. Dr. W. W. Bustard has just assumed charge of the Euclid avenue Baptist church in Cleveland, of which Mr. Rockefeller is a member. Rev. Charles F. Aked is a member. Dr. Aked came from England to New York Dr. Bustard says that Dr. Aked is one of the leaders of a movement which started among some English Baptists which Dr. Bustard thinks is a denial of the principles of the Baptist religion. In other words, Dr. Bustard thinks Dr. Aked is not a good Baptist and Dr. Aked thinks he is.

He did not think much of the world-girdling feat of the battleships.

Discussing the new prohibition law of Kansas, Charles S. Painter, who was here last week, said that Attorney General Jackson has started a crusade against the social clubs of the state. The attorney general has ruled that for a man to drink his own liquor in a clubhouse is a violation of the law. According to Mr. Painter, many fraternal associations have maintained a locker system, but these have also been put under the ban, and hereafter the Elks, Eagles and like clubs will not sell or allow liquor to be brought into their clubhouses. The Topeka club probably the richest club in the state, is resisting the attorney general's interpretation of the law and a test case will soon be made.

Following the advice of the attorney general, an even limiting the amount of beer a man can have shipped to his home from outside the state. Wichita has fixed this limit at one case a week and Leavenworth at one case in every two weeks. Topeka permits two cases a week.

The new law also makes it unlawful for a passenger to drink liquor publicly on trains. Any passenger caught drinking from a bottle is subject to arrest. Conductors and other trainmen are given authority to make arrests. It is reported that some of the through trans-continental trains conductors to sell liquor in their buffet and dining cars, and the state authorities now have spotters out to get evidence against them.

Senator William O. Bradley broke out in the senate a few evenings ago when every one was feeling jaded out, and ready to fight, and restored good humor by a speech on Jute and other things.

"I have seen a great many sorts of politics since I have been in the senate, Mr. President," he said, "a great many strange things that I don't understand, being a young man from the country, not acquainted with the arts and science of politics, but being a plain and simple old-fashioned Kentuckian. And tariff has been ringing in my ears until I feel a good deal like the man down in Kentucky who killed another man."

"When arraigned he was asked to tell his story."

"Did he try to kill you?" asked the prosecutor.

"No, he did not."

"Did he draw a weapon on you?"

"No, he did not."

"Then what did you kill him for?"

"Well, answered the prisoner, because he came to my house when I was acting as a gentleman and not interrupting anybody, and said he had come down to talk tariff to me."

The senate was in a mood to appreciate the previous nature of the provocation and enjoyed the joke.

Senator Tillman has held aloof from the tariff issue for the most part. This is not because of lack of interest, but because his health is such that he does not feel warranted in engaging in the round and tumble of tariff discussion. He is a man of great force, but not particularly refreshing and restorative for an invalid. But "Fletcher" even if he knows he will be compelled to take to his bed the next minute, he will not let a hot day of argument on the cotton schedule, was typical of the senator of old. Proclaiming his readiness to resign, he was tired of the Republican sham battle, he said.

I earnestly want the senator from Rhode Island to get together his big hand, soldered together by lead, stuck together by steel and hooped together with iron, and by all the other villainies in the combination the combination of the West and in the East and in the Middle West, holding this man in line, to vote as he is ordered, because we have all seen that the Rhode Island senator is the whole senate on this question.

I want him to quit. Why does he not press things to a vote ring down the curtain and let us go home?"

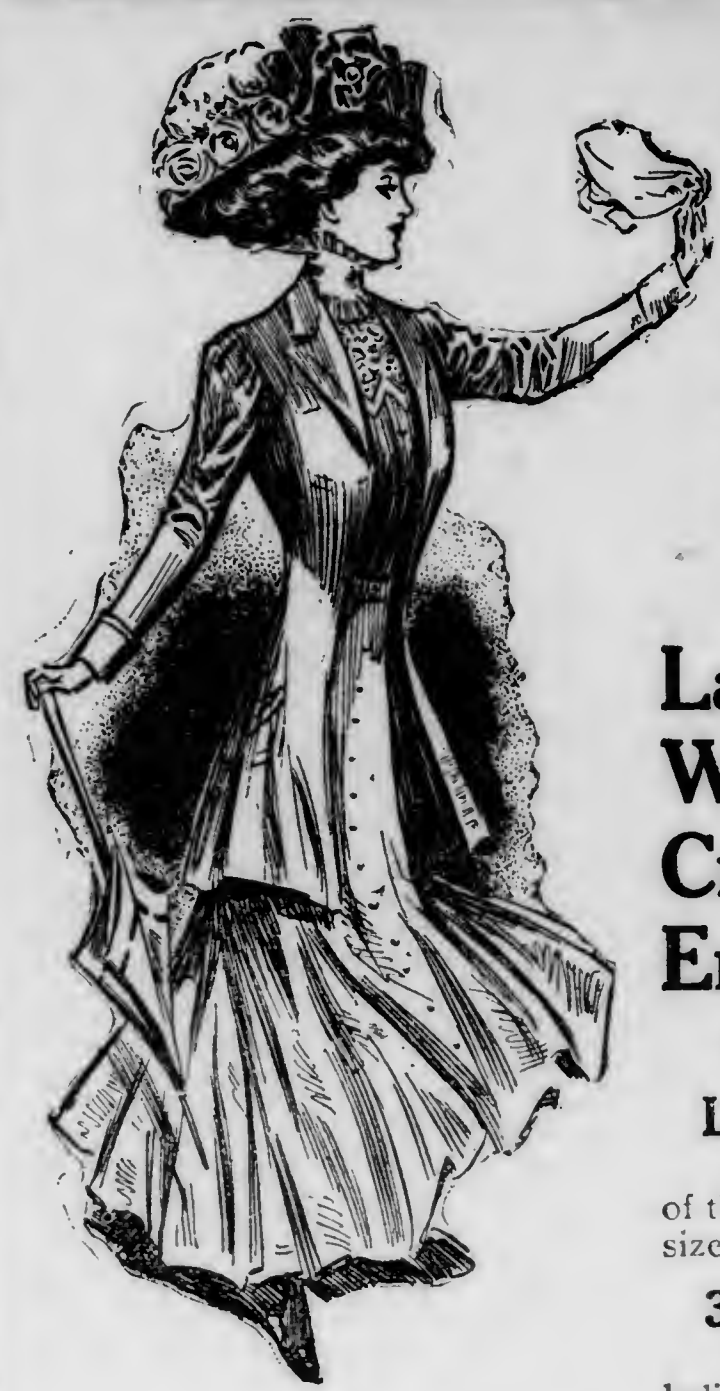

Then Benjamin wound up by telling the Republicans they were not all hypocrites, but the boldest band of quackeers he had ever seen get together.

William H. Nelson of Manila is here on his annual visit. Speaking for the Oriental possessions of the United States, Mr. Nelson says that the Philippines, America is confronted by almost a sealed book. No matter what the United States may do to give the natives all the advantages of a good government, and no matter how much blood and treasure they shall spend in that direction, their efforts will be fruitless. The Filipinos will never exhibit the slightest degree of gratitude or appreciation for anything done them by people of a foreign blood.

It is so with all Orientals. During the insurrection in Egypt in 1882 the Europeans most abominably abused by the natives were the European physicians who had had gratis saved the lives of Egyptian poorer classes, and in thousands of instances the mobs that looted the homes and destroyed the property of these physicians were led by men who had received the tenderest care at the hands of the Europeans.

INDICTED FOR LIBEL IN CONGO RUBBER CASES

REV. T. H. MORRISON.

Two Americans are awaiting their trial on a charge of criminal libel against the Kasai Rubber company. This is the company which exploited the Congo for King Leopold. It has been charged from time to time by English, American and other missionaries that the natives of the Belgian Congo were held in virtual slavery and that they were subjected to the greatest cruelty. The charge was made that the natives were required to bring in a certain quota of rubber and that, failing to do so, they were punished. Photographs were shown of children with hands cut off and it was charged that when a parent failed to bring in a sufficient quantity of rubber, he was punished in this way—by seeing his child mutilated. Photographs were exhibited to prove that natives had been killed and eaten by cannibals employed by the Belgian company as a police force in the Congo. These charges were investigated by a commission some years ago. The trial of Dr. Morrison and Dr. Sheppard for libel on the rubber company was to have begun last month but was postponed. There has been some discussion of an appeal to the president to intervene in the case to assure the accused missionaries fair play.

TAX MAY BE CUT IN TWO

Believed One Per Cent Corporation Tax Will Be Sufficient.

Taft Will Not Object—Merely Stands for the Principle.

Washington, July 9.—The corporation tax may be reduced to 1 per cent, Mr. Flint, who has charge of the amendment, estimates that this tax at 2 per cent, will yield at least $50,000,000. This estimate is based on the best figures obtainable from the treasury department, the interstate commerce commission, the census bureau and other divisions of the department.

The experts who made this unofficial compilation submitted the following details: From national banks, $2,626,705; savings banks, $529,507; other banks and trust companies, $762,005; railroad, $5,988,223; other corporations, $36,200,000; total, $40,108,040. Mr. Flint believes with the experts that a 2 per cent tax would yield amounts largely in excess of those named, possibly $60,000,000 or more. In his special message advocating the corporation tax President Taft suggested that a 2 per cent tax would yield $25,000,000.

Likely to Reduce Rates.

If the figures of the experts are supported by further investigations now being made, there is little doubt that the conference committee will reduce the rate from 2 to 1 per cent. This will not be a dispensing with the tax, but a general principle involved in the amendment which Attorney General Wickersham drafted under his direction. He agrees with the senate and house leaders that it is not desirable to raise more revenue than is needed to meet the requirements of the government, and would approve a reduction of the rate if it can be demonstrated that a 2 per cent rate is unnecessary.

The change, even after it is whittled down in conference, will yield at least as large a revenue as the Dingey bill, which was the largest ever paid into the national treasury.

Means Extravagance.

The corporation tax as it stands will add some $50,000,000 a year more, while on top of this will be $25,000,000 to $26,000,000 additional derived from the proposed increase in the tobacco tax. With the best calculation, therefore, the government revenues will have an addition of not less than $80,000,000 a year, to say nothing of the advances over the collections of duties of last year caused by the natural increase of commerce. These facts give pertinence to the argument now being put forward that the chief effect of this enormous increase in revenue will be to change the country into fresh extravagances, and that the net results will be only to postpone the day when the great crash must come.

MURDERS WOMAN IN PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Eaton, Ohio, July 9.—Henry Rife, a lineman, shot and killed Mrs. Lydia Griswold in the public library building yesterday. Rife then attempted suicide and was locked up in the jail. The dead woman was the city librarian and daughter of Judge J. A. Gilmore. The tragedy was witnessed by her 14-year-old son.

Rife, who has a wife and children, is alleged to have been paying attention to the woman he killed, and it is thought resentment led to the killing.

OFFICIALS ARE NOT WORRYING OVER CORPORATION TAX MONEY

Washington, July 9.—Confirmation of the expectation in many quarters that the large corporations of the country will seek to hold up the collection of taxes under the corporation tax bill, if that measure is enacted, by an appeal to the courts to test the constitutionality of the law, was given here yesterday by a prominent official of the treasury department who has just returned from New York and who refuses to be quoted by name.

The possibility of suspension of this expected large source of revenue and the possible necessity in that event of a bond issue by the government to meet the situation in the treasury, has caused concern, not alone to the treasury officials, but to political leaders who point to the political consequences attributable to the bond issues of the Cleveland administration. It would be within the province of a court, it is conceded, to permit the taxes to be collected subject to a refund, but such a course is unusual, and it is a well-known fact that money once paid into the treasury is exceedingly hard to get back, and even then returns involve a multiplicity of complications.

Thanks Bill Will Stand.

THREE LINKS IN ROYAL CHAIN

The figures are: Center, Edward VII, present king of England; at his right, Prince George of Wales, heir apparent to the English throne; at the king's left, Prince Edward of York, heir presumptive to the English throne. This is a unique photograph of the present king of Great Britain, the immediate heir to the throne and his successor. Recently there has been talk abroad that the health of King Edward and it is said a celebrated specialist was called from Vienna to London to examine him. When the king took the throne it was the general belief that he had some organic trouble, and his illness at coronation time seemed to confirm this belief. But the report proved to be unfounded. The king takes very good care of himself and it may be a great many years before George of Wales succeeds him.

THE INTANGIBLE PROPERTY TAX

Strong Paper By President McVey of North Dakota University.

Minot, N. D., July 9.—A strong paper on "The Taxation of Intangible Property" was read by President Frank L. McVey of the University of North Dakota before the North Dakota Bankers' association yesterday. He said:

"The failure to tax successfully personal property in the form of money invested has been largely due to the heavy rate levied against it rather than in the fact that it was taxed at all. The recognition of this situation by the establishment of a small rate of 2 or 4 mills on the value of the property results in a feeling of fairness on the part of the owner of such securities. The same idea has been carried still further in the instance of the taxation of mortgages. In some of our states, notably New York and Minnesota, the mortgage registry tax has been levied, a small fee being paid upon each $100 of the mortgage when it is offered for registration upon the books of the county recorders. In both states the law has been eminently successful, and so far as can be noticed, a resultant decrease in interest rates has followed.

The burden of taxation in the case of the commercial bank should be levied upon the shares of the bank, rather than upon the deposits. In the instance of the savings bank it should be levied upon the deposits since there is no stock. The Massachusetts law, levying a tax of one-half of 1 per cent upon the average deposit held in the bank during the year has not resulted in the decrease of deposits, but has, on the other hand, placed the savings banks upon the firm basis where they actually know what is expected of them in the form of taxes.

The experience of other states with ferret laws and drastic legislation distinctly point out that the way to successful taxation is in the direction of continuing the present personal property tax law, but rather in following that which has been successful in the instance of Maryland and Pennsylvania.

MARKET FOR PULPWOOD.

Completion of Paper Mills Up North Will Help Woodsmen.

Port Francis, Ont., July 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is stated on excellent authority that the work of completing the superstructure of the power house and the big pulp mill and the installation of the machinery for the pulp mill will be commenced in a couple of weeks' time and rushed to completion.

The turbine wheels will also be here in a few days and placed in position, ready to make a sympathetic speech, expressing regret at the present involved situation and the belief that the matter will finally be settled and in a way satisfactory to the women.

SUFFRAGETTES GIVEN HEARING BY GLADSTONE.

London, July 9.—Following a direct appeal made to the king by Mrs. Despard and a deputation of suffragettes, Mr. Gladstone, the home secretary, accorded a courteous audience last evening to the women. Mrs. Despard was leader of the deputation. After hearing arguments and reading their petition the home secretary made a sympathetic speech, expressing regret at the present involved situation and the belief that the matter will finally be settled and in a way satisfactory to the women.

A TONIC FOR THE STOMACH

Minnesota Evidence of the Power of This Treatment to Cure Dyspepsia.

There are thousands of people, who are without ambition or strength to do their day's work and who are always tired out, have but little appetite and a poor digestion, cannot get a refreshing night's sleep and are subject to headache, backaches and nervousness because their blood is impure.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the blood and as it becomes pure and red it strengthens the muscles, tones up the nerves and makes the stomach capable of digesting food.

Mrs. Anna S. Bowyer, a farmer's wife, of R. F. D. No. 1, Dundas, Minn., has been entirely cured of stomach trouble by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and heartily recommends this tonic treatment to anyone similarly afflicted.

"Following a general run-down condition," she says, "I suffered with stomach trouble for about one year. I had been feeling mean for some time. My stomach became sour and I was constantly belching gas. My heart was affected and for six months I could not lie on my left side. It bent so fast that it seemed I would choke and could not get my breath. The least effort to do anything made me short of breath. I was so nervous that sleep was almost impossible and I could not hear my voice. I was troubled with splitting headaches and with dizzy spells. My appetite was gone and I had no ambition to work. I was confined to bed for two or three days at a time."

"The doctor said I had stomach trouble but I gave up his treatment after a short trial as it did not help me in the least. I tried many medicines but nothing helped me until I tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I read in our paper of a case that seemed to be exactly like mine that had been cured by the pills. I was hopeless of ever feeling better but thought I would give the pills a trial. At first they did not seem to help me but I had confidence in them and after a thorough treatment I felt well again. I have been wonderfully benefited. My heart and stomach do not trouble me any more and my appetite is hearty."

All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

SHE CAUSED THE KING TO BLINK

American Woman Blaze of Diamonds at the English Court.

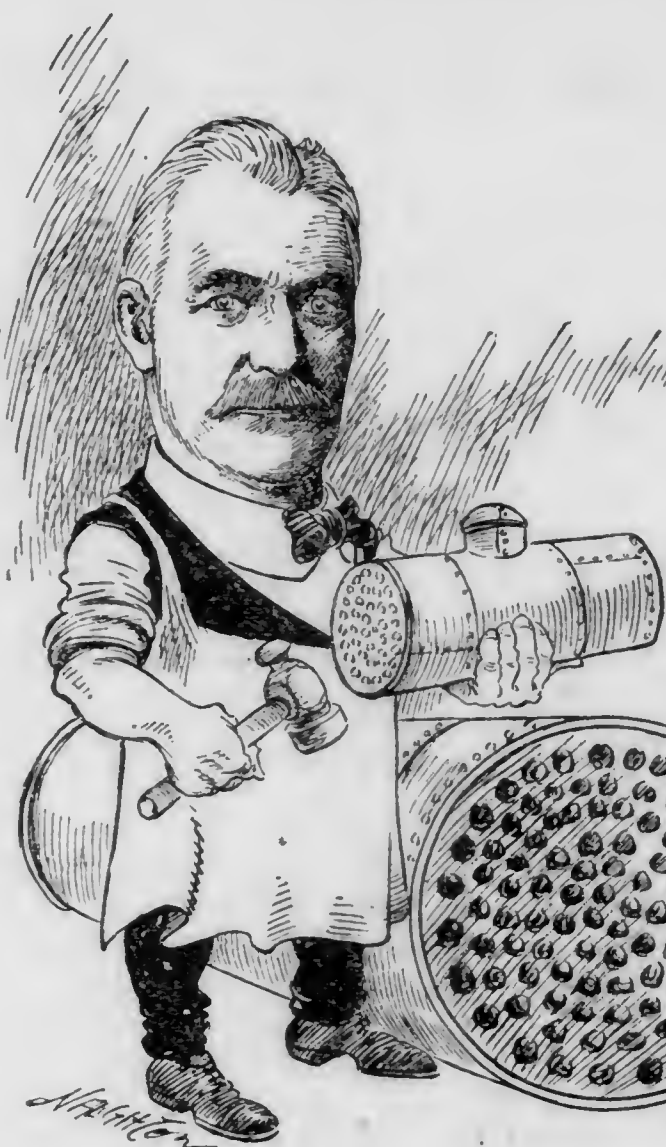

London, July 9.—Mrs. Joseph Stickney produced the sensation of the last court. From the time of her courtship to the toes of her white satin shoes, which had diamond buckles and a diamond at each point, she blazed with these precious stones. Every one was asking who she was from the king and queen to the doorkeepers. The Countess of Glamorgan, hitherto the lady with the greatest camellia or jewel-wearing, is nowhere compared to Mrs. Stickney. The king and the queen had to shade their eyes as she passed and they as well as the whole row of royal allies beside them were forgotten in the admiration created by the wonderful vision. But Mrs. Stickney took the triumph quite calmly. She might have been gowned in a 20 cent yard linen frock for an early morning walk in the park, or entirely self-posessed was she. She was the living embodiment of the motto, "The way to wear a gown to perfection is to wear it as if it were not there."

Mrs. Stickney has a capacity for doing everything in royal fashion. When she entertained it to with royal hospitality. She gave Mrs. George Cornwallis-West a second prize—$250—for her gown. I say second because it is a comparatively ordinary house in Great Cumberland place. It is certainly exquisitely furnished and full of interesting things, but the real attraction is that it belongs to Mrs. Meba. Everyone was surprised to find that Mrs. West was induced to let it, for she had only just taken it and had purchased it after her own heart. It appears she is busy over her play and did not want to be too much in London. She is therefore staying at St. Albans and making only flying visits to town.

The area covered by the national capitol is 152,112 square feet.

The last edition of the New York telephone book weighed 2,999 tons.

SAVE MONT ST. MICHEL

Movement Started in France to Restore Picturesque Monument

Embankment Built With Modern Tramway Spoiling Isolated Beauty.

Paris, July 8.—One of the most historical monuments, as well as one of the most picturesque places in France, is in danger of losing some of its most characteristic features. Mont-St-Michel, the rock-crowned, with the marvelous architecture of its church, its abbey and its fortifications rising out of the bay of the same name in the angle of the coast of Normandy and Brittany, owes its unique picturesque beauty largely to the sea, which washes the base of the rock and practically surrounds it at high tide. It is true that in 1859 this rock was joined to the mainland by an embankment along which a road was constructed and a steam tramway now runs. These innovations to some extent diminished the impression produced by the "vision of what the Dutch term 'polders'." This situation unfortunately aroused the attention of the French government, as the matter had been vigorously taken up by the press and by the Touring Club de France.

A commission of twenty-six members was appointed to study the history of the site, and after inquiry and deliberation it voted for suspension of all works of reclamation in the bay of St. Michel which approached within 1,000 meters of the rock. The commission further recommended that, in order to arrest the sinking of the bay, the existing embankment should be demolished for a distance of 1,000 meters and that the rock should be thus distance be carried over an open stockade.

The recommendations of the commission appear to have excited some approbations at the ministry of fine arts on account of their radical character and the possible cost of giving effect to them. It is stated that the minister of public works, M. Barthou, who had been approached on the subject, has taken the matter up, and the commission has been ordered to resume its sittings in the Palais-Royal. M. Barthou is understood to be determined to take action, and addressing a deputation of the touring club which recently waited upon him, he declared: "I have the right of keeping my promises, and I have, as you state, decided myself to save Mont-St-Michel."

The social season is in its most vigorous moment. There are brilliant fetes at the Polo club in the Bois de Boulogne; at the picturesque grounds of the Societe de Piqueux, on all islands in the Seine; at the Cercle du Bois de Boulogne, where are play-on-shooting and tennis matches; at the old Club-Tennis club in the Rue Languet and elsewhere where society congregates for sport and gossip and mutual admiration. The town is particularly full of strangers, and if the boulevards daily grow more vulgar and impossible, there is still the unequalled sketch of the Bois, which, in these busy summer nights, resembles a vision of fairy-land.

The French police, like members of the force elsewhere, make mistakes. They seem to have made a grievous blunder in arresting, or rather in custody, a young dressmaker named Leda Makor, at Longchamps, Sunday last. The young woman was in the "piqueux" on polo, her attention divided between the races and the trucks.

Everyone knows that Longchamps and Chantilly are the places for the display of the new fashions in the city and note the efforts of rivals. While Makor was in the "piqueux" she was accosted by a German, who requested a few moments' conversation. The "contretemps" paid no attention to the request, misinterpreting the purpose.

When, however, two policemen in uniform arrived to take her in custody, it was quite a different affair. Instead of following them quietly to the post station, she raised a great commotion. Her German protector, who was disagreeable. It is alleged that she was detained for three hours or more while the German protested against the arrest. She was finally released, but she had stolen his ring. It appears that the woman had played off a variant of the confidence trick on the confiding Teuton, and had disappeared. Miss Makor's case shows the dangers of resemblance.

Feminism on Stage.

Feminism is in the air. Feminism has got to the stage in a more or less attenuated form. The latest play of the Theatre des Arts presents the figure of a woman doctor, Genevieve, who is face to face with a serious problem. Her young friend and charge, Annette, wants to marry a Russian youth, who is obviously a strange type. In her capacity of medical attendant, the doctor receives the denunciation of her friend's fiancé, who she had broken the oath of secrecy, under which the confidences were made, and prevent the union? It is a difficult problem.

The greater part of the play shows Genevieve wrestling with her code of

Too Much for Krapp, So He Changes Name to Krupp.

New York, July 9.—George Krapp, a fireman of Hook and Ladder Company 20, has obtained from Supreme Court Justice Blanchard an order permitting him to change his name to George Krupp. Krupp alleged that his name had become a source of humiliation to him because people were continually coupling it with the petty gambling game known as "craps." He said they frequently said to him, "Come seven, come eleven," "How is the play?" and "Come have a game."

Realization seldom equals expectation—but in the case of "Old Style Lager" (the beer with a snap to it) the reality far surpasses because it is rightly brewed and carefully aged, and that is what gives it that snappy taste. It is this peculiar taste which has made it famous in Clubs and first-class Cafes.

TEN GOOD REPUBLICANS.

The vote on the final passage of the Aldrich tariff monstrosity last night showed that there are in the senate ten friends of the Republican party of tradition—the party that began its history in the glorious cause of human liberty, though not the party that is ending it by prostituting its power to the infamous work of enslaving a whole people to the service of greed. Today, among Republican senators, Indiana, Kansas, Nebraska, Minnesota, South Dakota, Iowa and Wisconsin can hold up their heads because of the votes cast against the Aldrich conspiracy by Senators Beveridge, Brewster, Brown, Burkett, Clapp, Crawford, Cummins, Dooliver, La Follette and Nelson. These ten senators voted in the interests of the people, of the nation, and of the Republican party—but the Republican majority, with one lone Democrat, McHenry of Louisiana, voted squarely against the people, against the nation and against the best interests of the Republican party.

Also, these ten Republican senators cast their votes in the interest of honest protection and against the consummation of a valuable principle which is making the idea so hated that its very existence is in danger. While the conference committee soon to enter upon its labor will make reductions in the Aldrich schedules—many schedules of minor importance to the people having been deliberately framed for that purpose—there is utterly no hope of real relief, whatever stage business the conspirators may arrange. The committee is limited by the provisions of the Payne bill, and that measure makes an increase in tariff taxes. The only light in the situation is that the passage of the bill by the senate means that the farce will soon be over, and then the campaign for real tariff revision will begin. That campaign must be prosecuted by way of the polls in the next two elections.

DAYLIGHT BY SELF-DECEPTION.

When the people of this country heard with amusement that it was seriously proposed in the British parliament to get more daylight during the summer and to get greater use of the summer days by the simple expedient of putting the clock ahead, it was regarded as a harmless freak of human thought that could never, by any chance, become so contagious as to reach this country.

It is here already, however, now that England seems to have dropped it and turned to things more fresh and more promising of amusement during the silly season. The country is being bombarded with circulars from the Daylight association, and one city—Cincinnati—has even gone so far as to adopt the scheme.

Advocates of the plan argue that if you put your clocks ahead an hour during the summer months, everybody will be fooled into thinking it is later than it actually is, so that work will begin earlier and cease earlier, and the people will have longer afternoon and evening hours to themselves. When it is actually 6 o'clock in the morning, then, the clocks will falsely inform you that it is 7 o'clock. When ordinarily you would be getting in your best looks of sleep, your alarm clock would shrilly call you to your day's labors. On the other hand, and here is where the imagined benefits of the plan come in—when it is actually 4 o'clock and you should have an hour's work ahead of you, the clock will complacently inform you that it is 5 o'clock and time to quit work. You will eat at 5 o'clock instead of at 6 o'clock, and—perhaps—go to bed at 9 o'clock because the clock says it is 10 o'clock.

All of which might be a great improvement if there were any possibility that the deception could be made complete. But it couldn't possibly be complete; nobody could fool even himself, not to speak of others. If you pushed your clock ahead an hour and it woke you up at 6 o'clock and told you it was 7, you would remember that it was only fooling, you would sleepily inform it that it lied, and you would curl up for another hour's sleep. If it did get you up, after breakfast when your clock told you that it was 8 o'clock and time to go to work, you would again shrilly lie down its throat, and you would go out and sprinkle the lawn until it was actually time to leave for the office. Again at night, when the clock tried to tell you that it was 11 o'clock, and you knew in your heart that it was only 10, you wouldn't think for a minutes of turning in an hour ahead of your bedtime just because a lying old clock told you to.

Once there was a young man who had a habit of oversleeping and arriving late at his office. Official frowns informing him that this was not popular, he bought an alarm clock, but presently he found himself taking just another wink after the alarm went off, and getting belated again. So he set his clock half an hour ahead, thinking to fool himself into getting up on time. It worked the first morning, but the second morning he was "on to" the game; so when the clock told him it was 6:30, he told himself he knew better and rolled over for a sleep that brought him to the office half an hour late.

It would be about as easy to fool the public on this "more daylight" scheme as it was for this young man to fool himself.

It is a very pleasant and amiable idea, but it is perfectly silly, and it won't work.

THE CITY SHOULD LOWER FIFTH AVENUE.

The Herald cannot agree with those city authorities who were quoted in its columns last night as saying that the county and not the city should pay the cost of lowering that part of the Fifth Avenue grade which abuts upon the new courthouse grounds. It is true that the courthouse is county business, but the county has been at great expense in building the courthouse, and will have to spend more to improve the grounds. The city should do its proper share, and the least it could do would be to pay the trifling cost of reducing the grade on Fifth Avenue so that the view of the courthouse from below will not be obstructed. While building courthouses is county business, fixing streets is city business; and if the city wishes to get the best results from having the courthouse where it is, it should assume the responsibility for putting the avenue in condition to bring about the desired effect.

DANCING ON THE VOLCANO'S CRUST.

From one point of view, it seems plausible to account for the brazen disregard at Washington of popular demands and popular needs upon the theory that the men in control of the organization of the Republican party believe that the uprising of the people is over, and that they are so weary of agitation and so anxious for repose that they will take almost anything congress chooses to put upon them.

The seven strenuous years of Roosevelt, particularly the last four of them, were years of agitation and exposure and awakening. Things had been going terribly wrong. Bribery and corruption and plunder of the small by the great had run riot over the land, and this sudden awakening of the people to what had long been an everyday fact as plain as the nose on a man's face caused disturbance all along the line. Such awakenings are seldom lasting, and when the peace-loving, case-seeking Taft succeeded Roosevelt, there was hope in the ranks of plutocracy that civic slumber had again settled over the nation. That may account for the amazing effrontery of the proceedings at Washington in the "revision" of the tariff.

But it is a great mistake. The people didn't go to sleep again, and if they had, unless their sleep had been the sleep of the dead, the monstrous thing going on at Washington would have awakened them. In this connection the most sensible talk that has lately come from the realm of high finance is published in the New York Journal of Commerce, credited to "a financier of international prominence," as follows:

I am not an alarmist. I am, as you know, an optimist, but really I cannot help feeling uneasy. We are deluding ourselves into the belief that the great body of the people are sick of reform, and that they welcome the tolerance of President Taft. I can see grave dangers ahead. The public will not stand such robbery as has been brought home to the public. Nor will they remain satisfied if the cost of living keeps on going up after they had been told it would be reduced. The railroads and other corporations are hugging the delusion that the people will allow them to do things that were forbidden under the Roosevelt regime. Yes, there is a reaction at the moment—a very natural reaction. But that does not mean that the public's standard of honesty, the standard it demands, has been lowered.

Meaning my words, if President Taft fails to cure corporate evils, if he allows the tariff to be patched up in a way that will not materially benefit the consumer, if we (the financial interests) fall back into our old defiant ways, there will be such an overwhelming demand for reform that Mr. Roosevelt will be sent back to Washington to complete the task that he failed to perform during the last administration. And next time the methods insisted upon may not be mild.

Here speaks a prophet. The uprising of which he speaks may not cast Roosevelt up into the presidency again, but it will be a more formidable uprising than this country has ever seen, and the upsurge of the Roosevelt administration will be like the mild whispering of a June zephyr in the neighborhood of a tornado—unless the Republican party and the forces it serves gain discretion enough to go about their work with less insolence and some show of heeding the people's wishes.

SACRIFICING THE MANY FOR THE FEW.

Edwin G. Cooley, formerly superintendent of the Chicago public schools and long one of the nation's greatest public school educators, told the National Council of Education, in session in Denver the other day, just what this newspaper has been saying for a long time about the public schools—that they are designed for the benefit of the few that can complete the courses and go on into higher institutions of learning, rather than for the many who leave them practically unprepared for the real work of life.

In other words, the public can afford to fit children for becoming professional men, but it can't—or doesn't—afford to train children to be carpenters and masons and machine-workers and wood-workers and the like. The whole course, from the kindergarten up to the high school, is contrived with a view to graduating the pupils from the high schools as a stepping stone to higher education, when much less than 1 per cent of the pupils are able to complete the high school courses.

This, as The Herald has often said before, is absurdly upside down, and is just the reverse of what it should be. The schools are for the many, not for the few; and it would pay the public to tax itself for special schools for those who wish to enter professional life, rather than to sacrifice all the pupils for the benefit of these few, and to send the many out into the world with scarcely any valuable equipment at all.

Said Mr. Cooley: "While it is the privilege of every American-born boy to try to become president of the United States, it does not follow that it becomes the business of the public school system to fit him for that position. Some of the boys are going to be laborers, mechanics, artisans, something besides president, and right now they are being neglected. It has come to pass that we are educating about two million boys for the presidency and about thirty million boys for nothing, because our schools are cramming thousands with knowledge which will be of no use to them in the factory or on the farm."

Most educators who are keeping abreast of the times are coming to recognize the truth of what Mr. Cooley says. There is plenty of evidence of that in the fact that many cities are like Duluth, broadening out the industrial features of the schools. But that is merely a start. What is needed is a revolution in methods of education. The schools should be changed over so as to make them equip the many with what they need, instead of devoting almost their entire energy toward giving the few what they need, and the many little or nothing. It shouldn't be all done in one blow, of course, and it shouldn't be attempted that way. But just at present it is scarcely working toward the right way at all, and that is not encouraging.

ARMED MEN IN THE DIVISION COURT FIGHT OF LAVELL

State and Federal Tribunals County Commissioners Will in Serious Clash in South. Decide Monday Whether Town Will Be Split.

Georgia Judge Orders Receivers to Resist United States Marshals. Smallwood Says Petition for Division Is Not Properly Signed.

Savannah, Ga., July 9.—A clash between the federal courts and the armed deputy state last night when Judge Walter G. Charlton of the state court ordered the receiver for the Electric Supply company to ignore the orders of Federal Judge Spicer to turn the property over to United States marshals. Receiver Davis put armed guards over the property with orders to resist with deadly weapons any attempt of the United States marshals to take possession.

President J. S. Walker of the Electric Supply company died a few weeks ago and the affairs of the company were found to be much involved. The liabilities were about $30,000, and creditors representing $80,000 applied to the state court for a receiver. W. A. Davis was named by Judge Charlton. Later other creditors, representing $2,000, filed a petition in voluntary bankruptcy in federal court, and on July 6 Federal Judge Spicer named United States Marshal George E. White receiver and issued an order restraining Davis from acting as receiver and ordering Davis to turn over the assets to Marshal White. Davis appealed to Judge Charlton, who last night ordered him to disregard any orders from the federal court.

A deputy United States marshal today served Davis with an order to show cause at Marion July 12 why he should not be adjudged in contempt of the federal court.

BACK HOME ONCE MORE HOUSE GETS NICE COPIES

Beriah Magoffin Returns With Stetson Hat and Southern Accent. Tariff Bill Is Presented in Form Ready for the Conferees.

Lived Here Before They Had Water in the Lake.

Beriah Magoffin, with a Stetson hat and a delightful Southern accent, that almost carries the scent of magnolia blossoms, who came here when Duluth was not, away back in 1877, and who has lived here at different times since then, is in the city today visiting friends and looking after investments that he and his father made when he was a young man.

It was in 1877 when Mr. Magoffin came to Duluth, and he has lived here since then. There was nothing but some timber where the lake is now. St. Paul, a prominent citizen of that city, after whom Duluth is named, all of these men believed that Superior had a wonderful future. In the words of Senator Beck, "nature is again Duluth," and the gentlemen who came to Duluth to see the future of the city, through and through, because of the vast shipping interests that were to be developed, were thought to have a wonderful future. Even at that time, in Superior, had a good value, according to Mr. Magoffin, and those owning land in the future of the city.

Twenty-five years ago Mr. Magoffin came to Duluth and Superior, and he has lived here ever since. He has been in the city for thirty years, and he has been in the city for thirty years. He has been in the city for thirty years, and he has been in the city for thirty years.

Mr. Magoffin returned to Duluth, his native state, and he has been in the city for thirty years. He has been in the city for thirty years, and he has been in the city for thirty years. He has been in the city for thirty years, and he has been in the city for thirty years.

He secured land from the Northern Pacific railroad for $1 an acre. Today that same land is worth $100 an acre. Mr. Magoffin conducted a business in North Dakota, his operations being in the wheat business. He has been in the city for thirty years, and he has been in the city for thirty years.

Mr. Magoffin came here in 1882 and lived here for ten years. Before that time he had been in the city for ten years. He has been in the city for thirty years, and he has been in the city for thirty years. He has been in the city for thirty years, and he has been in the city for thirty years.

Mr. Magoffin will be in the city for several weeks. He will visit old friends and also look after some of his business.

MAY WASH OUT PART OF CITY

Another Big Flood Is Sweeping Down on Des Moines.

Des Moines, Iowa, July 9.—Another great flood is sweeping down the Des Moines river valley and South Des Moines is in imminent danger of being swept out. The water rose seven inches in six hours and a repetition of the 1903 flood is feared. Police in boats are patrolling the river front to sound a warning, should the water cut through the banks. The river registers almost fifteen feet.

The Haccoon river also is rising. Its mouth is congested with debris floated from upstream and a serious flood is expected within twelve hours.

Relief in Missouri. Kansas City, Mo., July 9.—All streams in this section were today either falling or had become stationary and there were no indications of rain. Train service was improved, but schedules were still far from being adjusted. No additional loss of life was reported.

At Kansas City the Kansas river was gradually receding. The Missouri river was stationary, but it was predicted it would fall during the day.

At Springfield, Mo., where the Jordan river flooded part of the city yesterday, and at Ottawa, Kan., where the Marais des Chances swept through the town, the waters today were fast leaving the streets.

At Pottsville and Chillicothe, Mo., there were many cases of desolation, as the people moved back into their mud-billed homes. Some homes were damaged, and many families in the country surrounding Chillicothe. The Grand river there was still high, and many farm houses were yet under water.

Six Lives Lost. At Popka and Mansfield, Kan., the water continued to fall, and fear of further flood damage had been dissipated.

A summary of the havoc wrought by the flood in two sections for some time rendered temporarily homeless, a property loss estimated at $1,500,000, six persons drowned and two others injured, railway traffic to the north, west and south of Kansas City paralyzed and thousands of acres of rich farming land and miles of railway tracks inundated.

THE LURE OF THE WHEAT

Annual Rush of Men to Harvest Fields Is Beginning.

Cosmopolitan Army Will Harvest Dakotas' Great Grain Crop.

For the harvest fields! The rush is starting slowly, and is hardly to be noticed at all, but within a week or more it will be under full way and a cosmopolitan army of hungry laborers will be headed toward the fields of golden wheat.

A few signs offering work in the wheat fields of Dakota are beginning to appear. The wages are high, but the laborers are not inclined to believe that the wages will go to a higher figure when the season becomes more advanced. If the harvest will be, agents state that the wages paid for laborers will reach a high figure.

With the opening of the harvest season, there will come some of the interesting characters who annually drift west to the wheat fields. College men, men who follow the woods in the winter, the drive in the spring and the work and are forced to accept any kind of employment; the crooks and strong-arm men; all these men are lured to the West by the call of the wheat.

Every fall college men, bound for a lair in the West pass through Duluth. Some of the young men, used the money from the fun of the moment. Many find that there is very little romance working twelve and fourteen hours a day under a broiling sun. Eastern men, who are lured to the wheat fields here to act as harvest hands, find it difficult to make enough money to see them through the season.

Labor agents believe there will be a heavy demand for men in the wheat fields. They take their belief on the crop conditions at the present time. The rush will begin in earnest within a few days.

LANGDON SLANDER SUIT SETTLED OUT OF COURT. Langdon N. D., July 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—The suit for damages commenced by Father Berne and Mrs. Margaret Plante against the Duluth and Superior district court after a settlement was effected. The suit was for $100 damages for slander. Mrs. Plante is a daughter-in-law of the defendant, and was housekeeper for Father Berne.

Residence of Emil Danielson Slightly Damaged by Flames. Fire broke out about 11:30 o'clock this morning at the residence of Emil Danielson of 311 South Fifty-eighth avenue west. Quick work on the part of the West Duluth firemen prevented the damage from being extensive. The blaze started from the chimney.

The house was owned by Victor Johnson. Another family occupied part of it. Stoves in the lower story became too hot and set the woodwork in the kitchen afire. The firemen had little trouble in putting out the blaze.

C. A. Ahlborn Dies. Carl August Ahlborn, 61 years old, of 309 North Fifty-ninth avenue west, died this morning at a local hospital. He leaves a wife and three children.

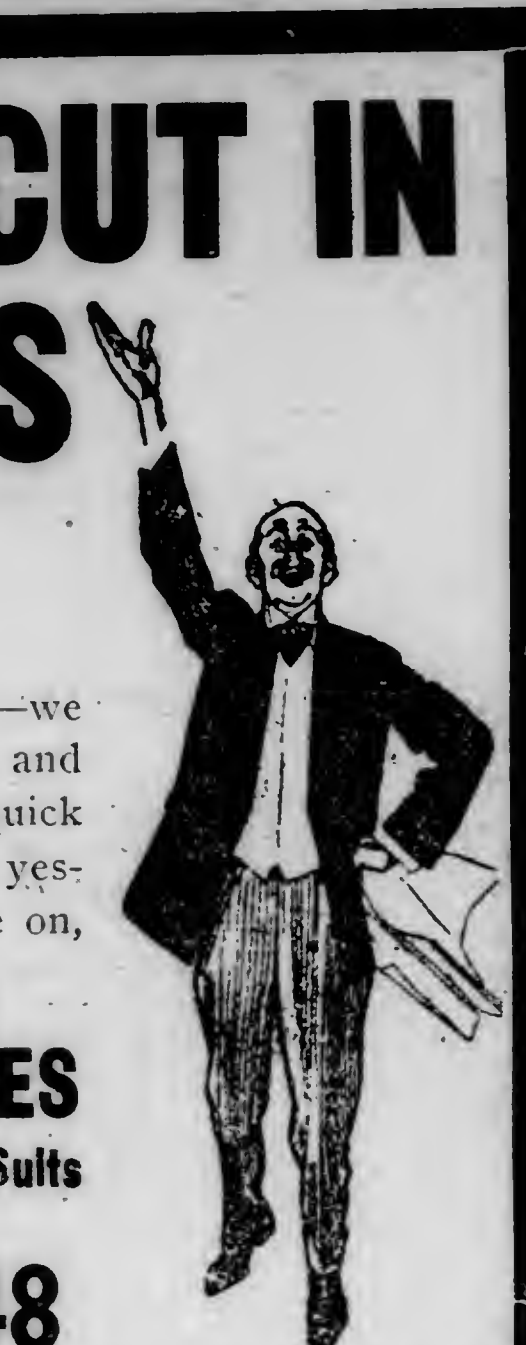

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon from the undertaking parlors of W. H. Richter, with burial at Orono cemetery. The deceased was well known to many West Duluthians.

WEST END NEWS CALDERWOOD TO BEGIN COLD WATER AGITATION

W. G. CALDERWOOD
Of Minneapolis, Secretary of the Prohibition State and National Committees.

W. G. Calderwood, secretary of the state and national prohibition committees, will open his series of addresses on the temperance question this evening at St. Paul's Lutheran church, west and Superior streets.

Mr. Calderwood is a strong advocate of the movement now on foot to secure a statewide prohibition law in Minnesota which not only would stop the sale and transportation of alcoholic beverages, but also the manufacture. He contends that the saloon is a menace to the community. The only way, according to Mr. Calderwood, to get the law that the people want, is to elect men who will represent them on the issue.

Tomorrow evening he will speak at the Branch Bethel on West Superior street. The first of the series of open-air meetings will be held Sunday afternoon at Lincoln park, where the principal speaker at this park meeting will be preceded by short talks on the temperance question by Rev. H. K. Madson, P. J. Borgstrom, A. Bousfield and Bert N. Koehler. Paul J. Gilbert will sing and Rev. M. O. Stockland will preside.

RECEIVED ROYAL GIFT. Parents of West End Woman Honored by King of Denmark.

Word received today from Denmark by Mrs. J. P. Johnson of Nineteenth avenue west and Sixth street is to the effect that her parents just celebrated the golden anniversary of their wedding. King Frederick VIII, says the message, presented the old couple with a diamond necklace and a pair of diamond earrings. The king also presented the couple with a diamond ring. The king's gift was very elaborate and attended by several hundred people.

TRAVELER HAS RETURNED. West End Man Is Back From Australia and India.

After spending six years in Australia, India and the Fiji Islands, John E. Phillips, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Phillips of 414 North Nineteenth avenue west, has returned to Duluth. He was formerly employed by a railroad here. Mr. Phillips says that there is no better opening for a thirty-year-old man than Australia, where land is cheap and the country is fertile. He says, in fact, is a great country for sports and athletics. Mr. Phillips was a spectator at the Burns-Johnson fight last winter.

CONFIRMATION SERVICES. Large Class Will Be Admitted to St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

Confirmation services will be held Sunday morning at the St. Paul's Lutheran church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street. Rev. E. Wulfsburg, pastor, will conduct the services in the English language. A large class of girls, who for the past few months have received religious instruction from the pastor, will be admitted as communicants to the congregation. An offering will also be taken for the benefit of home missions.

SUNDAY SCHOOL OUTINGS. Organizations Are Taking Advantage of the Pleasant Weather.

West end Sunday schools are taking advantage of the good weather and are arranging for their annual picnics at this time. Today nearly 100 Sunday school children of the Central Baptist church, Twentieth avenue west and First street, are spending the day at Chamber's grove at Fond du Lac. The picnickers left the twenty-first avenue dock at 9:45 o'clock. They will return this evening.

The Lutheran League of Bethany Swedish Lutheran church employed a moonlight excursion around the "horn" on the steamer Masovite. The boat was packed with pleasure seekers and the trip was enjoyed very much. Sunday school children of the Zion Norwegian Lutheran church are planning for their annual picnic at Grassy point next Sunday.

Fishing is excellent. West end anglers bring good catches from Boulder Lake. Fish are biting well at Boulder lake this season, according to the reports brought back by a number of West end fishermen. Boulder lake is about twenty miles north of Duluth and is situated in St. Louis county. It is about four and a half miles long and measures one and a half miles in width. The west end, have a big farm on the lake shore. Among those from Duluth who have visited at the Peterson farm this week are N. N. Oie, Emil Smith and Fred Lindbeck. Pike weighing four pounds are not uncommon and many pickerel have been caught this season weighing fifteen pounds.

Street cars delayed. Street traffic was tied up for a few minutes late yesterday afternoon when the motor of a single truck car burst out near the intersection of West and Superior streets. The driver, who was not hurt, was taken to the hospital. The car was damaged and was towed away.

Dancing party enjoyed. Another of the series of weekly dancing parties of the Adams Athletic association was given last evening at Lincoln park pavilion, with a record-breaking attendance. Flanagan's orchestra furnished the music. Souvenir programs and fans were given to the ladies.

West End Shortcuts. Misses Pauline Kilbotten and Thelma Jacobson of Eau Claire are in Duluth, the guests of Miss Maud Sapp of 121 Mesaba avenue. Miss Judith Anderson of 1913 West Third street, has gone to Marinette to visit her parents. Mr. Carlson, deputy for the local Modern Samaritan lodge, is spending a few days as the guest of friends in Minneapolis. Miss Minnie May of New York is registered at the Esmond hotel. Cement walks are being laid today between Superior and Michigan streets, on Eighteenth avenue west. Miss Edith Cullen of Billings park, Superior, has taken a position as office assistant for Dr. Green of the Sloan block during the absence of Miss Judith Anderson. Harry Semour of New York is stopping at the Esmond. Mercy Haskins is erecting a frame residence on West Michigan street, between Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth avenues west. John Calder has returned to Sault Ste. Marie after a visit with friends at the west end. J. C. Eckman's book and stationery store has been moved from 2012 West Superior street to 1922 West Superior street. Mrs. Albert Broman of 1913 West Third street has gone to Marinette, Wis., where she will visit relatives. Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hanson of 211 Harrison street, will visit relatives at the Esmond. Prayer service was held last evening at the Young People's society of the Zion Norwegian Lutheran church. Rev. J. M. Daniels will preach at both services Sunday at the Swedish Mission church. There will be a meeting this evening of the stewards of the Swedish M. E. church in the church parlors. Nels Sutterlund and family of West Brainerd, Minn., where they have been visiting. For bedbugs and roaches use Lion

MARINE NEWS REPORT NOT FAVORABLE

Board Does Not Think St. Louis River Needs Improving.

Opinions and Arguments May Be Submitted Within Three Weeks.

The board of engineers for rivers and harbors of the war department has reported to the chief engineers that it is not convinced of the advisability of undertaking the improvement of the St. Louis river, either from the point of view of the present improvement to New Duluth, or from New Duluth to the Fond du Lac stone quarries. This is the announcement made today by Lieut. Col. Graham D. Fitch of the local corps of engineers.

In accordance with an act of congress requiring an ordinary examination of the St. Louis river, presumably to find out what the needs of the harbor were, Lieut. Col. Fitch in April last, asked for opinions from all parties interested as to what should be done toward improving the river. On June 15 a report was submitted to the river and harbor board expressing the opinion that the river should be improved so as to provide a navigable limit of the present project to New Duluth, and recommending that an estimate of the cost of this work be prepared. The division engineer also submitted with Lieut. Col. Fitch as to the improvement of the river to New Duluth.

In view of the favorable nature of these reports, it is a distinct disappointment to find that the advisory board looks with disfavor upon the project. The work will undoubtedly be necessary as soon as the big steel plant is built, requiring the big freighters to go up the river, and if commenced too soon, it will probably be completed none too soon. It was thought that in view of this fact that the report of the board would surely be favorable.

The board will, however, give Duluth and the harbor board a chance to present their own views. The board will also submit opinions and arguments on the subject of the improvement of the river. The board will also submit opinions and arguments on the subject of the improvement of the river. The board will also submit opinions and arguments on the subject of the improvement of the river.

Inspection of the river will be made by the board of engineers. The board will also submit opinions and arguments on the subject of the improvement of the river. The board will also submit opinions and arguments on the subject of the improvement of the river.

INSPECTORS MAY TAKE ACTION Officials Angered by Refusal of M. E. B. A. to Return Licenses.

Detroit, Mich., July 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—What is claimed to be repeated refusals on the part of local members of the Marine Engineers' Benefit association to return their licenses to members of that association who are growing tired of the strike and want to ship has aroused Lieut. M. Milne, government inspector of steamboat hulls, both of this district.

George Gourlay, a marine engineer living at 481 Michigan avenue, called at the harbor office today and reported that during the past few days he has made several attempts to get his license, but that each time he has left the association's rooms without it.

Kild, one of the engineers who is holding out, for his license and that Kild told him he could have it after the committee on licenses met Monday afternoon and today told the inspectors yesterday that he called for the license and was informed that he could get it yesterday. He said further that he called at the Marine Engineers' Benefit association hall yesterday, asked for Kild and was told that he was not in. He says he then went out and a few minutes later called Kild by telephone and was informed that he could get his license until the committee met Monday afternoon.

After Gourlay told his story to the inspectors he was requested by them to sit down, write out just what occurred in his attempts to get his license and swear to the affidavit. Gourlay was willing to do this and at once complied with their request. "This has gone just about far enough," declared Inspector Milne. "This is not the first complaint that has been made to our office during the past few days. They all declare the Marine Engineers' Benefit association people say their licenses are in a safety deposit vault."

PERCENTAGE OF STRIKING MEN

Lake Unions Claim to Have 65 Per Cent Out Here.

Developments are few and far between in the lake strike at Duluth. The strikers who are now out are suffering no depletions in their ranks.

The last week no one has gone back to work. The marine engineers claim to have 80 per cent of the local union out at the present time. A large percentage of them, probably considerably more than three-fourths, are only working on shore jobs. The remainder of them are expecting to get work in the harvest fields running threshing machines in a week or two. A number of letters have been received by the union officials already asking for men for this work and offering high wages.

The marine firemen claim to have 60 per cent of their men out now, with little danger of further desertions from their ranks. Most of their strikers are employed, they say.

The steamer have fully 50 per cent out, according to a statement made by one of their officials today, largely employed at other work. This gives an average of about 65 per cent of the entire membership of the three unions out on strike at present.

AMERICA GROUNDS. Booth Steamer Runs Ashore in Fog at Burlington Point.

The steamer America of the Booth line ran aground at Burlington point on the north shore about 6 o'clock this morning. She released herself after about an hour, arriving in port about 11 o'clock this morning. Her forefoot was slightly damaged.

The accident was at first thought to be more serious and a wrecking outfit was ordered, but the order was countermanded within ten minutes. A number of passengers were on board at the time of the accident.

POE LOCK REPAIRED. Damaged Soo Canal Is Now Ready to Receive Traffic.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., July 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—That the Poe lock will be filled tonight, was announced this morning at the engineer's office. No further trouble has been experienced in boring and the wooden sill is now squarely anchored. This afternoon is given for the cement to dry. Two steamers, the DeGraff and her sister, the Sault Ste. Marie, are now tied up above waiting the completion of repairs. They are to large to lock through the Canadian lock. The Mills arrived early this morning. Fortunately traffic has not been heavy.

May Inspect Harmonic.

The steamer Harmonic is due in port tomorrow and will again be opened for public inspection. A peculiar thing about the handsome new boat is that while she is in reality over six feet longer than the North West, she appears shorter. The big white boat is built low in the water and has a 44-foot beam which gives a longer appearance than the Harmonic, which is black and has a 50-foot beam. The North West is 255 feet long and the Harmonic 326. Reservations for fifty members of the Minnesota Editorial association have been made.

Grounds in Harbor.

The steamer Russell ran aground in the upper harbor this morning while crossing the harbor from the Osborne dock to the ore dock. The Russell had unloaded a cargo of coal at the Superior coal dock, and was light at the time. The hard southwest wind which was blowing forced the big boat on to the pier. The tug Sinclair released her.

Marine Notes.

The steamer H. P. Rope, which has been in the shipyards at Superior having a new set of gates placed under her boilers, got away yesterday. The new engine was secured to take the place of the man who left the boat.

The steamer Heffelfinger has been waiting to secure an outfit of zinc to take the place of the striker who left at this port.

The steamer North Lake of the Mutual Transit line came through from the Soo on her last trip in 29 hours and 20 minutes. Considering that she is a new boat, this is considered good time.

The big steamer Shenango left last night after the arrival of the owner, W. P. Snyder and party from the range.

There has been a big rush at the ore docks this week, every available man being kept busy loading. The outlook is for a very heavy month in ore shipments. There is still an excess of coal tonnage offered at the lower lake ports and many boats are coming up light.

MISS LONSTORF PAPERS $2,000 SMUGGLING FINE.

Trenton, N. J., July 9.—Miss Camille Lonstorf, said to be of Chicago, was fined $2,000 by Judge Cross in the United States district court here yesterday after she had pleaded non-vult to the charge of smuggling. Miss Lonstorf, who is only 21 years old, was represented by a Chicago lawyer, and her fine was immediately paid. The young woman with her mother

DRILL FOR IRON IN CITY LIMITS

Work Being Prosecuted Not Far From Heart of Brainerd.

Brainerd, Minn., July 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—Two iron prospecting drills are being run in the city limits of Brainerd, on the Kosko property, about half a mile south of the business section of the city. If the results justify the anticipations and predictions, the Kosko property, which is being something doing in the iron mining business in this city within the next year or so.

It is currently rumored that a syndicate of Brainerd men has refused $225,000 for a single quarter-section of land within a very short time of the city, and that it has leased it on very advantageous terms. The interested parties are very numerous and there can be no confirmation of the rumor secured. The drills on the Kosko property are being put on by Cole & McKeon and it is said they are for the Republic Iron company.

COMMISSIONER DENNETT VISITING NORTH DAKOTA.

Fargo, N. D., July 9.—(Special to The Herald.)—Fred Dennett, commissioner of the general land office at Washington, is spending the day in Fargo. He has been in Northern Minnesota inspecting the sales of the yellow pine, and will go to his former home at Minn. in this state, where he edited a paper for many years before becoming the private secretary to Senator Hansbrough.

The commissioner's trip west is to investigate the field service of his department. Many new inspectors are in the west and there is much work to be done. Mr. Dennett reports that the situation in North Dakota is in fine shape since the recent order regarding the coal lands in this state. Hundreds of homestead entries were tied up prior to that.

The land lottery at the opening of the reservations in the West Aug. 9, will be inspected by the commissioner before his return to Washington late in the summer.

FIGHT EVIL WITH BALLOT

That Is Plan Advocated By W. G. Calderwood, Prohibition Advocate.

Opens Series of Meetings to Secure Votes in Duluth.

Before a fair-sized audience at St. Paul's hall, Twentieth avenue west and Superior street, W. G. Calderwood, secretary of the state prohibition committee, opened a series of temperance lectures in Duluth last evening.

That the ballot is the most important part in the fight against liquor and the assertion of Mr. Calderwood, who says that candidates to the legislature should be elected on the prohibition platform.

In the election of the state prohibition committee will put up one of the hardest fights in the history of the state, according to Mr. Calderwood, an effort is being made to raise $100,000 by subscription with which to carry on the campaign.

Already $12,000 of that amount has been raised, and it is hoped to make up the balance this year. Last year, $40,000 was spent in the campaign by the prohibitionists compared with $75,000 by the salaried legislators, according to Mr. Calderwood.

Mr. Calderwood said the cause of temperance was accredited to the prohibition party in the last four years, according to statistics produced last evening by the committee. Tonight he will speak at the branch hall on West Superior street.

Tomorrow afternoon, the first of a series of open air meetings will be held at Lincoln.

Mr. Calderwood, other speakers who will talk are Rev. D. K. Madsen, pastor of the First Norwegian Lutheran church, Rev. N. W. Wheeler, P. J. Borgstrom, A. B. Smith, and Rev. M. D. Stoddard, pastor of Grace M. E. church, who will preside.

Paul J. Gilbert will sing a solo at the meeting in the park tomorrow.

Tomorrow evening, the first of a series of open air meetings will be held at Lincoln.

WILL TRY TO RAISE $27,000

West End Commercial Club Will Help Pave Garfield Avenue.

In view of the fact that $27,000 must be raised at once by the commercial interests which would be benefited by having Garfield avenue paved, members of the West End Commercial club in session last evening decided that an effort must be made at once, to start the subscription list.

The matter was brought to the attention of the Duluth Commercial club and will probably carry on the campaign for subscription.

If $27,000, one-fourth of the cost of the paving, is raised in the next two weeks, the board of public works is authorized to let the contract and work could be started on the actual paving of the boulevard.

The remainder of the expense and the remaining quarter will be assessed upon the property owners.

Capt. D. K. Stevens, candidate for election on the prohibition ticket, was present at the meeting and was very enthusiastic.

"We have been well pleased with Capt. Stevens as a soldier and a citizen," said Mr. Jensen, secretary of the club, "and the members would like to see him elected."

WANT DOUBLE TRACK LINE

Hillside Residents Not Satisfied With Single Track Extension.

Resolutions favoring a double track line on the proposed extension of the Duluth street car line from Third to Twelfth street, were passed last evening by the members of the Hillside Improvement club of the West end in regular bi-weekly session.

It has been previously suggested that a single track line be installed, because the city engineer has stated that the street is only wide enough for one track now. In all probability, steps will be taken to have the street widened when the work is done.

It is expected that the contract for the cutting down of the grade will be let by the board of public works some time next week. The board has been authorized by the committee to advertise for bids. Although the street car company is only planning on extending the car line to Twelfth street, it is possible that the plans may be changed to Twelfth street and the work will be done for the benefit of the residents of the hillside.

SUMMER SCHOOL.

Classes in Religious Study to Be Held in West End.

Summer school will be conducted this year at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Twentieth avenue west and Superior street, beginning Monday morning at 9 o'clock. The summer session is for the main purpose of the imparting of religious instruction.

Courses will be given in catechism, Christian doctrine, Old and New Testament history, Bible geography and in the study of the Bible. Both the Norwegian and the English languages will be used in connection with the work. Those taking the Norwegian course will be taught reading, spelling and composition.

The work will be under the supervision of the pastor of the church, Rev. E. W. Johnson, who has had considerable experience in this line of work. The term will last four weeks, and only half-day sessions will be held, so as not to interfere too much with the vacation pleasures of the children.

At a recent meeting of the congregation the idea of conducting a summer school was discussed and enthusiastically received.

Varde Club Picnic.

Members of the Varde club, an organization of Norwegian young people of the West end, numbering nearly 100, will hold a picnic at Lester Park tomorrow afternoon, the weather permitting.

A series of informal contests will be arranged, such as running, jumping, swimming, ball games and rowing. It is expected that nearly every member of the club will attend.

New members are being added continually to the club; a new class having been taken in at the last meeting on Saturday evening at Columbia hall, Twentieth avenue west and Superior street. The club will meet tonight.

On Thursday, July 22, the society will hold an open air basket social at Lincoln park. The girls will each bring a basket and the boys of the club will rival each other in bidding for them. Decorating will consist of Japanese lanterns hung in the trees.

Plans are also being made for a number of other outings to be held in the near future. Members of the club are planning a trip to Fond du Lac some afternoon, and also for a moonlight excursion.

Mission Church Services.

Rev. Herman Carlson of Lanson, Minn., will address the young people of the Swedish Mission church tomorrow afternoon at 4:15 o'clock at the church.

Rev. J. J. Daniels will preach at both morning and evening services at the Swedish Mission church tomorrow.

Match a "Frost."

Because of the failure to draw a crowd, the wrestling match scheduled to come off last evening at Lincoln park pavilion was called off. Carl Johnson was to wrestle Charles Salome for the title of champion of the head of the Lakes.

Church Entertainment.

Plans are being made by the Young Peoples Society of the First Swedish Baptist church for an entertainment and social to be given July 23 at the church, Nineteenth avenue west and First street.

At a recent meeting of the society, committees were appointed to arrange for the affair. The committees met last evening and made the preliminary arrangements for the event. The program will consist of musical and other numbers.

West End Shortfalls.

William McCarthy of Hurley, Wis., is a guest at the home of his brother, Dan McCarthy, of 210 West second street. Mr. and Mrs. William Platten of 253 West second street will entertain a party of young people, who will take a launching trip up the river this evening. They will return tomorrow evening.

Miss Eliza Horton of 2127 West Fourth street and her two granddaughters, Irma and Gladys Baillie, left today for a visit at Ashland.

Misses Alice and Olga Johnson of 124 Twenty-first avenue west will leave this evening for a visit in the Twin Cities.

The church choir of the Norwegian Danish Methodist Episcopal church is planning its annual picnic to be given the latter part of this month.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Central Baptist church, Twentieth avenue west and First street, will give a big supper next Friday evening at the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Root of 2702 West Third street are the parents of a baby girl, born yesterday. Mr. Root is a well-known police officer of the West Duluth department.

Curtis A. Hansen of West Third street is back from a visit with relatives at St. Paul.

Rev. H. K. Madsen will preach at both services tomorrow at the First Norwegian Danish Methodist Episcopal church, Twentieth avenue west and Third street.

Public Characters Taken by Sweet.

It is a well-known fact that actors are the most popular of all subjects for the camera. Sweet, the famous photographer, of Minneapolis, has taken a number of pictures of the public characters of Duluth in the past few years such as the late Richard Mansfield, Stuart Robinson, Chauncey Olcott, Charles Bergers and the unique and imitable Philistine, Elbert Hubbard, with whom appreciation of fine art is a hobby.

LOSES KO-KOALS.

St. Louis, Mo., July 10.—Eugene Ambler of Chicago was elected imperial monarch of the Order Ko-Koal at last night's session, and A. H. Beddoe of St. Louis was chosen imperial harem. The election followed the annual Kookusation, in which twenty-five members were initiated. The next annual pow-wow will be held at Atlantic City, which was over its which is now installed just in front of the engine to help the air circulation. The Franklin people have found this unnecessary.

E. P. Tims will take a trip to Chicago, via the Twin Cities and Madison, as soon as the installation of a new magnet in his Franklin car is completed.

Pentecost Mitchell's big Packard arrived from Chicago this week in good condition.

James Bale of 2132 Jefferson street has just received his new Kissel car.

A. D. Davidson has completed a new garage at his home.

CADILLAC PLANT SOLD

General Motor Company Controls Another Big Auto Factory.

Roads Sandy to the Twin Cities—Local Auto Notes.

The Cadillac Motor company this week sold its plant and business to The General Motors company for $5,000,000. This adds another plant to the long list already controlled by the "automobile trust."

William Dalrymple of Minneapolis and H. T. Carling of St. Paul drove through to Duluth this week. Dalrymple has a Cadillac "30" and Carling a Studebaker. They report the roads in good shape, except in the late Richard Mansfield, where steep hills and much sand make running very difficult.

There is a bad hill, deep with sand, at Sturgeon Lake and about ten miles of road from North Branch to Buffalo are very sandy.

Ben Grimm and A. K. Kerr have purchased Cadillac "30s" to be delivered Aug. 1.

L. C. Smith of Syracuse, N. Y., the well-known typewriter and manufacturer, brought his Pierce Arrow car up the lakes on the Minnesota and Wisconsin route last night for St. Paul. From there he will drive home via Chicago.

Paul W. Lee returned yesterday from St. Paul in his Model H Franklin. He has been touring the southern part of the state.

C. McFadden ordered a big six-cylinder, seven-passenger 42-horse power, Model H, Franklin, to be delivered Aug. 1.

D. T. Helm's new Flyer broke down about fifteen miles north of Two Harbors this week, and the party had to walk about eight miles to get a farmer to tow them in to Two Harbors. A mechanic went up from one of the local garages and repaired the machine.

The 1910 Franklin will be built air cooled and without the revolving fan, as soon as the installation of a new magnet in his Franklin car is completed.

James Bale of 2132 Jefferson street has just received his new Kissel car.

A. D. Davidson has completed a new garage at his home.

PRAYING FOR RAIN

Trout Fishermen in Despair Over the Long Drought.

Streams Almost Dry and Trout Are Very Wary.

With the end of the trout season, but little more than six weeks off, anglers in Northern Minnesota are humbly and abjectly praying for rain. The trout streams are almost dry, and the trout are very wary.

As a result fishing has practically ceased. Trout are exceedingly wary and in the present condition of low water the angler's presence is too easily detected by the fish to make their capture at all easy. The big fellows seek out some big stone with a comfortable cool shelter underneath it, and refuse to be tempted forth by the finest of flies and the most skillful work.

Reports from the north shore say that some of the streams are dried up completely. Nothing but baking stones where the finest streams have flowed for years and years. The lowest it has been for years and years.

The trout season closes on Sept. 1, and for the trout fishing enthusiast this leaves but a few weeks in the best of seasons. The time which is left is a very sad disappointment.

So the trout fishermen have joined the ranks of the stranded lumberman, and the first-coming range resident, and is praying for rain.

ON THE IRON RANGES

NO RANGE TOWNS BELIEVED TO BE IN DANGER JUST NOW

Individual Settlers May Be Burned Out at Any Time.

Gilbert Had Close Call From Destruction Friday Afternoon.

*****
 *Advices to The Herald today *from its special correspondents on *the range is that while there are *small fires burning at various *places, no town is in immediate *danger. The individual settlers *living in sparsely settled com*munities, surrounded by timber, *may be burned out and, perhaps,
 *such communities have already been *destroyed.
 *It is cooler on the range today,
 *but a strong wind is blowing.
 *The Virginia Lumber company
 *today dispatched a force of men
 *to Leander, twenty miles north,
 *to protect a large amount of logs *threatened.

Virginia, Minn., July 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—There is less smoke to be seen in this locality today than yesterday. It is somewhat cooler, but the wind is still blowing hard, and there is, of course, always a possibility of fire catching in the timber and becoming dangerous.

It is not believed that any of the larger communities on the Mesquabiie range are in danger, although Gilbert has a close call yesterday. Reports from the range are that there are small fires burning at various places, but no town is in immediate danger. The individual settlers living in sparsely settled communities, surrounded by timber, may be burned out and, perhaps, such communities have already been destroyed.

From Virginia, a thick haze of smoke was visible yesterday to the north and south. A dry, hot wind was blowing from the north, and the small blazes which were burning in the timber, were being blown into menacing flames. The wind saved a possibility of fire catching in the timber and becoming dangerous.

GILBERT WAS DESERTED PEOPLE FIGHTING FIRE.

Gilbert, Minn., July 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—The forest fires from the direction of Virginia have not been in a mile from Gilbert yesterday, on account of the strong east wind, and every available man in town went out to fight the fire.

President of the village, Masterman, yesterday a legal holiday, the stores were closed and about 150 men fought the fire. The fire was not in a mile from Gilbert yesterday, on account of the strong east wind, and every available man in town went out to fight the fire.

EVELETH IS ON ALERT DURING FIRE SCARE.

Evereth, Minn., July 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—Yesterday's dryness and the wind did much to worry people in the surrounding towns regarding the forest fires that are seen constantly at a little distance from the town.

Though Eveleth is safe against any forest fire near here, there are several in the neighborhood that are being closely watched. A fire has been seen for some time in the Adams pit and toward the Virginia road. Yesterday, a fire was seen in the Adams pit and toward the Virginia road.

FIGHT FIRES MILE FROM TWO HARBORS.

Two Harbors, Minn., July 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—Yesterday's heavy wind blew down the Adams road, and the fire was seen in the Adams pit and toward the Virginia road. Yesterday, a fire was seen in the Adams pit and toward the Virginia road.

FIERCE FIRE BURNS ALL TUESDAY NEAR BIWABIK.

Biwabik, Minn., July 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—A fierce fire burned in the Adams pit and toward the Virginia road. Yesterday, a fire was seen in the Adams pit and toward the Virginia road.

Typhoid in Impure Water

In nearly every case, typhoid as well as malaria, dysentery and the other hot weather complaints that so often end fatally, has been traced to impure water.

Because to the naked eye the water appears clear is no guarantee that it is pure. Often one has but to look at it through a magnifying glass to see millions of deadly microbes.

The water supply in many country places, small towns and summer resorts at times becomes contaminated with sewage and other impurities, owing to one or another of several causes that are common.

Doctors of all schools claim that a teaspoonful of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey in each glass of water you drink acts as a germ killer. When you go to the country for the summer take a supply with you. For over fifty years Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has been prescribed by doctors and used in hospitals in the treatment of dyspepsia, indigestion, typhoid and malaria, and all forms of stomach troubles. It is a positive cure for cramps, dysentery, sunstroke, cholera morbus and chills. It quickens the circulation, purifies and enriches the blood, builds new nerves, muscles and brain tissue, and gives fresh life and vitality to every part of the body.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain, great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus producing a liquid food requiring no digestion in the form of a pharmaceutical whiskey, which is one of the most effective tonic stimulants and invigorators known to science; its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sold everywhere by druggists, grocers and dealers or shipped direct for $1.00 per bottle.

Our Consulting Physician will send to every reader of The Duluth Evening Herald advice and an interesting illustrated medical booklet free of charge. The Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

HAVE FAIR SOON READY

Preparations for Big North Dakota Event Being Pushed.

Grand Forks Show Ready for Opening July 20.

Grand Forks, N. D., July 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—Rapid progress is being made in preparation for the North Dakota state fair, which opens here July 20. Building operations made necessary by the recent disastrous fire, and construction work on the new street car line are being pushed forward at a wonderful rate. The street car line will be ready for operation by the Monday before the fair opens. The new line runs from a point in the business district of the city to the fair grounds, a distance of a little over a mile. The work has been pushed along rapidly in order that the cars might be in operation for the fair, but up to today it has been questionable whether the operations could be completed or not. The transportation problem from out of town points has also been solved. The special excursion trains to the fair will be run from Grand Forks, Minn., and from Fargo, N. D. On Tuesday, July 20, a special excursion train will be operated from Sioux Falls, S. D. On Wednesday, a train will be run from Devils Lake to Grand Forks. Thursday there will be a special service between Grand Forks and Fargo. On Friday another train will be run from Devils Lake. All trains on both the Great Northern and Northern Pacific, which are scheduled to leave in the afternoon, will be held until evening after the show. A new building that is being erected to replace the Liberal Arts structure, destroyed in the fire recently, is about half completed. It will be one of the finest fair structures in the Northwest when completed. The great exhibition race between Dan Patch and Minor will be held on Wednesday, June 23, according to the present plan. This will be the first appearance of these two horses in a match exhibition race, opening their season.

ARMORY, ALSO PARK PLANNED

Thief River Falls Council Votes a Liberal Sum.

Thief River Falls, Minn., July 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—The city council has decided to purchase park property and three lots for the proposed new armory and auditorium. An outlay of some $10,000. The Lenoir corner on Second street and along the river in the rear of the city, where the city hall is located, was the most convenient site for the armory, and the Lenoir corner was chosen for park purposes, as was the lot in the rear of the city hall. Both are natural beaut spots and the latter is near the site for the proposed sixth state normal school. The growth of park, as has the normal site. The park board will also secure park property in several other places, which can later be beautified for park purposes. The first side park block on Bridge street will be seeded and planted this summer.

ALLEGED STOCK RUSTLER HAS BEEN RUN DOWN.

Williston, N. D., July 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—Kid Grady, alias

Jack Whinnifred, is an inmate of the Williams county jail, where he is being held on a charge of cattle rustling. Traylor is one of the oldest offenders in the horse stealing game and his capture was brought about only after the hardest kind of work on the part of the officials.

MANY INDIANS ARE EXPECTED

National Congress of Catholic Indians Starts on Sunday.

Devils Lake, N. D., July 10.—The national congress of Catholic Indians, which is to be held at St. Michael's mission, July 11 to 17, eight miles south of the city, is causing considerable interest among the Indians of this section and the priests who have it in charge. The magnitude of this meeting can hardly be realized. An assembly of 7,000 Indians, which are expected to be present at this congress, is a sight which one will not often see in even the new state of North Dakota.

ASKS MILLION DAMAGES.

Largest Suit on Record Brought Against State of Illinois.

Kenosha, Wis., July 10.—Walter M. Cowell, a Kenosha attorney, has instituted suit for $1,000,000 damages in the United States court for the Eastern district of Illinois. The defendant named in the action is the state of Illinois, the city of Chicago, Judge Crowe and J. C. Young.

FOUND BOOKS CORRECT.

No Discrepancies in Thief River Falls City Clerk's Accounts.

Thief River Falls, Minn., July 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—A deputy public examiner recently spent a week in going over the books of the city clerk and at the completion of his work informed the interested parties that he found the books were kept in a neat and correct manner, and that there were no discrepancies in the accounts.

FAKE GRAIN HOUSES ARE HIT BY NEW RULE.

Fargo, N. D., July 10.—(Special to The Herald.)—Elevator and grain agents in this state cannot issue storage receipts to the farmers in excess of the actual number of bushels of grain in the elevator. It has been the custom heretofore to issue receipts, and continue to ship grain to terminal elevators. As a result, fake concerns would start here with a small capital and house with a capacity of perhaps one or two hundred bushels and issue 50,000 receipts. They would go into bankruptcy, and the farmers would get their grain back.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent, or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent, or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. Castoria operates exactly the reverse, but you must see that it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Castoria causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever.

Letters from Prominent Physicians addressed to Chas. H. Fletcher.

Dr. A. F. Peeler, of St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria in many cases and have always found it an efficient and speedy remedy."

Dr. E. Down, of Philadelphia, Pa., says: "I have prescribed your Castoria in my practice for many years with great satisfaction to myself and benefit to my patients."

Dr. Edward Parrish, of Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I have used your Castoria in my own household with good results, and have advised several patients to use it for its mild laxative effect and freedom from harm."

Dr. J. B. Elliott, of New York City, says: "Having during the past six years prescribed your Castoria for infantile stomach disorders, I most heartily commend its use. The formula contains nothing deleterious to the most delicate of children."

Dr. C. G. Sprague, of Omaha, Neb., says: "Your Castoria is an ideal medicine for children, and I frequently prescribe it. While I do not advocate the indiscriminate use of proprietary medicines, yet Castoria is an exception for conditions which arise in the care of children."

Dr. J. A. Parker, of Kansas City, Mo., says: "Your Castoria holds the esteem of the medical profession in a manner held by no other proprietary preparation. It is a sure and reliable medicine for infants and children. In fact, it is the universal household remedy for infantile ailments."

Dr. H. F. Merrill, of Augusta, Me., says: "Castoria is one of the very finest and most remarkable remedies for infants and children. In my opinion your Castoria has saved thousands from an early grave. I can furnish hundreds of testimonials from this locality as to its efficiency and merits."

Dr. Norman M. Geer, of Cleveland, Ohio, says: "During the last twelve years I have frequently recommended your Castoria as one of the best preparations of the kind, being safe in the hands of parents and very effective in relieving children's disorders, while the ease with which such a pleasant preparation can be administered is a great advantage."

DAKOTA BRIEFS.

Bismarck, N. D.—Each company of the North Dakota National Guard must appear at the state encampment in Devils Lake with a full quota of men, according to the recent order of the commanding officers of the regiment.

Fargo, N. D.—Mrs. S. E. Pratt, 40 years of age, died Wednesday at her home, 722 Seventh street north. She was a widow and is survived by two daughters, five sisters and one brother.

Minot, N. D.—Helmert Peterson was given a hearing in Judge Murray's court and was bound over to the district court on the charge of burglary in the third degree. Peterson, it is alleged, broke into the little store on the corner of Second and Webster streets and stole a quantity of cigars and tobacco.

Towner, N. D.—Papers have been served on the Great Northern Railway company by George Dawson, through his attorney, Charles D. Donnelly. The trouble arose over shipment of goods by Mr. Dawson from here, when he left for Canada a short time ago.

Fargo, N. D.—Judge J. V. Brannan this week is celebrating his seventy-fifth birthday. He is about the youngest old man in these parts. Recently he and Mrs. Brannan returned from their old home in Indiana and had a reunion with their two sons and two daughters. They visited the places where both the judge and his wife were born.

Ada.—The badly decomposed body of a man was found near Mallard in which vicinity the Will River lumber company has its lumber camps. There was nothing on the body to disclose the identity of the man, but it is thought he was a man who visited the camps in February.

Blackduck.—James Reid, the popular manager of the St. Croix Cedar company, died at Blackduck, Minn., on Tuesday, July 6, at the age of 62. He was a native of Maine and had been in the lumber business for many years.

Pine City.—Dr. Henshaw of the Pockewong sanitarium, who has been absent on a wedding tour for the past three weeks, returned to his home in Pine City on Tuesday.

Excelsior.—A meeting of the farmers will be addressed at the Custer schoolhouse tonight by N. P. Burman, with the purpose in view of organizing a company, recently, it was decided that

DULUTH OARSMEN WILL LEAVE NEXT WEEK FOR BIG REGATTA

A Brief Review of the Sport in Duluth, and What May Be Expected of This Year's Crews, in the Races at St. Paul.

What chance have the Duluth boat crews at the Regatta of the Northwestern Rowing association, which will be held at St. Paul next Friday and Saturday?

That is the question which is agitating the members of the club at the present time, and incidentally interesting every rowing enthusiast in the Northwest to a greater or less extent.

Can Duluth come back this year and shake off the hoodoo which has followed her for the past two years? Since the victory of the junior club in the race at Lake Minnetonka in 1906, the Duluth crews have not succeeded in carrying off any honors in the Northwestern regattas. In 1907, at White Bear lake the St. Paul and Winnipeg crews got away with most of the jewelry, and last year at Winnipeg, St. Paul made almost a clean sweep, winning everything but the senior eight-oared race, which was lost by an excruciating margin. The Duluth crews made excellent showings at White Bear, but a rather sorry one at Winnipeg, thanks largely to their lousy luck.

What is the outlook this year? The Duluth club is the largest and best equipped rowing club in the West, and one of the largest in the country. With its immense membership to draw from, it is going to allow the sport of rowing to the lake, or are the crews this year going to make a showing that will put the sport in the hands of the grandest and strongest that exists—back on the feet? The Duluth club stands behind its crews nobly, and is ready at any time to send a crew to the national regatta when a winning is made in the West to warrant it.

The trouble with Duluth crews has always been that the men have not the time to devote to the sport. In St. Paul and Winnipeg the men who row are mostly young men of more or less leisure and wealth. They have the time to give to the sport, to train, to practice, to row, to row, to row. In Duluth the majority of the members of the club have to work for a living. The club makes itself on being a democratic organization, and the members are nearly all employed in offices in the city. To spend the evenings in training, three months in a year involves a big sacrifice, and few are willing to make it, although these are the most willing of those who have tried it before and know the pleasure that is connected with it.

But this year rowing has been given a new lease of life in Duluth, in spite of the difficulties connected with training. The out-of-door crews, such as the short training season, the bad weather in early spring, the fact that most of the men go employed at their daily tasks, and the difficulty in getting good material, have all been overcome, and the crews are in the best of shape. The club has decided that it was time that Duluth had a winning crew, and they set to work vigorously to train. It was their intention to put in two months of the hardest kind of work, and at the end of that time they found that they were fast enough to make a showing to enter the regatta. They figured that at any rate they would give the juniors a crew to race against. For the last two or three years the Duluth crews have entered the regatta not knowing what it felt like to be in a race. The excitement and nervousness were enough to lead them before the pistol was fired.

Seniors Out Together.

The plan was followed by R. Murray Peyton, who has been one of the mainstays of the rowing game in the West for the last ten years, offered his services as coach, and they were promptly accepted. His brother, H. H. Peyton, a former Harvard crewman and a well-known figure at the old regattas on Lake Minnetonka, volunteered to get out again. "Sam" was known to every oarsman in the West in the old days, and they grew to have a wholesome respect for his abilities as a "fisher" around Lake Minnetonka. In the days when George Gibson, and Dan Mahoney, and Gus Culhoun, and "Will" LeStrange, one of the best bow men for a four ever turned out by the Duluth club, came back, Elmer Whyte, who rowed in the winning crew at Lake Minnetonka in 1906, and for several years before that, forgot the attractions of his automobile long enough to train, and Hans Harbison, another member of the Lake Minnetonka eight, also agreed to return to the team.

With these four men as a nucleus, it was an easy matter to fill up the boat. John Peyton, another member of the rowing game in Duluth, and who has done so much for the rowing game in Duluth, and who was drafted when the four-oared crew for the four had to be abandoned. He is light, but is surprisingly strong, and his weight, and is a trained athlete, keeping in condition the year around with gymnasium work and other sports. Boshart is a new man, but is looked upon as a "find." He picked up the stroke in short order, and has the ideal hand for an oarsman.

The Crew "Looks Good."

Such is the crew that will represent the club in the senior eight-oared race, and to the experienced eye it looks like "the money." It is a crew in a row, not very free about giving out the time made by their men, and Peyton is no exception to the rule. It looks, however, as if "Money" was loaded for this year's race. It has worked better about the crew but it has worked harder and more faithfully than any crew that has come out of Duluth in years, beginning in February to train in the gymnasium and ending in the bay before the ice was gone. The men have come in from rowing with ice covering their sweaters and ears. They have gone out in snow storms and in wind storms that swamped the boat. They have rowed into a pretty crew. Their form is just-class, their watermanship far above the average of Duluth crews, which have generally been weak on this point, and best of all "they are there" in the language of the oarsman. An oarsman to "kill" oneself is the first requisite of an oarsman, and the men in the senior boat have rowed long enough to know this, and to give evidence they have in a race. Their time has never been given out, but it is known that they are coming down the Duluth course, which is at least 200 feet long, in less than a few seconds over eight minutes. They can get over the full course at the regatta, in well under the eight-minute mark, and that means that they will be in the front with any crew that enters the regatta, and that means the best in the country, for the St. Paul crew made a "killing" at Springfield last year.

The Junior Crew.

And what of the juniors? Dr. Frank Lynnam has been handicapped all season for lack of material, and now, two weeks ago did he get the men he wanted in the boat. The crew is right now where it should have been a month ago. It is in training, but in spite of this fact it is "looking good." The men are going into it in a way that spells success, and will win a day from now until the regatta. They have had the advantage of another crew to race with, and know what Ketchel's boat will be like. They have another eight and will win the crack of the starter's pistol. That is, generally enough, to frighten all the stamina out of a green crew, and the seniors will be in the water before they start at least. The seniors have won every race against the younger crew this season, and that means about two a week, but Dr. Lynnam's charges have given the seniors one or two bad scares, and pushed them pretty hard at times.

There are four old men in the junior boat. Forquette, who is striking the boat, rowed at Winnipeg last year. He is a thorough athlete, and the winner of the Y. M. C. A. medal for all-around good work in the gymnasium. Crawford, who rowed at White Bear and Winnipeg, and has played on the high school football team three years. "Bill" says he is going to stick at the rowing game until he wins a race, if it takes the rest of his life. Hector rowed last year at Winnipeg, and can always be depended upon to pull his weight. He is a stronger and better man than he was last year. Deighton, who rows in the bow, was a member of the old boat club crew that went to Madison several years ago, and a good man, in spite of the fact that he is rather light. Mapp was a member of the senior four for two years, rowing at White Bear and Winnipeg, and one of the best little men ever turned out by the club. Liggett, rowed last year, although he did not go to the regatta. He is one of the strongest men in the boat, and a valuable addition to the crew. While he has never rowed in a regatta, he is playing halfback for the Minnesota football team when the other Western colleges always hired a few extra physicians and ambulances corps when they stacked up against the Gophers. The other two men are Quimby and Thompson. Thompson is a basketball player, having been a member of this year's crew. Y. M. C. A. team, and Quimby has had considerable experience in athletics. Both are good men.

Altogether, the juniors have a likely looking crew. They are rowing in good form—surprisingly good for a junior crew—and they are going in to win.

These are the men who are going to Duluth next Wednesday to represent Duluth in the biggest event in amateur sports in the West this summer. They have the best wishes of every member of their club, and every supporter of amateur sports in Duluth, and the old-time followers of the game pick them at least make a good enough showing to re-establish the Duluth club in rowing circles and create a healthy respect for Duluth crews in the minds of "Tad" Langford, the St. Paul coach, and the Hendersons, the Gauls and the Carpers of Winnipeg.

GLEAMS IN THE SPORTING FOG

BY DRUCE

Is black Sammy Langford destined to play the role of Brutus to the Caesar of Stanley Ketchel? There's the rub, as William Shakespeare would have it. Master Gibbon, who writes a very glittering review of the doings of the Romans, informs us that Caesar was very heavy on the forum stuff. If Caesar had paraded Superior street in that manner, we would have dubbed him Chesty Caesar. But he got away with all of the comedy until Brutus hung a damper on his future movements.

Young Master Ketchel is also heavy on the comedy stuff. In the days of Caesar the Romans paraded the forum with great eclat; in the last days before the big blowup came to the empire, the Romans of most pretensions always had nothing on this Ketchel party. Not so as you could notice it. It was wonderful pride that resulted in the match with stubby Sam Langford. Ketchel has wanted none of the black man's game in the past. None of the big men of this country have wanted him, because with the Roman, now Pompey comes along and wins a lot of wind from the sails of the Grand Rapids man. The public begins to believe that it has overrated Ketchel. Some know this better than others. What is the result? The Langford will, because Ketchel wins from the smoke he will be the hero of the day.

But Ketchel and Ketchel are taking a long chance. They have no more living chance, in my mind, than a house-raised chicken cat has for Lake Superior water on a chill November day. But Ketchel has been stung by the lobster abroad throughout the country. He is not the man it was generally believed he was. With a bull-headed determination to show the public that it is wrong, he has rushed into the Langford match.

Will the result of the Labor day encounter show that Langford is the greatest heavyweight pugilist before the public today? Ask something simple.

Johnson and the tar baby from the little town of Boston have mixed on numerous occasions. The rope book shows that none of these mix-ups were decisive. It is not believed that any of the fights between the pair were of the blood-and-thunder type. There is a grave doubt as to who is the better man today. But if Langford, looks better, and then, fight Johnson, throw you late in the air and pretend to yell for you may count on a fight that would make an encounter between a she wolf and a wild cat with a decayed tooth appear like a Baptist Sunday school debate.

It may be that Langford will prove the Bronx with the lung and sharp witticisms. He may cut down the career of Ketchel.

It should be a great fight. Both men have wonderful punches. Both men can take the gaff. Both fighters like to slug. Both are willing to take a punch to get one in. Take two Georges come and throw them into a room, and you couldn't get a much better combination for a real live scrap.

If Langford beats Ketchel, he should be substituted for Ketchel in the Johnson bout. The public has a half hearted belief that Langford can beat Johnson. It is not. Johnson, seven rounds, beat Fireman Jim Flynn. It required Tommy Burns fourteen rounds to accomplish the same feat. How long did it require brother Langford to do the trick in a very workmanlike manner? Just one round. He beat the Fuelle fireman so easily. With such little effort, and showed such tremendous punching powers, that those who witnessed both the contests in which Johnson opposed Flynn and the contest in which he defeated Ketchel, are of the opinion that Langford is the more likely actor.

Mistral Sammy may prove a very real little effort, and show such tremendous punching powers, that those who witnessed both the contests in which Johnson opposed Flynn and the contest in which he defeated Ketchel, are of the opinion that Langford is the more likely actor.

ST. PAUL CREWS IN COLLISION

Senior Four Crashes Into Junior Boat With Disastrous Results.

St. Paul, Minn., July 10.—Quite a serious accident occurred yesterday afternoon to two four-oared crews of the Minnesota Boat club on the Mississippi river. The crack senior four was going down the river at full speed against time, when it encountered the junior four coming up. In the crash which followed the senior four shell was snapped in two and the oarsmen thrown violently into the water.

The steel prow of the senior four narrowly missed going through the back of the junior oarsman rowing at bow. It is altogether unlikely that the senior shell can be repaired for the regatta next week. It is a far better boat than any other in the club fleet and the chances of Minnesota against the fine senior four crews from the north are seriously affected.

BIG FORFEIT POSTED.

Langford and Ketchel to Fight in Frisco Next August.

San Francisco, Cal., July 10.—A forfeit of $5,000 was posted last night by the Michigan Athletic club for a round fight in San Francisco between Stanley Ketchel and Sam Langford some time in August.

The match proposed for Ely, Nev., is not regarded as a certainty.

not a difficult matter to see where the Shattuck has a splendid asset. Of course, the Shattuck Drift No. 9 assay shows 17½ per cent copper, 27 per cent iron, 16 per cent lime, 13 per cent silica, 10 per cent magnesia, and the value per ton based on 13 per cent copper being $82.

The workings on the 600-foot level are in ore. Raise No. 19, in which work was resumed recently, is now also in ore. The drift No. 10, which connects with No. 11, is connected with No. 11, crosscutting it at its base, and Drift No. 7 curves from the shaft to the end of No. 11 crosscut. All these levels up to the top of No. 9, except No. 8, with the exception of some small different raises. About 1,500 foot of recent work has been done so far this year.

SCENES DURING WRIGHT TRIALS AT FORT MYER

WHEN IT WAS first proclaimed that two young men down in Dayton, Ohio, had built a machine in which they could fly through the air without the aid of gas, a shout of ridicule went up from all parts of the country. The doubters were many, and the believers, if there were any such, kept their light under so opaque a "bushel" that few, if any, got even a glimpse of it. Then came a few "public" trials, which in the case of the Wright Brothers means that somebody caught them at it and told the others to "come on." By this means and through the stories of the affair carried in the newspapers of the country the United States government was brought to realize that something unusual was going on down in the Buckeye state, and sent a commission there to see what it could see and report.

This it came about that Uncle Sam made up his mind that he could use such a machine to advantage if it really was all that was claimed for it, and the Wrights were told that if they could make good with their invention the government would buy it from them for $25,000.

After a series of conferences, the Wrights decided to try for the prize for which others had sought in vain, and Orville Wright went to Fort Myer with an aeroplane. That was less than a year ago, and though his trials then ended in disaster he accomplished enough to cause wonder and amazement throughout the civilized world.

aerial navigation that would seem pure madness to the rest of us.

IT HAS BEEN the dream of the race for ages to fly as the birds do. The idea of flying has furnished themes for writers and singers of every epoch known to history or mythology. When the use of gas in balloons became recognized as practical, the discovery was regarded as the last step in aerial navigation. But now those who had looked upon the balloon as something never to be equalled are declaring that even yet the end has not been reached; that the aeroplane, though it has solved the problem of flight within certain limitations, will be developed further than we at present have any idea of. Some idea of what the Wright brothers think of this would be interesting, but they will not tell their thoughts. Since they first began to dream of flying without gas they have been laughed at and this may be partly the reason why they have grown reticent. At any rate, they have declined to enter the realm of prophecy as regards the future of the art of flying, and questioners have been forced to satisfy themselves with looking at what the brothers actually have accomplished.

That, however, is truly wonderful, and since the two Ohioans continue to keep busy at work on their invention, they must pardon a curious public if it takes it for granted that they have dreams for the future of

WILBUR WRIGHT.

REPORTS OF WHAT the Wright brothers had accomplished reached Europe, and at the same time that Orville Wright was making his preparations for the Fort Myer flights, his brother, Wilbur, received insistent invitations to go to France with a similar machine and show the people there what he really could do. There was even more scepticism in that country than in this, but Wilbur Wright, confident in what he had accomplished, promptly packed one of their aeroplanes and crossed the ocean.

What transpired over the plains at Le Mans has become world famous. The French people turned out in multitudes to see the adventurous American. They came to ridicule, and then went back to their homes convinced that they had seen the most wonderful invention of modern times. On Sept. 21, 1908, Wilbur Wright made an ascent in his aeroplane, in which he flew continuously for 1 hour 31 minutes and 25 seconds, showing throughout that time that he had absolute control of the aeroplane. Two weeks later he took a passenger with him and remained in the air for 1 hour 4 minutes and 26 seconds. Both of these achievements established new world records for flying with a heavier than air machine.

These successes of the brother in France more than overcame the doubts engendered by Orville's accident at Fort Myer, and the brothers were hailed the world over as "Kings of the Air."

SENATOR OWEN. VICE PRESIDENT SHERMAN. SENATOR ELKINS.

HOT WEATHER has been the most persistent factor at the national capital this summer, and the senators and congressmen have had their full share of sweating. But, however much they have complained about the heat, when sitting in the chambers of the senate and the house of representatives, they have been found ready time and again to drop all and go out to Fort Myer to stand in the sun and watch the Wright brothers working over their aeroplane. Sometimes things have not gone as smoothly with the flyers as they might have, and there have been delays, but the patience of a crowd of fans at a ball game is as nothing compared with that of victims of what one Washington correspondent has called "aeroplanitis," and the lawmakers of the nation have been known to stand patiently waiting for things to move.

One of the most enthusiastic of these "flying machine fans" has been Senator Stephen B. Elkins of West Virginia. He has shown remarkable faithfulness in attending the flight exhibitions, and on one day in particular he got one of the Wright boys into a corner and quizzed him over and over about every detail of the aeroplane—what this was for, what

REGAL STYLE MARKS FETE

Whitelaw Reid Has Royal Family of England as His Guests.

Part of Music for Dinner Is Furnished By Mme. Nordica.

London, July 10.—Practically all the members of the royal family at present in London were guests at Dorchester house last evening on the occasion of the dinner and dance given by the American ambassador and his wife, Mrs. Whitelaw Reid in honor of the king and queen and Princess Victoria. This was the second time since Mr. Reid's incumbency at the embassy that the king has dined with him, but last evening, for the first time, Queen Alexandra and Princess Victoria accompanied his majesty.

The dinner which followed the dinner was a most brilliant affair, and outside of royal courts, probably has not been surpassed for splendor and the prominence of the guests, who included, besides the royal guests, the leaders in the political and social world of England and many American dignitaries.

Heer Norden Slag. Dinner was served at two large tables, decked with every variety of house was surpassed in brilliancy by the temporary supper room, which was erected over the north terrace and lawn. This in reality was a large tent, but so skillfully transformed that it resembled a great conservatory.

The king and queen and other members of the royal family occupied with their hosts and friends the center tables and were loud in their praise of the magnificence of the scene arranged in their honor. There were forty tables, each a mass of pink carnations deftly intertwined with ferns.

John D. Gives $10,000,000 MORE Total Gifts to Educational Board Now Amount to $52,000,000.

New York, July 10.—John D. Rockefeller yesterday increased his donations to the general educational board by a gift of $10,000,000 and also released the board from obligation to hold perpetually the funds contributed by him. The gift, announced yesterday by Frederick T. Gates, the chairman of the board, brings Mr. Rockefeller's donations to the board to $52,000,000. It was contributed, ac-

ording to the statement made by Mr. Gates, because the income of the present fund available for appropriations had been exhausted and a larger income to meet educational needs of great importance had become necessary.

Mr. Rockefeller's action in empowering the board and its successors to distribute the principal of funds contributed by him upon the affirmative vote of two-thirds of its members, was said to have been taken in consideration of the possibility, now remote, that at some future time the object and purpose of the Rockefeller foundation might become obsolete. Under the original conditions imposed, the fund would have had to continue in perpetuity, irrespective of whether a public demand for its continuance existed or not.

Since the receipt of its foundation for higher education in 1905, the board has subscribed to colleges of this country $5,357,500. The colleges to which these subscriptions have been made since 1905 have amounted to $14,037,500. When these agreements have been completed the total addition to collegiate endowment in this country, through the board and friends of colleges, will be $19,395,000.

SUPFRAGETTES GET PETITION TO ASQUITH. London, July 10.—Four suffragettes, who under the leadership of Mrs. Despard, have been waiting patiently for the past few days in the vicinity of parliament, waylaid Premier Asquith in Downing street yesterday afternoon and tried to push through the police a petition that was drawn around the premier's residence. The women shouted:

"Petition, petition; will you grant us a hearing?" The premier turned on the steps of his home, saying: "I will take the petition."

He descended, and having accepted the petition, entered his house, without intending to any explanation.

The deputations withdrew, but returned later and were arrested and charged at the police court with disorderly conduct. They were remanded until Monday.

MOTHER OF FIVE IS KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE. Toledo, Ohio, July 10.—Mrs. Robert Beyer, aged 48, mother of five children, was struck by an automobile last night and dragged nearly 150 feet. The accident occurred near the United States military tournament, and the hospital corps hurried to the scene in the army ambulance. The injured woman died in the ambulance. Her husband, Robert Beyer, was serving a term in the Toledo workhouse for larceny, and as soon as the superintendent of that institution heard of the accident he released the man on his own recognizance.

DENIES HE HAS MANY SPOUSES

Man Arrested at San Francisco Says He Is Not John Madson.

San Francisco, July 10.—Christian C. Johnson, the man arrested here three days ago on charges of having defrauded Mrs. H. Leopold out of $800, following her marriage to him, and who, the police declare, is John Madson, the husband of a score or more of wives scattered throughout the country, stoutly maintains his denial that he was Madson. He admitted his marriage to Mrs. S. P. Debonnett of this city, however.

The detective bureau has been flooded with inquiries concerning John Madson, who has been charged with accusations of bigamy was unraveled before the prisoner. Johnson appeared cheerful under the gathering fire of his alleged extensive matrimonial career and his face at times indicated that he found a little amusement in the general disturbance his arrest has caused.

"I am not Madson," the prisoner shouted at the detectives. "Whichever says I am, deliberately lies. I never even heard of Madson. I decided that the best policy was to tell the truth when I was arrested, and I am telling it when I say that I am not Madson, and am married to only one woman."

Will Swear to Complaint. Stockton, Cal., July 10.—Mrs. Josie Threlway, one of the women who claims to have been married to John C. Johnson, who is believed to be Madson, left for San Jose yesterday to swear to a complaint. Her marriage to him took place in San Jose on April 25, she says. According to her story he tried to secure $500 from her. Mrs. Threlway is 51 years old.

Chaplain Celebration Ends. Isle La Motte, Vermont, July 10.—The Lake Champlain tercentenary celebration arranged between the states of New York and Vermont, after a week of oratory and pageantry, beginning at Old Crown Point, N. Y., closed last night with ceremonies on historic Isle La Motte, where long ago the earliest Christian service in the history of Vermont was held.

Daylight Thieves Get $25,000. Vienna, July 10.—The postoffice in the center of the city was robbed of $25,000 yesterday. While an official was called to the telephone booth as a ruse, the thieves gained access and reached the cashier and his strongbox, where they found a considerable amount of gold coin.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS PAGE

Marie's Burglar.

BY HELENA DAVIS.

MRS. TEMPLE had gone to the railroad station to meet her husband, leaving her little daughter, Marie, at the house alone. It was almost 9 o'clock, and a fine drizzling rain was falling, making the night dark and disagreeable. Even though it was the month of July, a slight fire was needed in the library grate, and the windows were closed to keep out the damp, chilly air.

An hour before Mrs. Temple's departure for the station, Marie, the cook, had received a call by telephone to the bedside of her sick mother, but on reaching her, she found that the illness was not a serious one and had planned to her mistress that she would return home before dark for her to go to the station. But the time passed and Marie did not put in an appearance. At last, when the hour for Mrs. Temple's departure arrived, she said to Marie: "Daughter, are you afraid to remain alone till Nancy returns? She will surely be here at any minute, for she knows the hour I was to start to the station, and you know she phoned that she would return before that time. Something has detained her for a few minutes, but I dare say she will be here very soon—maybe she will come within a few minutes after I have gone."

"Oh, I'm not afraid, mamma," declared Marie. "Go right along, for papa will be terribly disappointed if you are not there to meet him. He's been three months since he went East, and I know he must be awfully anxious to see you and me."

"Yes, and were it not that your throat is a bit sore you should go, too," said Mrs. Temple. "But it would not do for my little girl to run any risks of catching more cold. We must keep her warm and dry till that wee bit of throat trouble clears up. What a brave little Marie you are, dearie, to stay here alone. But we'll depend on Nancy's returning soon. So now, to bed." And Mrs. Temple kissed Marie goodnight as she went out through the front hall door. "Lock the door, dearie," she called back, nodding and throwing a kiss through the plate-glass of the door.

Marie locked the door and returned to the cozy library. Taking a book she sat down to read, hoping thus to pass the time during her mother's absence. It was quite a long distance to the station, and her parents could not reach home before 10 o'clock.

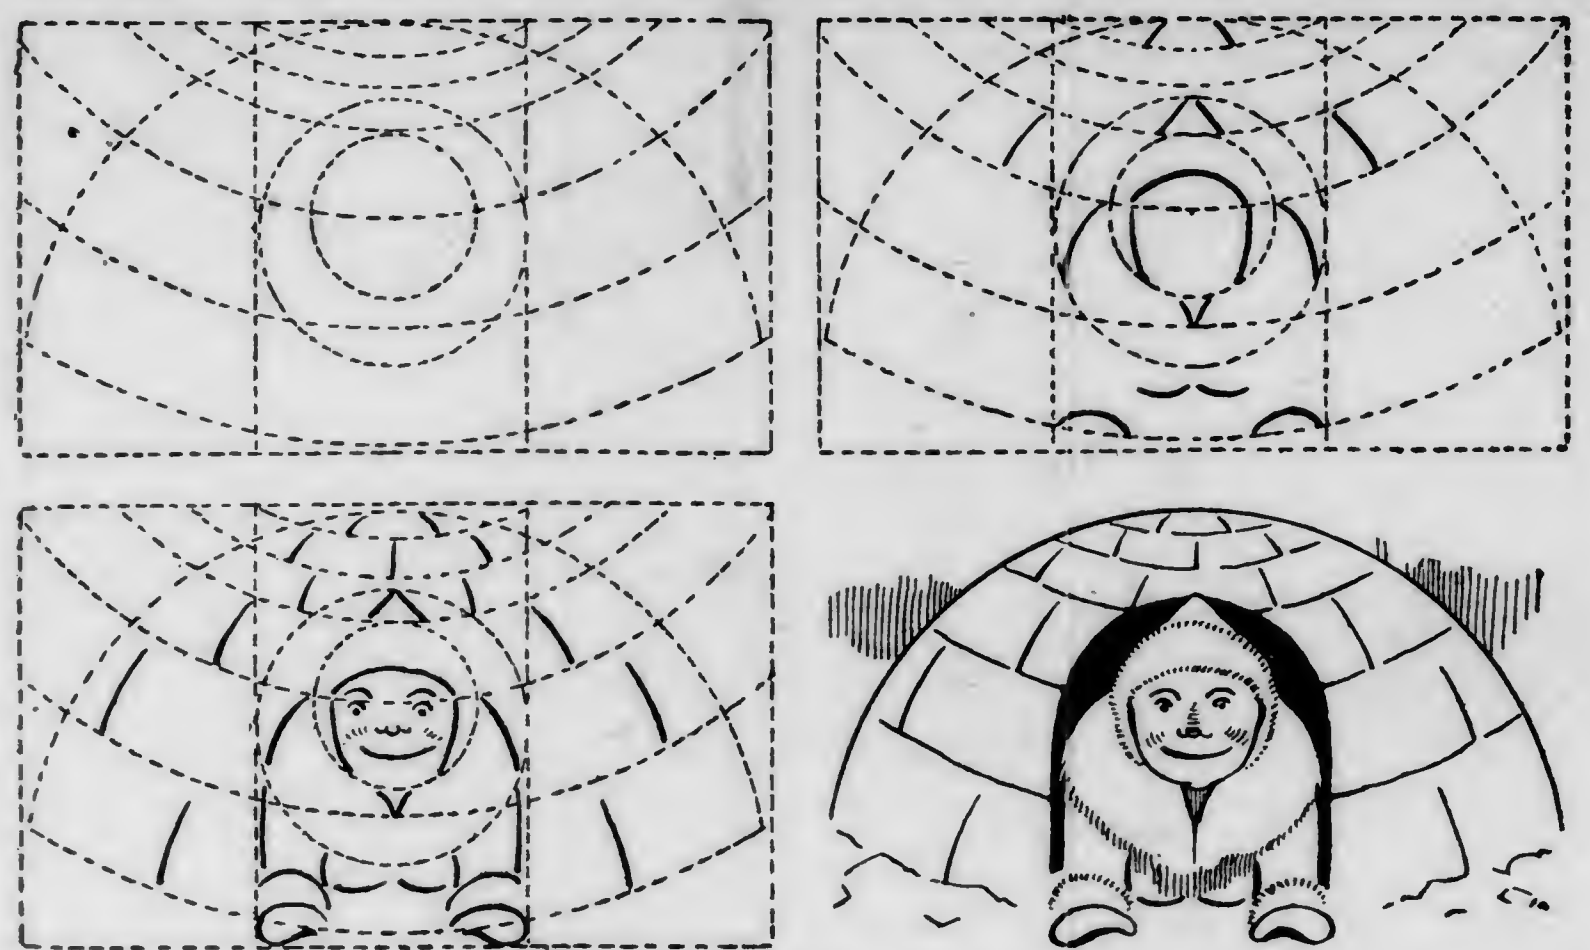

Half an hour passed away and Marie grew a bit anxious over Nancy's continued absence. Could it be that some accident had befallen the good woman? If she knew how to reach her home by phone she would call and make inquiry whether or not she was still there. "Well, all I can do is to wait," mused Marie. "But really it does seem so quiet here in the house, I never knew before what it meant to be entirely alone."

Then she became engrossed in her book again, and read on till about a quarter to 10. "Why, almost time for mamma and papa," she said, glancing at the clock. "Well, I'll sit up the fire a bit and run into the dining-room and fix the lunch on the table. Nancy has everything ready, and all it wants is placing on the table. Wonder why Nancy hasn't returned."

Marie stepped short, for a man's form passed the dining-room window, going toward the back hall door, which led upon a porch. "Who can that be?" Marie whispered, feeling fright. "It may be a burglar—and he may have sandwiched poor Nancy in the front yard so that she might get the back door key, for she always carries a key to the back door."

Marie felt a shiver of apprehension pass through her veins. "Oh, what shall I do?" she whispered, holding her hands tightly together. "Oh, I hear him on the porch. He's trying the door now!" Quickly Marie ran to the back hall door and cautiously drew the bolt across, for that would prevent the door from being opened in case the person outside had the key. Several times the person on the outside tried the door knob. Then Marie betthought her of the windows, and listened, thence, to the sound of her mother's voice. She must not let the man outside have an opportunity of looking in and seeing that she was alone.

Again the man tried the door, and this time Marie heard a key turn in the lock. The bolt flew back and the person outside pressed on the door. But the inside bolt held it fast. Marie was growing so much frightened now that she did not know what to do. Should she slip out at the front door and run to a neighbor's house? Then an idea flashed through her mind, and not a moment too soon, either, for the man—whose Marie now felt sure was a burglar—was trying to raise a kitchen window. Marie could hear him tugging at it and giving vent to guttural sounds of impatience. With quick, silent strides Marie reached the telephone in the front hall and rang up "Central," asking for the phone number of the nearest neighbor. Getting immediate connection, she called out: "Hello, is this Mrs. Black? Oh, is it Mr. Black answering? Well, this is Marie Temple—and, say, Mr. Black, I'm all alone and a burglar is trying to get into our house. Come over as quickly as you can, and you'd better fetch along your gun. He—the burglar—is trying the kitchen window. You'll be right over—Oh, thank you. Good-by."

Marie hung up the receiver and reached more easily than she had done for the past five or six minutes, the space of time the burglar had been about the door and window. Then she went to the kitchen and listened intently. The man had evidently gotten the step-ladder from the stable and had placed it against one of the kitchen windows, for Marie heard him bump the ladder against the house right under the window. Had not she known that Mr. Black was coming instantly—wasn't she sure that she would have heard from her mother and even while she listened with drawn breath she heard someone running on the gravel walk around the house? The next thing she heard was a man's voice saying: "Why, hello, Black!" Then she heard his voice saying: "What's the matter? Conversation—hurried—excited. But the thing that most startled Marie was the sound of the voice which called to her: "Black!" For it was very familiar to her. "Why, that sounded like Papa's voice," she gasped. Then, rushing to the window to raise the shade, she heard her own name being called through the back hall door. "Marie, daughter, come open the door."

With a bound, Marie was at the door and she drew it open. And to her joy they stood her father and Mr. Black. Both were laughing, and as Marie was caught in her father's arms, kissed and hugged lovingly, she told him of her fright. They entered the house, and

Mr. Black bade them good night, laughing, saying that if he were needed in future to apprehend a burglar he hoped it would not turn out to be the master of the house. "All right, Black, you've got one on me," laughed Mr. Temple. "But I want to thank you just the same for coming to take me into custody—or to hand me over to the police."

"Well, I've handed you over to your daughter, and I guess you are in safe hands," smiled Mr. Black. Then he took his leave, and Marie and her papa were alone. Then Marie asked her papa how he had happened to come home without her mother and why he had tried entering at the back door.

"Well, it all happened this way, Marie," said Mr. Temple, taking off his raincoat and sitting down in front of the fire. "When I handed you over to your daughter, I was thinking of you, naturally, and I supposed you had decided not to come out through the rain. I hurried out to the street and caught a car and came home. As I left the car at the corner, whom should I see but Nancy hurrying on home. I stopped to speak to her, and she said you and your mother had gone to the station to meet me, and that she was returning from her mother's house. Then, suddenly, she said: 'Oh, Mr. Temple, I forgot to stop at the drug store and order some medicine sent to my mother. Will you take the key—it's the back hall door—and let yourself in. I must run back to the drugstore.' So, I took the key and went to the house while Nancy returned to attend to her errand. Well, little daughter, you know the rest of the story, and your telephone call for help."

"Yes, and it was a very silly thing for me to do," said Marie, smiling. "But you see, papa, as you ran along through the cover of the house you sort of went over to the kitchen window and kept the dripping rain out of your face—through the keyhole. So I thought you a burglar. But to return to Mamma and me—I had intended going to the station with Mamma to meet you, but this even-

Tottie's School.

BY MARY GRAHAM.

TOTTY was seven years old. After school was out for the long summer vacation Totty, who was a very studious little girl, decided she must have something besides play to keep her busy. She loved play, but she felt that she must not give up all her time to it. She must have some sort of work to do each day.

"Oh, I know what I'll do," she said, talking to herself one morning. "I'll open a school. I'll have for pupils Rover, Minnie, Angelina, Bertha and Tom. They'll make a nice class and will enjoy the school very much, I'm sure."

But before I go any further with this story I must tell you who these anticipated pupils were. Rover was Totty's pet doggie; Minnie was her pet kitten; Angelina, Bertha and Tom were her three dolls. Totty was very fond of them all, and they in turn loved Totty very much indeed. But you will find out how little they liked school.

Well, on the same day that the idea of school came into her head Totty gathered together her pupils. She decided it best to hold the school in the open, on the big back porch. She got chairs and placed them in a row. Rover she put at the head of the class, for, as she declared, he was the wisest pupil she had, for he could jump through a hoop and do many other clever tricks. Next to him she put Minnie, then Angelina, Tom and Bertha. But almost immediately she had to take Minnie away from the side of Rover, for they got to quarreling terribly.

"Oh, why will you two children not so naughty?" cried Totty, carrying Minnie to a seat at the foot of the class. "Now, you are all in a row, and we'll begin our lesson," she went on, taking a book and sitting on a chair in front of the class. "Now, Rover, I shall spell the word 'dog'." "If I do not spell it correctly I want you to bark. Then, if on second trial I do not spell it correctly, I want you to bark harder and fiercer. Then, if on third trial I spell it correctly, I want you to wag your tail and put out your tongue. Do you understand?" And as Rover looked as though he understood, Totty began to spell. "C-O-G. Is that right, Rover?" But Rover only sat looking at her. Again the teacher put the question, but this time Rover was busy scratching a flea bite and paid no attention to the question. Tapping him gently on the head, Totty again spelled the word "dog." "Again, Rover!" "Did I spell the word 'dog' all right, Rover?" But Rover was getting tired of listening to such nonsense as spelling, and, seeing a strange dog trotting along in the back alley, he leaped from his seat in the schoolroom and ran for the alley, barking very meaningfully at the stranger. In vain did the teacher call to him to return; he kept right on, ending by jumping over the low fence at the back of the yard and going up to introduce himself to the strange dog.

Totty ran down the garden path after him, calling him to "come right back to school, and that he'd soon have recess, at which time he could play." But Rover looked at her, sniffed at the strange dog, seemed to like him and went off down the alley, barking and playing with him.

"Oh, you can go and play with that old cur," said Totty, impatiently. "I'll go back to my other pupils. And when you do come home I shall keep you in after school and make you write a hundred words before allowing you to have your supper." But when Totty reached her schoolroom she found that Minnie had run away and chased one of the big trees in the yard, and Angelina had fallen over and her eyes had gone right shut in sleep. Tom sat looking tired and Bertha was all bent over, as if suffering stomach ache. "Oh, what a very naughty lot of pupils I have," said Totty. "Well, I'll put Angelina to bed, put Tom in his chair in the playroom, give Bertha a dose of medicine; then I'll go and play with Flossie and Holly Turner the rest of the afternoon. My school isn't much fun, anyway."

Had The Correct Idea.

The teacher glanced over her pupils and finally selected Joseph to tell her the meaning of the word "responsibility." "Well," said the bright pupil, "if I only had two buttons on my trousers and one of these came off the responsibility would rest on the other."

He was promoted to the class above.

ing after supper my throat became a bit sore, and we decided I would better not go out in the rain. And I remember now that Nancy had gone before we came to that decision. Otherwise she would have known that I was here—and alone. But no one is to blame; it was only a mistake all round." And Marie laughed.

Just at that moment the doorknob rang and Marie ran to admit her mother. "Why, Papa, must have missed me," said Mrs. Temple on entering the hall. "His train had been in about seven minutes when I reached the station. My car was detained by a wrecked wagon on the tracks, and made me late reaching the station. But I thought I would send Papa—"

"Right here, dear," said Mr. Temple, coming into the hall and embracing his wife affectionately. "I've been playing burglar—but let's go into the dining-room and while we break our fast, Mary will tell you all about my back-door entrance."

bring you to your senses; otherwise your cries for help would have brought a policeman. Say, sonny, you have the lungs all right." And Mr. Potter felt to laughing again.

"I guess anybody would have fine lungs—if they had caught a whale," declared Billy. "But, say, papa, haven't we been up yet? Haven't we started for the creek to catch the monster of the Great River? It's just 2 o'clock, and you have three hours to sleep yet. So, turn on your side and close your litters. Good night, Bismarck."

"Call me whinner," murmured Billy, smilingly. Then he fell asleep, to dream in none of his that night, and when he was called at 5 o'clock in the morning he jumped out of bed with a burr: "Off for the camp!"

A Spider That Fishes.

There has recently been discovered in Buenos Ayres a spider which practices fishing at times. In shallow places it spins between staves a two-wheeled contraption, on which it runs in the water, and captures small fish, tadpoles, etc. That it understands its work well is shown by the manner in which it spins of little creatures that lie about in the web net.

dressing. With a look of disappointment in his face, he lay back on his pillow, saying slowly: "Gee, papa! It was the biggest fish you ever saw; if only it might have been size enough, and it was a dream. Why, it was so strong that it almost dragged me in. What a pity it wasn't true!" And Billy sighed as he said this.

Mr. Potter laughed heartily; then said: "Well, son, you made enough noise to have caught a shark—or a whole school of them. I was roused from my sleep by a voice crying: 'Help, papa! Come! It's a whale! Go! It's a whale! I ran to your room, for the sounds had proceeded from there, and when I turned on the light saw you leaning over the side of the bed, as though it were a river bank, holding onto an imaginary pole and bracing yourself in the bed as though you were being pulled from it. I felt sorry to wake you, sonny, for I knew how disappointed you would be to find your fish was but a dream. But necessity demanded that I

Here, son, what does all this mean? Come, shake yourself awake, my boy!" It was Billy's father's voice that spoke in his ear, a voice which seemed far away and strange and broke in upon Billy's cry for help.

Then, trembling in every limb from excitement, Billy slowly opened his eyes and beheld his father, in night robe, standing beside him. And looking about, Billy saw that he was in his own little room, sitting upright in the bed, leaning over its edge in a strange position. Then the truth dawned upon him. He had been

OUR PUZZLE CORNER

LETTER ENIGMA.

My first is in sick, but not in well;
My second is in perfume, but not in smell;
My third is in drink, but not in thirst;
My fourth is the same as you found in my first.

My fifth is in hat, but not in bonnet;
My sixth is in sing, but not in sonnet;
My seventh you've had in my text, also;
My eighth is in come, but not in go.

My whole spells that
Which to all is most dear,
And it comes very often
At this time of year.

ZIGZAG PUZZLE.

All the words of this zigzag contain the same number of letters. If the words are rightly guessed, and written one below another, their zigzag letters, beginning with the upper left-hand letter and ending with the lower right-hand letter, will spell the name of a favorite summer pastime for boys. The crosswords are: 1. A chunk of dirt. 2. That which every child, rich or poor, has given to it. 3. A sacred song. 4. A place where articles are sold. 5. That which is done with yarn. 6. Something good. 7. That which children enjoy.

PRIMAL ACROSTIC.

The words of this acrostic contain four letters each. If the words are guessed, and written one below another in their correct order, their initials will spell the name of an American statesman who lived in the early part of 1800. The crosswords are: 1. A leverage. 2. The title of a publication. 3. To cook in an oven. 4. That which is found on the beach. 5. A remedy. 6. A point of the compass. 7. Something school children are required to do.

SHADOW-PATCH PUZZLE.

If these shadow-patches are correctly joined together the three-quarter length figure of a boy, wearing a large hat and holding a hoop, will be obtained.

Billy's Whale, When and Where He Caught It.

BY MAUD WALKER.

SAY, children, how would you like to go over to Great River for a week of camping-out, fishing and hunting?" This was the question asked by Mr. Potter of his two sons, John and Billy, aged, respectively 12 and 10.

"Oh, papa, do you mean it?" cried Billy, leaping from his chair and waving his arms over his head in his glad excitement, while a broad smile covered his father's face as he said enthusiastically: "It would be great, papa. Shall we go soon?"

"This week—tomorrow, if we can be ready so soon," replied Mr. Potter. "Your week of camping-out, fishing and hunting is ready, and all we have to do is to get out our old last summer's fishing clothes, our tackle and tent. The tent is all right, doesn't need any repairs, for I had it put into good shape last summer after we had used it. So, all that is necessary is for us to get to work getting our traps together."

"Gee, we'll be ready all right, papa," cried Billy. "I could be in shape to start this afternoon. And he hurried away from the breakfast table and up the stairs to his own room, where he began to gather together the things he would want during his outing.

"Billy won't eat another bite till he is in camp," laughed Mrs. Potter. "He's so excited, bless his dear heart. And like as not, he'll get some things packed that he doesn't need, and others that he does want will be left behind. So, if you'll excuse me, papa and John, I'll run up and pack my things. And you, Billy, you'll be ready all right, papa," cried Billy. "I could be in shape to start this afternoon. And he hurried away from the breakfast table and up the stairs to his own room, where he began to gather together the things he would want during his outing.

"That's right, sir," laughed John, pushing aside his plate, on which remained half a fluffy, delicious waffle, covered with maple syrup. "At any other time, papa, I couldn't leave that waffle. But just now I haven't a bit more appetite. I've had my fill."

"Then we—you and I—will see about the tent," said Mr. Potter. "Hope the rats haven't gotten about it." And accompanied by John, Mr. Potter went to the attic to pull out the camping tent. To his surprise he found that the tent was in splendid condition. After the tent had been carried down to the back yard and opened out for inspection Mr. Potter and John got the camping blankets together, hung them on the clothes line for airing and brushing. Then the "grub-box" was got from the cellar and carried to the kitchen, for Mrs. Potter and Bridget were already preparing the edibles which were to fill it. Save for bread, butter, crackers, cheese, a cake and some doughnuts, the food would be uncooked, and would consist of bacon, ham, beans, potatoes and some sort of dried fruit. Whenever Mr. Potter and his boys went camping they had plenty to eat, for Mr. Potter played cook while the boys fished, swam, hunted and explored. And as the boys always returned to camp half-starved their "cook" endeavored to always have a good meal waiting for them.

Of course, Mr. Potter did not always remain at the tent, heading over the camping, but often cast in a line himself, pulling out some fine flukes; and also he took his place in the refreshing water, along with the boys, but a little of such entertainment suffered, and he found much time for attending to the needs of the inner man and boy.

"We'll get up very early in the morning—say at 5 o'clock," said Mr. Potter to his sons that evening as they all sat at dinner. "Then we'll get to Great River before the heated part of the day. And old Daddy won't mind the heat in the cool of the morning." Old Daddy was the driving force belonging to the Porters and was always considered one of the family.

"Yes, that's right, papa," acquiesced John. "It's a pretty good lead for Daddy. The wagon, tent, grub-box, and we three. And, of course, there are many other things to add to the weight, such as bedding, our rubber boots, fishing tackle, etc."

"Oh, Daddy won't feed such a load," smiled Mrs. Potter. "And he'll be so glad to get to the country—in the fine woods. Were it not for sister Agnes's coming to visit next week, and such a lot to be done in preparation for her visit, I would join you, for a taste of nature, camping out with papa and my boys, would be very enjoyable."

"Oh, I wish you would go with us, mamma," cried both John and Billy in a breath. Then Mr. Potter added his persuasion to his wife, begging her to go with them for a few days. If she could not remain the entire week, but Mrs. Potter declined, saying that she would go with them the next summer, and that they would then make great preparation for a whole month of camping and fishing.

When the clock struck nine the Potter family hurried off to bed, for the male members must be up and stirring by five. But the family would not be fast asleep. Billy tumbled into his place beside his father and John, all three sitting on the cot springs. Then Mr. Potter picked up the reins and away went old Daddy, trotting off toward the blue wooded hills in the distance which marked the borders of the Great River bottoms.

And before Billy had hardly come out of his morning sleep they drew up at a cozy nook between two cliff-like banks which made a sort of valley in the house. A few feet away rolled the waters of the Great River, and the bank which led to it was green and mossy. Pine trees shaded their camping place, and pretty soon all were out of the wagon, working like Turks, setting the camp in order. But Billy, eager to get to fishing, fixed a rod and line, baited the hook and stole off down to the river, saying nothing to his father or brother about his intention. Seating himself on the brink of the stream he threw his line far out over the water, the hook dipping down into the blue current. Hardly had the hook disappeared when Billy felt a strong jerk at his line. Quickly he began to reel it in, but the weight at the other end was so terribly heavy that it almost dragged him into the water and he feared the line would break. Then, as he was slowly reeling in the line a great monster of a fish leaped into the air, tugged at the line and fell back in the water, still held by Billy's hook. When Billy's eyes beheld that fish he almost bulged from his head, for it was no ordinary fish, but a tremendous blue one. Still reeling, Billy set up a cry of help, calling at the top of his voice: "Papa, John, come quickly! I've got a whale! Come, come for dear life's sake! I can't hold him much longer. He will drag me into the water if you don't hurry! Gee, but he's a whopper!"

"Here, son, what does all this mean? Come, shake yourself awake, my boy!" It was Billy's father's voice that spoke in his ear, a voice which seemed far away and strange and broke in upon Billy's cry for help.

Then, trembling in every limb from excitement, Billy slowly opened his eyes and beheld his father, in night robe, standing beside him. And looking about, Billy saw that he was in his own little room, sitting upright in the bed, leaning over its edge in a strange position. Then the truth dawned upon him. He had been

VOTERS SOLVE THE LIQUOR PROBLEM

(Exclusive Service the Survey Press Bureau.)

Senator Colby, speaking before a church club in Newark, on the lessons of the last local elections, when the reform forces were apparently defeated, advised the formation of a sort of vigilance committee, to follow up the workings of the county officials and the sheriff's office, and to compel a stricter enforcement of the law.

Most willing and efficient of city officials need, and often welcome, such a valid expression of public opinion. The writer thinks that the work of voters' leagues is of a more general nature, and in other words is spread out too thin, and the workers, not seeing results immediately achieved, or their forces meeting defeat at an election become discouraged and give up the struggle.

It is the purpose of this paper to suggest to voters interested in civic improvement, and especially to those hoping for better municipal government, that the more efficient plan of specialization of effort will often accomplish the desired result with a minimum of machinery and consequent conservation of effort. The writer describes an actual experiment.

The citizens' committee of fifty of Orange, N. J., was organized after several conferences of the Bureau of Associated Charities on "The Liquor Problem in Orange." It was named, of course, for the famous committee of fifty, of which ex-President Elliot is chairman, having for its purpose the study of the same problem. Our committee was organized on the basis of a membership of the voters of several churches with two laymen from each church. None of the clergy acted either as officers or on the executive committee. The membership has changed somewhat in the twelve years of the committee's existence, as there are no strict rules concerning it, but the basis is practically the same.

Only White League assistance. The committee consists itself only with the liquor question.

At its inception there were 115 saloons in Orange, and the license fee was only $200. Previous to this time licenses had been granted freely by the common council on petition of six property holders and were seldom refused. An enabling act having passed the legislature, the council directed itself to the licensing problem, placing it with a board of excise, consisting of three members, appointed by a judge of the county court. This body has supreme power in granting all licenses and fixing the license fee.

Realizing that the first step toward placing the saloons under control was the number of saloons by increasing the license fee, the committee proposed reductions asking for an increase to $300.

Orange is a manufacturing town with a population of 25,000. It has a large foreign element and a considerable colored colony. Prohibition had not thought of by a majority of those best advised that "speak easily," "speak kindly" and the "lawless" would be the inevitable result of closing all saloons. The result, legislative action showed that this is the case in the rural communities of Southern New Jersey. On the other hand, there was no objection but that drinking would be diminished and the character of the saloon raised on a higher plane by the reduction in the number. The petitions were signed by every civic body in the Orange. They included the Bureau of Associated Charities, the Y. M. C. A., the W. C. T. U., the Children's Aid and Protective Society, the English society, the trustees of the Orange Memorial hospital and some twenty others, amounting by a roll call to about 500 names.

The petition was also signed by the many in the community, including the Roman Catholic priests and the Jewish rabbis.

At first the petition was rejected. It was opposed by the saloon keepers and the board of excise. The board of excise, however, after a long and arduous struggle, decided to increase the cost of the license to $300. The number of saloons, as many of them were owned by brewers which were exempted from the license fee, was reduced to 100. It is now $400 and will probably be raised to $500.

Interactions of the law. The committee does not claim credit for these changes. Public sentiment has grown, but the committee is always there to voice public sentiment.

Citizens' Committee in Orange, N. J., In Co-Operation With the Liquor Dealers' Association, Lessens the Number of Saloons, Abolishes Dives and Ends Sunday Selling.

By JOSEPH D. HOLMES, Chairman of the "Citizens' Committee of Fifty," of Orange, N. J.

and to keep its first demands from being forgotten. The next feature of the work is in regard to infractions of the law.

All police complaints are brought to the attention of the board at its monthly meetings. Soon after the organization of the committee a conference was held with the executive committee of the Liquor Dealers' association of Orange. The members told the committee that they pledged themselves to obey the law not to sell to minors, not to sell to habitual drunkards or disorderly persons, and to discipline any member found guilty of such infractions. They have also volunteered to assist in the prosecution of those guilty of these infractions. Nothing was said at this time about Sunday closing. Sunday selling behind closed doors was all but universal.

The "bishops' law," so called, has changed all that. A simple clause requiring all screens to be removed from doors and windows, and a further clause forbidding the sale of liquor in back rooms, with plenty of room for the sale of liquor, stopped the Sunday business at one stroke. The Orange Liquor Dealers' association promptly assented to a resolution requiring abstinence to the law.

This is not the place to discuss liquor laws, the only subject of this paper being to show that public opinion being actively expressed and kept before public officials, these officials are reinforced by the unofficial expressions of organized good citizenship, and the burden of proof is placed upon those who wish to see a different state of affairs.

Why should not this be done in any locality by specialized committees, either as officers or on the executive committee. The membership has changed somewhat in the twelve years of the committee's existence, as there are no strict rules concerning it, but the basis is practically the same.

A municipal act league to follow up all changes proposed or desired, after the usual appearance of public property; a civic sanitation society, with an executive committee to attend to all state meetings of the boards of health; a society of insurance men, who would take an interest in the local fire department—these are a few of the suggestions. Home and School association, bringing parent, school and teacher together, is a new and successful form of voluntary unofficial organization. It disclaims all idea of interfering with teachers or curriculum.

The Machinery. A word as to the machinery and organization. That of the citizens' committee of fifty is of the simplest. No monthly meetings, but always some of the executive in attendance at the regular meetings of the board of excise, an annual meeting for the election of a chairman, vice chairman, secretary and treasurer, and reporter, and a small annual dues to cover postage and stationery. A card catalogue of all saloons, with their "record," if any, a scrap book for police complaints and news items, a printed list of saloons, arranged according to the date of expiration of license, which are for one year only, with notes on the margin of any action taken or asked for. That is all.

It is not an unusual thing for the chairman of the board of excise, publicly to request a meeting of the board to what action should be taken in a case before the board. It is most unusual, but it has happened, for the president of the Liquor Dealers' association to call publicly on the citizens' committee to say whether or not his association is justified in a position it has taken. This is a tribute to the character of the committee and to its representative quality.

The number of saloons has now been reduced to eighty-five. The number will continue, probably, until there is one for each 500 of population. There is not a disorderly house, a dive, a saloon, or a saloon within the city limits. No dancing or musical instruments are permitted in any saloon, and the back rooms, where the women and the saloons are orderly and law-abiding above the average. And one reason is that any violation of the law will be followed by a prompt complaint to the board of excise, in the name of the "Citizens' committee of fifty."

We are living in the age of social production, a production that is a machine rather than a hand production. You and I are only a part of it. We cannot separate the part we take in it from the part others take. We work together as a unit in the production of a product, yet after we have finished the same we have no right to it, but are paid for the part we have taken with a wage. That is the end of our claim in it, yet when we wish to buy it back we find that the wage we have received will only buy back one-fifth of the same article that was produced through our labor. Labor is the greatest factor in our present civilization, yet it has never received recognition.

Industry is controlled by two factors—labor and capital. Labor is a commodity. The only power labor has is the power of producing a commodity. This is true because the conditions around which labor must perform its work are that it has no choice in how the labor shall be performed, nor how the returns shall be disposed of, but it must accept the wage offered by the person who buys the labor. Capital is also a commodity, commonly understood. The powers that capital has lie in it being a money commodity. This money commodifies both labor and its product. Money is transferred to the machine which labor must use, and after this is carried out the labor market and the machine turns to the labor market and buys labor at the price brought about by the competition among the workmen. Capital in its true meaning, is nothing more than land ownership or machine ownership, the two forces when brought together, the results are the products upon which all must depend for their maintenance.

Socialism proposes that the land, the mines, the factories, the forests and the railroads shall become the collective property of the nation, and that each one shall have the same rights, and that no one will have a right to veto the use of this collective and co-operative property, and all will be the results of a majority. To return to society a benefit for the benefit that it gives to the individual should be the aim of mankind, but this is not true today. Men struggle today for his own individual gain; he cares little for the miseries he forces upon others. Let us plant in the garden of opportunity the seeds that will thrive and bloom into a greater and better mankind, rather than to scatter the seeds of the child in the fields of chaos, for we must do either the one or the other.

G. PHILLIPS.

HEINZE WILL QUIT THE OHIO

Will Soon Cease to Be One of Company's Directors
—First Unit of Mill to Be in Commission Before Aug. 1.

Boston, Mass., July 10. — F. A. Heinze will probably retire as a director of the Ohio Copper company, an early date.

Heinze was identified with this company from its early days. About a year ago he was forced to relinquish control and gave an option on 530,000 shares, at an average price of $4.50 per share, to a syndicate of Chicago and New York mining interests. The personnel of this syndicate, however, has never been made known, and there has naturally been considerable speculation as to whether or not Mr. Heinze actually sold out his stock. In fact, there have been many incidents in the career of the Ohio Copper company within the last few months which have led to the assumption that Mr. Heinze was still the power behind the throne.

The active man in the affairs of the Ohio Copper company at the present time appears to be Carlos Warfield, who has been associated with Mr. Heinze in various enterprises for many years.

General Manager Colin J. Macintosh is in New York, conferring with officials. It is planned to have the first unit of the company's concentrating mill in Bingham in commission before the first day of August, with an initial capacity of 1,200 tons or more.

It has been rumored that the company has recently succeeded in the disposition of some bonds, but this has been officially denied, it being stated that there are at present outstanding $1,250,000 bonds of an authorized issue of $2,000,000.

These bonds were offered to the public at 95, but were not fully subscribed for and the underwriters were obliged to take a good proportion of the same. A call of 25 per cent has been made upon the underwriters, but they have refused to do so, claiming that a number of the underwriters' accounts for the rumor of a new bond issue.

During the recent troubles of the Ohio Copper company the bonds sold as low as 50, accompanied by rumors that a number of the underwriters were unable to meet their obligations.

FOUR COMPANIES OF INFANTRY OFF FOR MANILA

Four companies of the Twelfth Infantry, which started from Governor's Island, New York, on June 29 for San Francisco, on the way to Manila, are now preparing to embark on a vessel to cross the Pacific on the final stretch of their long journey. They left New York under command of Col. W. H. C. Bowen, and were transferred to War-hewen on a quartermaster's steamboat, at San Francisco. They will go aboard the transport Buford. Most of the men have seen tropical climates before and are glad to be going. ## SAYING GOODBYE AT GOVERNOR'S ISLAND

Four companies of the Twelfth Infantry, which started from Governor's Island, New York, on June 29 for San Francisco, on the way to Manila, are now preparing to embark on a vessel to cross the Pacific on the final stretch of their long journey. tion 64 of the national bankruptcy act, July 1, 1898, giving priority to debts owing to any person who, by the laws of any state or of the United States, is entitled to priority. The court concludes that Congress intended to give priority to the states and to the United States all existing priorities which under the laws of the several states and the United States, they were entitled to assert, not only at the time the national bankruptcy law was enacted, but at such time as they could subsequently be given by law, and that the state is a "person" within such clause, and its claim for binding twice manufactured in its prison and sold in "debt," which is entitled to priority in the distribution of the insolvent's estate.

ous, vinous or malt liquors, intoxicating biters or beverages, or other liquors or beverages, by whatever name called, which, if drunk to excess, will produce intoxication. The defendant in Marks vs. State, 48 Southern Court Reporter, 564, was convicted of selling a beverage known as meat or methanol, containing about 145 per cent alcohol. The Alabama supreme court, in review of the case, defines separately each of the several kinds of liquors referred to, and construes the phrase "which, if drunk to excess will produce intoxication," as qualifying the word "liquors" to the clause, "or other liquors or beverages by whatever name called." The term "alcoholic liquors," as used in the statute, is construed to include any beverage which contains alcohol, and which, if drunk to excess will produce intoxication, and although the vendor or dispenser of the beverage is not a party to the offense, he is liable for the sale of such beverage.

PRIORITY OF DEBTS DUE STATE.—In the matter of In re Western Implement company, 185 Federal Reporter, 576, one of the questions for determination was whether money due the state of Minnesota for binding twine manufactured by the state in its penitentiary and sold was a debt due the state within the meaning of the Revised Laws of Minnesota, 1905, sections 4640 and 4638, which give priority to debts owing to the United States and to the state. Having reached an affirmative conclusion as to this step of the question, the court then considered the question whether the debt was such as was entitled to priority under section 4638.

REALTY DEALERS WILL TAKE UP REVALUATION

Will Invite City Assessor to Discuss His Plans Before Them
—The Holiday Causes a Quiet Week in Real Estate Circles.

The Duluth Real Estate exchange is going to take the revaluation matter in hand and find some way of having all the city's property revalued if possible.

At the next meeting of the exchange the matter will be taken up fully and discussed. The members are very much interested, and C. L. Rakowsky has been invited to give the members his views on the subject.

The council some time ago appropriated $1,000 for the purpose of carrying on the work, but the amount was altogether too small with which to cover the entire city. At least $5,000 is needed, and as the council does not seem disposed to donate any more to the cause, ways and means will be talked over.

According to local realty dealers this is one thing that must be done and done soon. They say there is imperative need of a revaluation, and the council is doing the right thing in taking it up. The assessed valuation of a great part of the city property is all wrong, say the dealers. Some are assessed too high, others too low. Buildings have been erected on property since the assessment was made and only the property itself is on the list.

Some of the lots that are located in a creek bottom are assessed as high as those that are natural building sites. There has been a big kick from property owners for a long time, and it is now thought best to place a valuation on the whole city and make it as fair to one as it is to another.

In the matter of loans also, the present valuation makes it hard. If the property is placed at a valuation too low, it is impossible to get the loan. If it is too high the outside man at once asks why the value is so high and refuses to take a chance.

The Real Estate exchange will throw the whole matter out at its next meeting, which will be on the first Tuesday in August.

The appropriation given the assessor's office is far too low to assess all the property as it should be done, and the work is done largely on the guess plan.

There has not been a revaluation in the city since 1892, and the property owners as well as the realty dealers feel that it is high time that some action was taken.

The council will probably be asked for as much more as can possibly be obtained, and those interested will raise the additional funds required.

The local agents report a slow week. The Fourth of July coming as it did on Monday, broke badly into the week. It always takes an additional day to get over the effects of a day like the Fourth and there have been but four days of real business this week.

The pleasant weather has sent many people out of the city on excursions and business is practically at a standstill, while all Duluth enjoys weather such as is enjoyed only in Duluth.

Summer cottages are in demand, but there are very few on the market. This is one matter that Duluth is very busy on. Local dealers say that they have many inquiries from outside people who wish to come here for the summer months, but that they have nothing to offer them. There is plenty of room on the Point and at Foul ab Lae for cottages such as are considered desirable, but those who are investing money in building would seemingly rather put it into flats and apartment houses.

Many of these people who want to come here for the summer months could be induced to buy permanent homes and stay here, said a realty dealer this morning. "If there was only some place to keep them during the time they wish to stay. If there were 200 summer cottages exclusively for the use of outsiders, I am sure that these houses would be filled by different people each year. The ones who do come would move into permanent homes and the houses would be ready for the next summer. It would be a great advertising stunt and I wish it could be worked out."

Another thing I would like to see would be a large summer hotel erected on the site of the old White City. Negotiations along this line have been opened with several outside people and a number of them have visited the city to look over the ground. This is another good idea. The best way to advertise Duluth's weather is to get people there to enjoy it. An

AGAIN LET US WARN YOU

That residence lots in Duluth are now commanding lower prices than will ever be seen again. It is altogether probable that a general advance of 50 per cent will occur in the next year—that values will double, and in some places quadruple in the next two years. Our conclusions are based on sound premises and careful investigation of values in other cities. Duluth is entering upon a new era of growth and prosperity. If you would share in that prosperity, buy real estate—then your wealth will grow even faster than the city grows. We have the property for you.

Remember that the Normal School District is the only restricted district in the city—that its character as a residence district of the highest class is fixed by conditions imposed when property is sold.

FIREPROOF HOME WHICH COULD BE BUILT IN DULUTH FOR $9,000

ANTHONY PUCK ARCHITECT

SECOND FLOOR PLAN

The fireproof home is the home of the future. Cost no longer makes the fireproof home prohibitive to people of moderate means. While the first cost of a fireproof dwelling is somewhat in excess of one constructed of combustible material, the actual saving on insurance and maintenance will soon offset the difference—not to mention the feeling of absolute security one can enjoy in a fireproof home. Money recovered by insurance can never replace the actual loss an average family sustains by the burning of a home. Fireproof construction should be considered as seriously for home building as for any other purpose.

The above illustration suggests a plan and design practical and appropriate for a home of fireproof construction. Hollow tile, steel and concrete are the structural material suggested. The exterior could be finished with stucco with a roof of tile, slate, or asbestos shingles.

In the plan is seen a practical and comfortable arrangement. The rooms are of good relative size and are arranged with the idea of the building fronting to the south. The light and roomy living room is the salient feature of the plan and the decorative opening therefrom by French windows, adds much to its attractiveness. The service is unusually compact and convenient, as can be readily appreciated by a glance at the plans. A rear stairway and hall is provided separate from the main stairs, and is broad and easy of ascent. French windows on the landing of the main stairs, light well the spacious hall and provides access to the deck at the rear. The bedrooms being on the corner are light and well ventilated. Closets and bathroom are conveniently planned.

A home as above illustrated and described of fireproof construction would cost to build in Duluth about $9,000.

Tariff on Coal May Be Cut Down to Forty Cents, It Is Said.

Corporation Tax Feature Goes Back to Taft for Some Changes.

Washington, July 12.—That cotton bagging, which was put on the free list by the senate, is not to remain undisturbed is one of the first predictions made in regard to the proposed action of the conference committee on the tariff bill. The house conferees contend that a number of American manufacturers of cotton bagging would be compelled to shut down if that article should remain on the free list and it is said that the senate conferees will not need much urging to agree to return bagging to the dutiable list.

July and June duties, from which cotton bagging has been transferred to the dutiable list by the senate, but as June was on the free list in the bingley bill as well as the Payne bill, the duty probably will be taken off in conference.

Another prediction made with regard to the action of the conferees is that the duty on coal, which is 60 cents in the senate bill as compared with 47 cents in the existing law, will be finally agreed upon at 40 cents in conference.

Chief of Police Saves Assailant of Girl From Lynching at Canonsburg.

Pittsburgh, Pa., July 12.—Only a race early today by the authorities of Canonsburg, near here, prevented the lynching of Joseph Johnson of New Canonsburg, who had been arrested in connection with an attack on Lucile Stodie, 12 years old.

A large crowd gathered about the Canonsburg jail, threw a rope over a tree and demanded that the jail officials surrender the assailant. Chief of Police Swen, however, declared that no arrest had been made and appealed to all present to discontinue a hurried search for the criminal. The assailant, a 19-year-old Mary Oberholzer, who was seen by the victim for hours in the jail and today is being guarded by extra police.

Herbert Knox Smith Reports on Navigable Rivers and Canals in Country.

Washington, July 12.—Lack of practical and commercial unity in the entire inland water system of the United States is the principal text of Part I of the report on transportation by water just submitted to the president by Herbert Knox Smith, commissioner of corporations of the department of commerce and labor.

The commissioner dilates in his letter of transmittal upon the facts that while the United States has altogether a total of about 5,500 miles of river navigation of six feet depth and over, and more than 2,000 miles of canals, these totals are broken up into a large number of unrelated parts by reason of different depths and different conditions, and that the diverse nature of the existing equipment increases this lack of organization. Many vessels are built for special traffic or local conditions, and are thus often not "interchangeable" ever, different, even though connecting routes.

Waterways Are Neglected.

In general, the commissioner shows primarily the relations in which the inland waterways (rivers and canals) stand to the whole transportation system of the country. While waterways are subject to many limitations, he says, they have nevertheless great possibilities.

Library Employee Called to Refute Ella Gingles' Testimony.

Chicago, July 12.—Ella Gingles, the young Irish lace maker, who alleges that a charge of theft placed against her is a part of conspiracy to drive her into "white slavery," was cheered today as she made her way alone through the corridors of the criminal court building. The crowd, which extended from the street to the doors of Judge Brennan's court room, was there merely to catch a glimpse of the defendant, for Judge Brennan has ordered that none but those directly interested in the trial be admitted.

One man, who in the crowd snatched from the hand of a constable a copy of the state's case against the girl, seemed much pleased at the receipt of the papers. Several shouldered their way to Miss Gingles' side and spoke words of encouragement.

The girl seemed much pleased at the reception accorded her yesterday at the Garfield Boulevard Presbyterian church, where she was introduced from the pulpit by the pastor and where $250 for her defense was raised.

The attorneys for the defendant are expected to make a determined effort to controvert the effect of the state's testimony by placing on the stand medical men who will present a diagnosis of the Gingles girl's injuries and mental condition contrary to that of the state's experts.

The first witness today was Sigvard Sorenson, an employee of the Newberry library. He was called for the purpose of refuting Miss Gingles' statement that she read the papers in the library on Jan. 4 last. She stated on the stand that she read the advertisements of positions.

"We do not have newspapers for the use of the public," said Mr. Sorenson. "We get the papers quarterly and then they are handed up in big volumes. We do not get them daily."

On cross-examination by Mr. O'Donnell, representing the defendant, Mr. Sorenson stated that there were tables in the reference room where the public could read newspapers.

Heavy Rains Fall and Further Rise in River Is Expected.

Kansas City, Mo., July 12.—With the main line of the Missouri Pacific railroad between Kansas and St. Louis congested because of the great number of trains of other railroads detoured over it in an effort to reach Chicago, railroad traffic between Kansas City and Chicago today was practically at a standstill. The Atchafalpa, Topeka & Santa Fe road annulled all of its Chicago morning trains, and the Burlington and Rock Island officials were making no promises to passengers as to arrival time in Chicago. The two latter roads were detouring via St. Louis. Western trains were on schedule time.

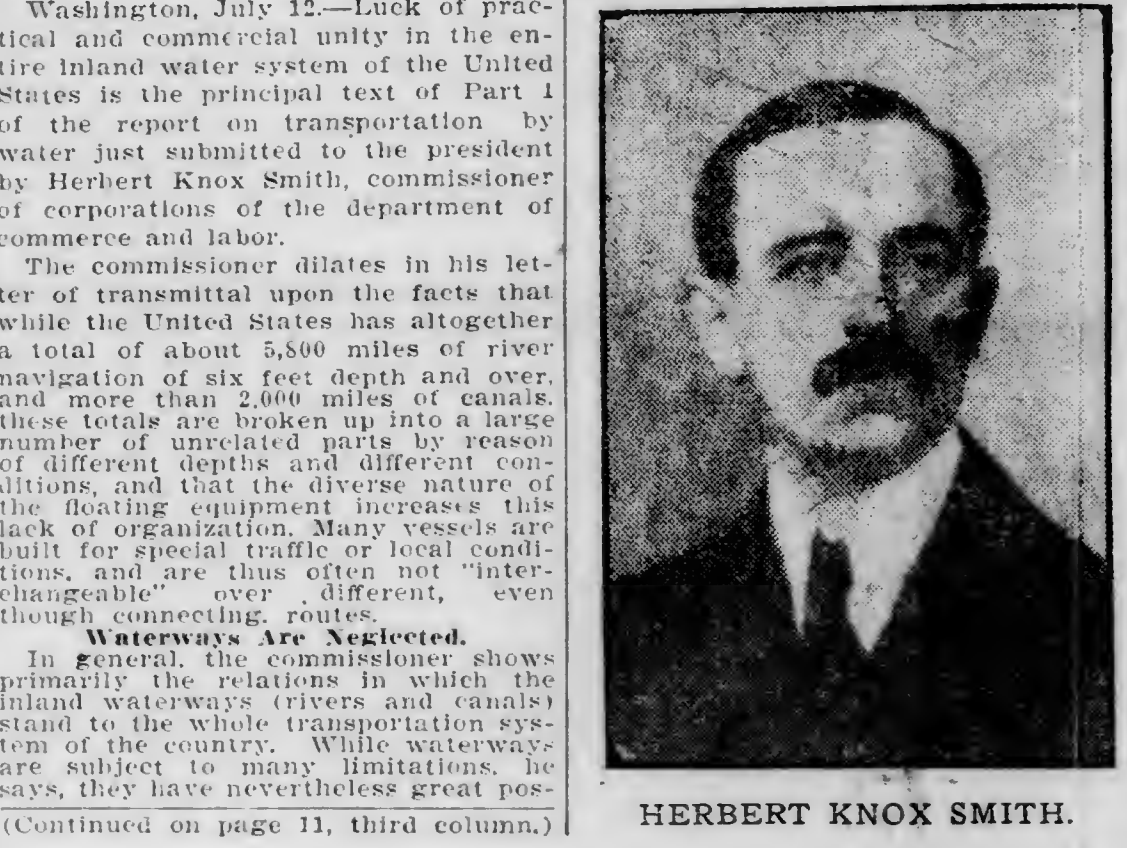

Heavy rains fell during the night between Manhattan and Clay Center, Kan., in the Kansas river watershed. These rains will have a tendency to cause slight rises along the river within the next thirty-six hours.

St. Louis River Flooded.

St. Louis, Mo., July 12.—With the Mississippi river gauge reading 31.9 feet today the Government weather bureau predicted 33.5 feet for tomorrow and 34 feet for Wednesday. The water backed into the buildings along the levee. Across the river on the Illinois side the lowlands were flooded.

It is 150 feet long, 13 feet wide, with 7 feet depth of hold. The bow and stern are wedge shaped to an angle of 60 degrees, but the sides are parallel and almost as straight as walls. The deck is but little wider than the boat's flat bottom. There are two ice boards to prevent drifting sideways. There are two masts. The tiller is back of the second or after cabin. The rudder wheels are uncovered. The Clermont will be used in the celebration of the Fulton anniversary to be held in New York in the fall.

Tell Judge They Smashed Windows Purely as Political Move.

London, July 12.—Fifteen suffragettes, who, in the course of a raid on the house of commons June 19, indulged in breaking windows with stones hidden in brown paper, went to prison today for a month, rather than pay the fines inflicted by Sir Albert de Rutzen, the Bow street magistrate.

Sir Albert commented severely upon the lamentable spectacle of respectable women in the dock on charges usually associated with juvenile hoodlums.

The suffragettes, most of whom made short speeches, asserted that their offense was purely political. The course of Premier Asquith in refusing to receive their petition, they said, had made militant action necessary, and if the women were in the wrong, Home Secretary Gladstone, War Secretary Haldane and John Burns, president of the local government board, who had incited them by taunting them with the statement that they were using only "pin-prick methods," ought to be beside them in the dock.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., July 12.—(Special to The Herald).—The steamers Isaac M. Scott of the Hanna line and the J. B. Cowle, belonging to H. S. Wilkinson of Cleveland, met in a head-on collision off Whitefish Point this morning about 5 o'clock. A heavy fog hung over the lake at the time. The Cowle sank immediately, taking with her eleven of her crew.

Thirteen of the crew were saved, a majority of whom are on the Scott, which is now warping into the dock here. The captain of the Cowle was picked up by an up-bound boat.

The Scott was on her maiden trip, and light. She has a gash across the water line in her starboard side about fifteen feet long. The two forward compartments are punctured.

Fifth Outbreak Follows the Decision in International Dispute.

Buenos Ayres, July 12.—The Argentine government is in direct communication with the government of Bolivia through Senor Fonseca, the Argentine minister at La Paz, who has presented to the Bolivian government a demand for an explanation of the attitude of the Bolivian minister here as well as for the recent attacks upon the Argentine legation at La Paz. Senor Fonseca has informed the Bolivian government that he will withdraw from La Paz if the present situation does not improve.

The Argentine minister of foreign affairs today received a dispatch from Senor Fonseca announcing the fifth hostile demonstration against Argentina in spite of the presence of Bolivian troops at the legation.

The outbreaks have occurred within the last few days as a result of Bolivian dissatisfaction over Argentina's decision in arbitrating a boundary dispute.

In the latest outbreak a body of men started to attack the legation buildings from the rear. The personnel of the legation asked for the protection of the soldiers. Troops were thereupon sent forward and prevented the continuance of the movement. The Argentine legation is now guarded by 800 soldiers.

Another dispatch from Senor Fonseca at Tupiza, Bolivia, announces hostile demonstrations at that place. The consulate was stoned, windows were broken and the flagstaff was knocked down. After this onslaught the crowd attacked the house of an Argentine citizen.

Wires Are Down and Definite News of Destruction Is Lacking.

Millbank, S. D., July 12.—Five fatalities are reported this morning as a result of a tornado, which swept over this territory Sunday afternoon, killing four men at Ortonville, Minn., injuring more than a score and causing property losses of more than $150,000.

John Desreux, a hackman of Big Stone Lake, Minn., was the latest victim. Desreux was driving near Big Stone Lake, when he was struck by a flying missile and instantly killed. A boy, who was on the seat with him, was blown 150 feet into the lake, but was uninjured.

Passenger train No. 1 of the St. Paul road going west pulled out of Big Stone, Minn., five minutes before the storm struck. Soon after the train was struck, Engineer Starr saw the danger and stopped his train to see which way the storm was working. Noting that it was going east he put on a full head of steam and made a very fast run to Millbank, just pulling in out of the path of the storm.

Little Definite News.

St. Paul, Minn., July 12.—Telephone messages received here late last night and this morning confirm rumors of a tornado having struck Ortonville, Minn., and Big Stone City, S. D. yesterday.

Valparaiso, Chile, July 12.—It is believed here that war between Peru and Bolivia is imminent because of the disorders at La Paz following the decision handed down by Argentina in the boundary dispute between the two countries. Chilean newspapers today say that Chile would remain neutral, but she is preparing to send warships for the protection of Chilean interests.

TALK OF EDUCATION AMONG CATHOLICS.

Boston, Mass., July 12.—Clergymen and laymen of the Roman Catholic church from all parts of the country were arriving in this city today to attend the annual convention of the Catholic Educational association, which preliminary meetings were scheduled for this afternoon and evening. The formal opening comes tomorrow and the sessions will continue until Thursday night. The president of the association is Right Rev. D. J. O'Connell, auxiliary bishop of San Francisco. The program provides for the discussion of many phases of the educational work of the Roman Catholic church.

Mrs. Louis Bellaire of 5503 Grand avenue is perhaps the only woman at the head of the Lakes of her age who has a great grandchild living. Mrs. Bellaire is only 62 years old and there are four generations of the family living.

The other three generations of the Bellaire family reside in Minneapolis at 624 Fifth street northeast. They are at present visiting at the Bellaire home in West Duluth. Mrs. E. Howard, shown in the above picture, is 34 years old. Mrs. J. A. Oshaw, 29 years old, a daughter of Mrs. Howard, is the mother of little Henry Oshaw, who recently passed his first birthday.

PICNIC PARTIES VERY NUMEROUS

Weather Does Not Interfere With West Duluthians' Pleasure.

Despite the threatening weather of yesterday, many West Duluthians enjoyed a trip up the river, and picnic parties were popular. The weather was delightfully cool and the day was well spent by the outing parties.

Twenty-five members of the Arvo club of West Duluth gave an outing party on the river. The young people

August, the 15-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Brackett of 7 North Sixty-sixth avenue west, was bitten by a horse late Saturday and sustained painful, though not serious, injuries about the head.

Young Brackett was attempting to drive the animal out to pasture at the time the entire turned on him and made a vicious snap at his head. The boy was stunned but did not fall. He was put in care of a physician at his home. Today he was reported as being better.

FOUGHT FIRE FOR SEVENTEEN HOURS

West Duluth Department Had Srenuous Time at Dock Fire.

Work will be resumed tomorrow at the Rainy Lake mill, which suffered a heavy loss in a big lumber yard fire Saturday. Only about 400,000 of the 1,800,000 feet of lumber was saved and this was piled upon the dock and was protected by the fire tug W. A. McGowan and the tug America.

Although the fire is still smoldering in places the mill company is playing a stream of water around the yard and there is no danger. Work started this morning on cleaning up the debris.

West Duluth firemen say that the huge was the hardest they have ever fought. For seventeen consecutive hours without any rest they fought fire. They are tired but still on the alert. This morning they were presented with a box of cigars for their splendid work by a number of the mill hands.

The firemen this morning had many complimentary remarks to make about the millhands for the help given them in keeping the blaze down and for the many other courtesies extended. Until the docks are rebuilt the lumber will be piled in the millyard.

BERRY PICKERS BEGIN WORK

Annual Crop of Strawberries and Raspberries Being Gathered.

Wild strawberries are now ripening on the hills back of West Duluth and the crop promises to be a good one. Enterprising girls and boys of West Duluth as well as many of the older people are beginning to bring in big loads of the fruit.

The berries although small are sweet and excellent for preserving purposes. Many of the poorer families of this section of the city derive much revenue from picking fruit of this kind and selling it in West Duluth and other parts of the city.

The district beyond the end of the car lines is the picking ground for many of the poorer workers. The raspberry season is also now on and many women and children are gathering this fruit.

TRAINING SHEDS ARE DESTROYED

Fire Breaks Out at the Old Driving Park Sunday Morning.

Fire of an unknown origin broke out yesterday morning at the fair grounds and considerable damage was done to the old training sheds, which have been there for a number of years. Firemen from headquarters station and as well as some of the West Duluth firemen were fighting the big fire at the Rainy Lake mill. The fire, but four men from the uptown department responded to the alarm.

The blaze was extinguished after two hours. The damage is estimated at $1,000.

STRICKEN IN BARBER'S CHAIR

West Duluth Man Has Sudden Attack of Heart Failure.

Stricken with heart failure this morning as he was being shaved in the barber shop of R. B. Newsome on south Central avenue at West Duluth, Ed Hanson of West Duluth lies in a critical condition at the Duluth hospital.

Hanson came into the barber shop about 11 o'clock and asked for a shave. Before the barber had finished he complained of illness. He said that he had been feeling well before this and could not explain what was the matter.

At the Duluth hospital, it is said that the condition of Hanson is improving. He is a single man and is 32 years old.

Proctor Man Dies.

John Hemmick, 46 years old, died late last evening at his home in Duluth. Death was due to pulmonary tuberculosis and he had been sick for about a year.

Six motormen of the Duluth Street Railway company, who reside in West Duluth and the West end, and who operate cars on the West Duluth lines, will leave the latter part of this month for Fargo, N. D., for service on the Fargo car-lines during the week of the North Dakota state fair.

James Hyak, of the West end, and Gust Ahlgren of West Duluth will be among those making the trip. This is the second time motormen from the Duluth company have been called upon to operate cars at the Fargo fair. They will leave Duluth on July 25.

EXCITING GAME.

In an interesting game of baseball featured by many spectacular plays and near-scenes, the Rainy Lake Lumber company baseball team defeated an aggregation from the Aiger-Smith mill yesterday, winning on the fifty-second avenue west grounds, in a six-teen-inning game. The score was 2 to 1.

McClellan tossed the pills for the Rainy Lake bunch and struck out seven men. The game was watched by an interested crowd of fans.

Visit Brother.

After being separated from his brother for eleven years, Joseph Patten of Springfield, Mass., has arrived in West Duluth to his guest. The brother is Joseph Patten of 318 North Fifty-third avenue west. Mr. Patten is well known to many West Duluthians, as he has been in Duluth once before.

Match Company Loses.

The Union Match company baseball team went down to defeat yesterday in a game played on the Fifty-second avenue west grounds with the Union Clothing company team. The score was 2 to 1. Next Sunday the U. M. C. crowd will play the Duluth Heights team on the Fifty-second avenue west grounds.

Walter Thexton Here.

MARINE LAUNCHES WILL BE EXAMINED Inspector Fuller Is After All Minnesota Pleasure Boat Owners.

Every owner of a boat, large or small, will be compelled to observe all the regulations and rules laid down by the government. Not that the inspectors have been lax in their duty up to this time, but more inspectors have been added to the staff and the harbor will be watched closer than ever for those who violate the rules in any way.

General Supervisor and Inspector Ralph Fuller of the treasury department, Washington, is in St. Paul just now looking over the boats and their equipment. It is expected that he will arrive in Duluth within the course of a few days to make a personal examination of the conditions here.

NON-UNION MAN BADLY BEATEN Union Sailors Make Him the Brunt of a Battle Royal.

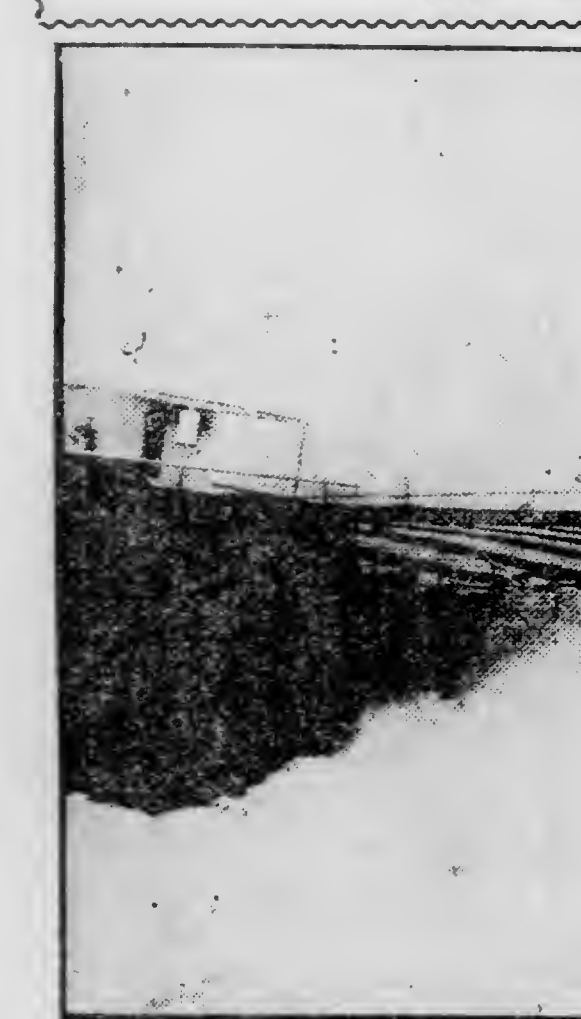

North Tonawanda, N. Y., July 12.—Four union seamen, attacked John Sabie of Milwaukee, a non-union sailor, and beat him until he looked as though he had been in a combat with several wildcats. The seamen, who were on the tugboat "Sable," were trying to find his way to the steamer, when he came ashore. ## WILD CARGOES GETTING SCARCE

Will Be But Little Improvement During the Next Month.

Wild cargoes have had considerable trouble getting cargoes at both ends of the route during the past few days. The supply of wild cargoes is far in excess of the demand and many of the independent vessels have been forced to go up light.

DULUTH PEOPLE WITNESS LAUNCHING OF THE NEW STEAMER TOMLINSON

THE TOMLINSON SLIDING INTO THE WATER AT LORAIN, SATURDAY.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 10.—Before the largest crowd that ever witnessed a launching at Lorain, the new steamship G. A. Tomlinson took the slide at noon Saturday.

It is estimated that fully 5,000 persons were present to witness the launching. The weather conditions were ideal and long before the appointed hour every point of vantage in the yard of the American Shipbuilding company was occupied by anxious watchers.

Mrs. G. A. Tomlinson of Duluth, in honor of whose husband the vessel was named, acted as sponsor for the big boat. In the launching party were William Livingston, Thomas F. Cole, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Tomlinson, Charles A. Marshall and Dr. W. H. Salter of Duluth.

Immediately after the launching, the members of the owners' party returned to Cleveland on a special car over the Lake Shore Electric railway and partook of a luncheon which was served at the Clifton club.

The steamer Tomlinson is being built for J. J. H. Brown of Buffalo and her master will be Capt. George Stevenson of Buffalo, now in charge of the steamer William Truesdale.

The new vessel will have a capacity of 10,000 tons. The Tomlinson will be placed in commission next month.

Captain Dawson Writes Enthusiastically of Work at Mine.

Martin Rosenbahl has received a letter from Capt. W. J. Dawson, a director of the company, which is enthusiastic over the showings that are being made at the Butte-Alex Scott property.

"Scott is looking fine," writes the captain. "We cut a big body of ore on the 1,000-foot level and it looks good. We have crossed eighteen feet and haven't got the hanging wall yet. The ore still goes about 5 per cent on an average. I think we will have over 5 per cent in the twenty feet of pay ore on this ledge. Stone (the superintendent) says this will give us 25,000 to 30,000 tons more ore. The new ore, the new compressor and the new boiler are in readiness and we can ship easily 200 to 300 tons a day on the start."

SCHELL'S NEW BOAT WINS
AT WHITE BEAR LAKE

RICHARD SCHELL IN HIS SPEEDY MOTOR BOAT.

They say that a prophet is not without honor, save in his own country. The case does not exactly fit Richard Schell, however, as he was located by the way, when he stated that he was going to have a new motor boat that would be the speediest craft ever floated on the White Bear Lake. He was Saturday at White Bear Lake with his new boat, beating the speediest boats of the St. Paul crew, and some of the doubters are convinced. The Schell, run by her owner, crossed the line first, ahead of the Junior, Nixie and Two Sam. All four of the boats finished close together, the new Schell

Cars Leave Detroit in Big Auto Endurance Contest.

Will Pass Through Minneapolis on Way to Kansas City.

Detroit, Mich., July 12.—Promptly on the stroke of 10 o'clock this morning Mayor Brodomeyer fired a gun which started the first of thirty contestants in the sixth annual reliability run of the American Automobile association, the long tour to Kansas City by way of Chicago, Minneapolis and Denver. For half an hour longer the gun spoke at one-minute intervals, until the last of the machines was sent splashing out Michigan avenue toward Kalamazoo, Mich., where they will spend the night in the "control" of the trip. Not an accident marred the start of the annual run, which is popularly known as the Glidden tour, taking the name from the trophy for which the touring cars contest. Every car was in perfect condition, and every engine worked perfectly as the machines darted across the imaginary line, through their way through the great crowd that lined Chalmers square and pulled out Michigan avenue, cheered by thousands of people who lined the street clear to the city limits. Following are the contestants for the three trophies:

Party Returns After Three-Day Outing.

The nine boys' department Y. M. C. A. boys who Saturday went on a hiking party to Pike Lake arrived at the club-rooms shortly after noon today. They report an excellent time. While at the lake they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan. They loaded on the lake, tramped through the woods, went swimming every few minutes, tried to milk the cows, and did everything that suggests itself to the mind of a boy. They say they did not mind the hike in the least, and those who made the trip are looking anxiously forward to the next one, which will probably take them to Island Lake on the Cloquet river.

LIGHT WORK FOR JURORS

Few Civil Cases Will Be Tried at July Term of Court.

Plaintiff Secures Dismissal of Madden Case After Jury Is Drawn.

The July term of district court, the creation of a legislative mistake, is the expected joke. But one civil case for trial by jury remains on the call for the first part of this week, and no more than two or three cases will be tried altogether. The criminal calendar of six cases will come on for trial, but as far as civil actions are concerned the work of the jury will be very light.

The attorneys for John L. Madden in his suit against the Duluth & Iron Range Railway company, and Paul Fingertall suddenly decided this morning that they didn't care to try the case at this term of court. After the jury had been drawn and everything was ready for trial, the attorneys for the plaintiff moved for a dismissal and the motion was granted. The case will be brought to trial at the next term of court.

This morning was the second occasion on which the Madden case has been before the court. At the March term of court, it was brought to trial and court, attorneys, jury and witnesses worked on it for two or three days. In an unexpected moment one of the jurymen asked the roadmaster of the railroad company if he knew to be vacant. The company's attorneys brought the matter to the attention of the court and the case was dismissed.

Madden sued for $35,000 for injuries he claims to have sustained while employed as the fireman on the Duluth & Iron Range railway. The engine on Nov. 19, 1907, while the engine on which Madden was working was running between Hibbard and Allen Junction, running backwards and pulling a train of cars, he was thrown from the engine by a violent jolt, he fell, causing a fracture of the spine, which has never set and which will keep him on crutches, a helpless cripple, for the remainder of his life.

He charged that Fingertall, the engineer, who is now in the city, was negligent in running the engine backwards at from thirty-five to forty miles an hour, which is faster than the company's regulations allow an engine to run. He also charged that the track was defective and the weatherboard was improperly covered. It was found that the engine was running at a speed of 35 miles an hour, and that the track was defective. The weatherboard was found to be improperly covered. The jury found in favor of the plaintiff.

BIG CROPS LOOKED FOR

North Dakota Conditions Are Reported Excellent All Over State.

Winter and Spring Wheat and Other Grains Are in Good Shape.

Fargo, N. D., July 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Almost ideal crop conditions are reported from every corner of the state.

Sunday rain over many counties tended to relieve the situation following several days of hot growing weather. Barring some great calamity a great yield, though not necessarily a bumper crop, is assured.

With the exception of a rather thin stand in parts of the state where the wheat did not stool, the conditions are well-nigh perfect. The grain is exceptionally even and heading out nicely. Not only is the spring wheat in most satisfactory shape, but winter wheat, winter rye, barley, oats and corn all look fine. Everything is a rich, dark green healthy color and all the plants are vigorous and strong. Hot winds and hail are to be reckoned with still, but unless the moisture is unusual from here on there seems little to fear from rust. None has been reported in this state.

terday afternoon, causing the deaths of four people and damage estimated now at about $100,000. Nineteen others were injured, and one child is missing, it is said. Efforts to get definite word about the missing child have been fruitless, as all wires are down between the stricken places and the neighboring towns. It is thought that nothing definite can be learned until the relief parties which were sent to the aid of sufferers have returned.

Surgeons, nurses and parties with food and clothing have been sent from places within a radius of fifty miles of Ortonville, but the transportation, to and from the place is said to be hampered by the havoc wrought by the storm.

Big Stone City Hit First.
One of the deaths was reported from Big Stone City, S. D., near which place the tornado seems to have originated. It crossed the state line into Minnesota, and struck Ortonville, where it is reported to have done great damage, but beyond that point there is no news of its course.

At Big Stone City a huge black cloud swept suddenly down from the north-west and killed John De Graft and destroyed two houses in the city. The first thing the tornado encountered in Minnesota was the Milwaukee depot at Ortonville. It ripped and twisted a train of six freight cars containing twenty-one Italian laborers, which was standing in the yards. Three of these were killed outright and nineteen were injured. The roundhouse and coal sheds were demolished.

Girl Is Missing.
The residence of W. P. Chamberlain, which was in the path of the storm, was destroyed and Mrs. Chamberlain and a farm hand were injured.

It is believed that a little girl, who is missing, has been pinned under one of the wrecked buildings.

So fierce and powerful was the storm that a 2 by 4 board hit a tree, completely piercing it. Dogs were killed and blown several hundred feet.

Tornado in Illinois.
St. Louis, July 12.—Special dispatches from Hann, Ill., and Xenia, Ill., say that tornadoes struck those towns late yesterday morning. In Hann, Mo., the property damage was considerable. Grain was leveled by both storms.

SPAIN MAY APPLY
FORCE IN AFRICA

Murder of Four Men By the Natives Gives Ground for Such Action.

Madrid, July 12.—An official communication issued today sets forth that the Spanish government considers the killing last week of four Spanish workmen by natives at Mellina, Morocco, to be purely a local incident that in no way reflects Spain's relations with North Africa, the sultan of Morocco. Nevertheless there is a disposition in Madrid to regard the affair as a parallel case to the French assassinations at Casa Blanca and as forcing as well as authorizing Spain to protect Spanish interests and Spanish territory.

Although the negotiations with the Moroccan commission in Madrid continue on the subject of the frontier and the other questions which Senor Merry del Val, the Spanish minister to Morocco, has been unable to settle, it is pointed out that the curious position of the sultan himself, and the fact that rebellion and anarchy are rampant among the tribes, force Spain to adopt firm precautionary measures. A total of 5,000 infantrymen and cavalrymen have embarked at Barcelona for Mellina.

PAYING THE BILL.
The fight started in the legislature last winter by the police of Duluth and the Twin Cities, in an attempt to bring about the passage of a law which would allow policemen and firemen to ride free cars on the street cars.

It was agreed that the expense of the organized effort was to be divided up among the men of the three towns. Chief Corstien of Minneapolis figured up the expenses of the campaign the other day, and found that 23 cents per man would just cover the bill. It was expected that another attempt will be made to get the law passed when the legislature next convenes.

ARMISTICE IN COLOMBIAN WAR

Acting President and Prospective Candidate Hold Peace Conference.

Washington, July 12.—An armistice has been declared in the Colombian revolution pending a conference between George Holguin, the acting president, and Gonzales Valencia, whom the opposition element is urging for the office. This information reached the state department today.

For the purpose of protecting American interests and also to keep in close touch with the situation, the gunboat Tacama is en route to Barranquilla, where the trouble started.

An executive decree has been issued by Acting President Holguin closing to trade the ports of Barranquilla and Soledad. The city of Santa Marta is threatened by the revolutionists.

Says Rebels Surrendered.
New York, July 12.—Senator Sarrin, the consul general of Colombia in New York, received a dispatch from Buenos Aires, today saying that the revolutionists in Barranquilla, on the Atlantic coast, had surrendered to the local authorities and that the previous administration of the city had been re-established. The message said also that peace prevailed through the republic.

John S. Smith, against whom sensational charges of misconduct were made by his wife, Ella C. Smith, in her suit for separate maintenance, must pay his wife $20 a month for her support and in addition must pay $125 to her attorneys, $50 on Aug. 6 and $75 on Oct. 6. Judge Can't's decision was handed down this morning.

The case attracted considerable attention when it was filed and again when it was heard before the court. Mrs. Smith, who lives in Eau Claire, Wis., brought suit against her husband, William O'Brien, the Duluth lumberman, and Cora Warren, the latter two being involved through the contention that they were in possession of property owned by Mr. Smith and transferred by him to avoid satisfying a judgment, should one be secured against him.

The latter contention is found not proven by Judge Can't and the action, as far as Mr. O'Brien and the Warren woman are concerned, is dismissed. In her complaint, Mrs. Smith charged her husband with immoral practices for a period covering many years. She said he lived with a woman in Duluth and kept rooms in Eau Claire for immoral purposes. She said he associated with immoral people, spending his money freely, and refused to contribute to her support. She claimed that he had made large sums of money in lumber deals, but that she had to work to secure enough money for her support.

Delivers Five Addresses During the Day on Prohibition.

In his sermon at the First Methodist Episcopal church last evening the pastor, Rev. S. S. Rice, thought of the question, "Is Life Worth Living?" which was the topic of the address.

Rev. Mr. Rice said in part:

"The question, 'Is life worth living' has been tossed about the world much today in a half-mocking manner by unspiritual men. It has been made a question of expediency, of convenience. The temper in which it has been asked, and the very fact that it has been asked, so generally, is a sure sign that it reveals painful dissatisfaction with the present order of things. The discontent of the intellect is driving the world to the verge of a rationality. The discontent of the hearts utters itself in a cynicism. The discontent of the soul forces itself into safety. The discontent of the spirit is the beginning of a new optimism and despair. And if this life is not worth living, what is the world contented. If it were all, human dignity would be the only rational thing in the universe.

There may, of course, be some satisfaction in the life of the vulgar and vulgar, but to a spiritual man the life of the vulgar is not worth living, it is a sick, a blunder, a waste of time. The action in and out

Northern Pacific Has Wreck.
Livingston, Mont., July 12.
A passenger train of the Northern Pacific passenger line was wrecked at Livingston, Mont., today. The low stone Park branch was wrecked three miles south of that city. The train was wrecked at a crossing. Two passengers were injured. Two firemen and the special car of S. B. Torrey, superintendent of the line, were on the Livingston road, and, mainly on the rails.

question. In the morning, he gave the invocation at the church service at West Duluth and at noon he spoke to the Sunday school children at the Duluth Y. M. C. A. In the afternoon, he gave the invocation at the west and third street churches. Mr. Calderwood addressed the congregation at the Swedish Lutheran church at a picnic near Haverhill at 2 o'clock, the meeting being held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Peterson. At a talk at the Swedish Evangelical Lutheran church, Sixth avenue and Second street, he urged the temperance cause must be carried on by the church. He said that those whose hearts are in the cause will have no need of any aid or force for results, was the declaration. The cause of temperance, he said, is an issue must be clearly defined in a political campaign. Mr. Calderwood also spoke for national prohibition and urged the election of men to the legislature who are in favor of it. "Duluth is represented in the legislature by men, Chester A. Congdon and George A. Peterson, who are in favor of the temperance movement are high. But the principles of the prohibition movement are against prohibition. The best way to get rid of it is to elect to office, who not elect men who are in favor of prohibition. Men whose lands are not in the city may fight against the greater city. The city is the only one that can do it."

TWO SMALL FIRES.

Fire which broke out Saturday evening in the slah yard of the Scott-Granger Lumber company, Twenty-ninth avenue, and escaped, caused a heavy loss of $200 damage before the blaze could be extinguished.

Firemen from headquarters stationed at the time of the outbreak, were fighting the big fire at the Kaituma Lake Lumber company's yard at Waukegan.

The origin of the blaze is unknown at this time, but it is believed to have left a bonfire burning near the lake.

About an hour before there was a fire seen at the lumber yards of the Scott-Granger company, Twenty-ninth avenue. Before any damage occurred the fire was extinguished.

WILL WIDEN TRACKS.

Large Cars Will Be Run on West Third Street Line.

Tracks on the West Third street line will be widened so as to allow operation of double-track cars. The present line to have ten, twelve and thirty-ninth avenues west, tracks are too close together to allow operation of double-track cars. Work on the improvement will get tomorrow morning. About 100 men will be set to work putting the tracks apart. The distance from the center of one track to the center of the next will be 10 feet. The work it is expected, will take about six weeks. As soon as it is completed, cars can be run on the West Third street lines, with the exception of the Fifty-seventh avenue line. The Fifty-seventh avenue line will be retained. Work on the Fifty-seventh avenue line will be west and first street. The Germania is spending a few days in the West and the guests are expected to be here in the near future.

The Ladies Aid Society of the First Lutheran church will meet in Lincoln park Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The weather is hoped to be fine, the meeting will be held in the church.

Rev. J. J. Daniels, of 2710 WWest Second street will entertain the members of the Lutheran church at his home tomorrow evening.

Rev. J. J. Daniels, with Mrs. Daniel, and family, will leave for Minneapolis tomorrow.

Ouster Proceedings Against Three Emmons County Officials.

Linton, N. D., July 12.—(Special The Herald.)—The long promised suits against the members of the board of county commissioners have been started. The actions run against Commissioners Volk, Sherwood and Kurtz, all of whom are charged with being brought in accordance with the findings of the recent grand jury in Emmons county.

The action of the grand jury came as a result of an investigation into the letting of a bridge contract, in which it is charged that the commissioners gave the work to a Minneapolis bridge company without open auction. The suits to oust from office, charging malfeasance, came before Judge Winchester of the district court, at the same term.

MISSING NORTH DAKOTA SECURITIES FOUND

Minneapolis, N. D., July 12.—The missing penitentiary bonds were found. State Treasurer Bleckford, in an out-of-town office. The bonds are some of an issue of $24,000, of which $10,000 were called to attention at the time of the fire.

There are $24,000 of the issue of $24,000, of which $10,000 were called to attention at the time of the fire.

There is a perfectly negotiable form of the bonds, and the state will be able to raise the money which was lost.

The bonds were sold, but a serious fraud could have been perpetrated.

MISSISSIPPI STILL RISING

River Is Over Flood Stage at St. Louis and Crops Are Damaged.

Situation at Kansas City Is Improved and Outlook Is Hopeful.

St. Louis, Mo., July 13.—The Mississippi river continues to rise and today was 3.4 feet above flood stage. Water has entered many buildings on the levee. The greatest damage has been to farm crops along the Missouri river between Jefferson City and St. Charles. Thousands of acres have been flooded. Wheat ready for threshing has been destroyed and corn fields wiped out.

The railroad situation is little improved. Only the Missouri Pacific and Rock Island lines are open between Kansas City and here. Other roads are using the Missouri Pacific tracks.

Situation More Hopeful.
Kansas City, Mo., July 13.—Flood conditions in this vicinity showed much improvement today. The Kansas and Missouri rivers had both been stationary since last night. The afternoon train service began to show improvement today. The afternoon, Topeka & Santa Fe railway opened its main line to Chicago this morning, sending out six trains that had been held here.

The Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway which had annulled its night train to Chicago over its own line, regular service on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul will probably be resumed tonight.

Train service south and southwest is still demoralized.

Until depot officials today estimated that within the last six days there have been fully 60,000 travelers held in Kansas City. Many were women traveling without funds to buy food and lodging. Hundreds slept on the depot benches.

BRYAN WRITES TAFT LETTER

Urges President to Ask Amendment on Election of Senators.

Lincoln, Neb., July 13.—William J. Bryan today addressed a letter to President Taft asking the president to allow the people to vote on popular election of senators. Mr. Bryan says: "President Taft: Now that the states are going to vote on the ratification of the amendment specifically authorizing an income tax, why not give them a chance to vote on an amendment providing for the election of United States senators by popular vote? In your speech of acceptance you said that you were personally in favor of a change in the Constitution. Would this not be an opportune time to present the subject to Congress? The constitutional amendment, one authorizing an income tax, one providing for the popular election of senators, would make our administration memorable and I pledge you whatever assistance I can render in securing the ratification of these amendments. With great respect I am, yours truly, 'WILLIAM J. BRYAN'."

PLAGUE KILLS 174 IN AMOY IN TWO WEEKS.

Amoy, China, July 13.—It is officially reported today that 174 deaths from the bubonic plague and 26 deaths from cholera occurred here during the two weeks ended last Monday.

ORDERS COURT-MARTIAL OF THREE OFFICIALS.

Constantinople, July 13.—An imperial order last night opened bids for laying out 20,000 yards of pavement.

TOWN FOOD FOR FLAMES

Carman Is on Fire and the Water Supply Is Crippled.

Canadian City, Sixty Miles From Winnipeg, Has Heavy Blow.

Winnipeg, Man., July 13.—A large section of the town of Carman, sixty miles southwest of here, is threatened with destruction. The broken out at 2 o'clock this morning and is still burning.

The town's water supply is crippled, repairs being in progress. The buildings already burned are the Honeywell block, containing several stores and offices; the Garnerivery stable, the Squires hotel, the Methodist parsonage and a number of small premises.

APPEALS TO THE STATES

Government Would Get Co-Operation in Placing Immigrants.

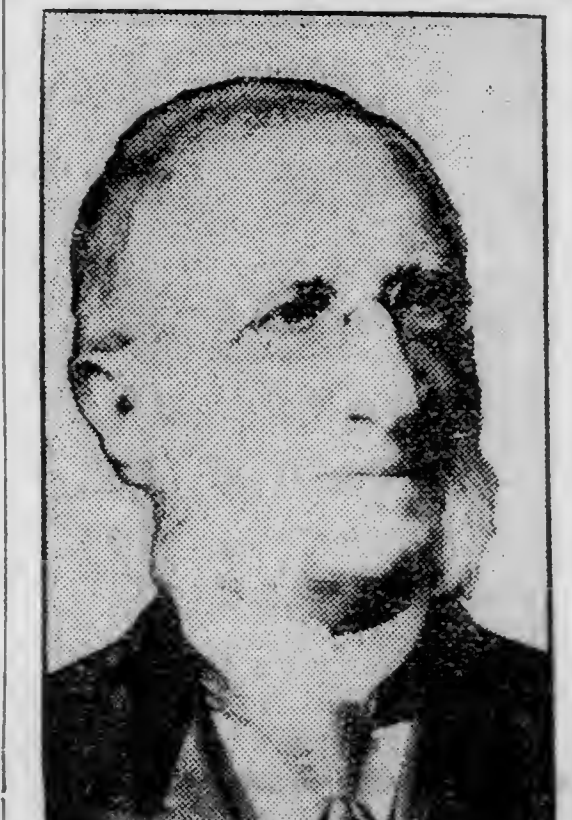

Governors Are Asked to Send Data and Agents to Help the Work.

Washington, July 13.—Co-operation between the governors of the various states and territories and the division of information of the department of commerce and labor, to promote a more beneficial distribution of aliens in the congested centers of the country, is sought in a communication which yesterday was sent out to the chief executives of states by T. V. Powderly, chief of the division of information.

This step has been taken in view of a character that will make good, peaceful, industrious citizens. The letters were written by way of suggestion to invite an exchange of opinions and

ONE OF THE MEN WHO FOUNDED THE SUGAR TRUST

J. C. HAVEMEYER.

J. C. Havemeyer is one of the parents of the sugar trust which is now under indictment for frauds against the government. But he has not been actively engaged in the management of the trust for some time. He is not among those whose liberty is endangered by the present prosecution.

Mr. Havemeyer was born in New York in 1832. He began as a clerk in a sugar refinery and afterward became a partner in Havemeyer Bros. & Co., which was the nucleus of the sugar trust. As a writer on moral and religious topics, Mr. Havemeyer must have been of interest in the prosecution of his associates for stealing from the government.

DEATH BLOW TO SCHOOL

Plan to Establish County Agricultural Institution Not Legal.

Attorney Tells Board Question Was Not Carried at Election.

The plans for establishing an agricultural school in St. Louis county have been given a death blow by an opinion submitted to the board of county commissioners by Attorney William J. Stevenson. Mr. Stevenson declares that in his opinion the board has no authority for establishing the school, the question not having carried at the election last fall when it was submitted to the voters. He also doubts the constitutionality of the act under which the proceedings were taken. Mr. Stevenson says the county school board, appointed by the county board to make a tax levy for the agricultural school, is not a legalized body. The question of establishing an agricultural school in the county was submitted to the voters at the fall election. The total vote was 19,294 and there were 8,530 votes in favor of 2,711 against. The canvassing board declared the question carried inasmuch as it received a majority of the votes cast on it, but Mr. Stevenson holds that it should receive a majority of all the votes cast. As it fell short of that number, he holds it was defeated.

In regard to the constitutionality of the act, Mr. Stevenson says that the county school is contrary to the general plan of education in the state and he can find no sanction for it in the constitution. He says the school would receive no aid in the distribution of school funds by the state. The act of 1907 providing for such schools provides that the question may be submitted to the voters of the county at a regular or special election. He says the constitution makes no provision for the holding of a special election by a county.

DIRECTORY OF AMUSEMENTS

WHERE TO GO TONIGHT.

LYCEUM—Jay Quigley Players in "Camille." (See notices below.)
BIJOU—New vaudeville bill. (See notice below.)

"CAMILLE."

Jay Quigley Players Are Presenting Old Favorite This Week.

Unhappy heroines have had prominent places on the stage for years, although they have been shown in the background recently through the public's demand for Western plays, for political plays and light comedies. Jay Quigley players have been wanting to get a glimpse of her now and then, and the Quigley players, in selecting this sort of a bill for the week, at the Lyceum, could not have chosen a sadder more than "Camille."

The first performance of the present production of this old favorite, was given at the Lyceum theater last evening and its disclosure showed Miss Marie Nelson, the leading lady of the company, in a role that requires more of her than any she has attempted since coming to town. And let it be said that her "Camille" went straight to the hearts of the assemblage.

Much of the success of "Camille" depends on the actress who portrays the character from which the piece gets its name. It was customary in that period when "Camille" and her ilk were quite the rage, to see actresses of national, eye international reputation cry out their love for Mr. A. The role is a first on the stage and on the other hand, it is one that requires consummate skill in the portrayal.

It would be unfair to Miss Marie Nelson to compare her interpretation of the role with those of the famous ladies who have preceded her, but she need not blush for her work as it shows hard study, concentration and a most commendable earnestness.

While it may be a far cry from art of the "Camille" variety to talking, it may be said right here that the actress which Miss Nelson wears are very stunning.

Long, languid Rodney Ransom is the Armand Duval of the present production. Since his good work last week in "Brown of Harvard," interest in this young man has increased considerably and he bids fair to become popular.

He shows the interest in his work that he has during the past two weeks, no fault can be found with him.

Jay Quigley is happily cast as the father with the narrow path ideas about the happiness of the members of his family, and C. M. Griffin portrays satisfactorily in the inconsequential role of Gustave.

Many people were interested in the work of Miss Loretta Lamb, who appeared last evening in the role of Nichette. She is a Duluth girl and made her first appearance in the Quigley company last evening.

Maude Cleveland is Madam Prudence and Agnes Rial, Nanette. The production is excellent as well as artistically, is especially for a summer stock company.

"PAIS."

James J. Corbett's Old Play Being Presented at the Bijou.

Edwin Carew, who is at the Bijou this week with his company, has taken James J. Corbett's old vehicle, "Pais," which he downed and made an excellent vaudeville sketch of it. "Pais" was a seen at the old Metropolitan theater in Duluth, several years ago, with Corbett and his company presenting it, and it made a tremendous hit at that time, the theater being packed to the doors at every performance. The exciting climax is a fight, in which mirrors, lamps, and crockery are smashed. It is used to make the audience breatheless, or give and chinaware. The fight scene has been retained, and it must keep the actors busy buying new furniture for their sketches. There is plenty of good comedy in the act, and it is well presented by the following company:

Jack Wayne, a Wall street broker.
George Redmond, Jack's pal.
Edwin Carew, a neighbor.
Higgins, Mr. Wayne's stable boy.
Miss Denison, a neighbor.

The Four Stagnoles, two men and two women, who are billed as "Australia's Greatest Gymnasts," have a snappy acrobatic act, which is making a bit this week. They have some new turns, which keep the audiences in an almost constant state of laughter.

Bert Renshaw, the Musical Monologist, tells some new stories, and plays on several different musical instruments. His musical numbers are very good, and the act is an entertaining one.

McFarland and Murray have one of the old style "sidewalk conversation" acts, but they get away with it, thanks to their good dancing, and the fact that they have some new jokes.

Florence Mahr has an excellent novelty change act, introducing some singing and acrobatic dancing. Harry Webb sings "Goodbye Moonlight." The moving pictures complete a very entertaining bill.

ARRESTED IN CHICAGO.
Chicago, July 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—Richard Baldwin, ex-postmaster at Bessemer, Mich., who has been sought after for three years on a charge of embezzlement, was arrested here. He is alleged to have stolen $200.

He will be taken to Michigan as soon as extradition papers are perfected.

EDITORS HAVE FINE TIME.
Reach the Soo Three Hours Late Because of Fog.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., July 13.—The steamer Hamonic, with the Minnesota editorial excursion party on board, reached here at 11 a. m. yesterday, three hours late, because of fog, which compelled the boat to anchor in the lake and sound till daylight came and the fog broke.

Only a short stop was made in the locks here in order to make Sarnia on time today. A large part of Sunday was spent in Port Arthur and Port William harbor and many went ashore. Port Arthur was left at 5 p. m., five before dark the Hamonic was in the open lake and beyond sight of land.

The editors had several gatherings of their own in the evening, closing with a concert by a colored sextet made up of Hamonic waiters.

DARTMOUTH BOYS GO FREE IN ASSAULT CASE.
Colorado Springs, Colo., July 13.—John A. Clarke and George Shipley, two Dartmouth graduates, charged with assault with intent to kill Howard H. Robinson, manager of the Summit house, on top of Pike's Peak, were discharged, after a preliminary hearing, yesterday afternoon. The men became engaged in an altercation with Robinson, which resulted in his being knocked unconscious and dangerously injured. The court held that they acted in self-defense.

CALDERWOOD AT THE BETHEL
Temperance Lecturer Delivers Fourth Address in His Series.

At the Lake avenue Bethel last evening W. G. Calderwood closed his fourth day of campaign in Duluth with a forceful talk on the application to politics of the Scripture principle that he who is faithful in the use of few talents is given more.

He said the vast majority of people agree that the saloon is an evil thing and leaving out the heat and thirst mental and moral fiber represented by the women, taking merely the voters, including the many who sell their votes for a song, it is still true that 75 per cent of the voters believe that the saloon should go.

"Why then does it flourish?" he said, "local elections being no license, but officials who are not in sympathy with the law do not enforce, and the state and Federal governments still allow the manufacture and importation into prohibition territory. Reaction comes and men who believe in prohibition will not support local attempts until they are convinced that it will be backed by the state law and officials."

"Parties rightly require their successful candidates to be faithful to the party policy. Those who betray the trust are rightly cast out. The faithful are advanced in power and power, L. H. Johnson introduced a county option bill in 1901. In the next two sessions of the legislature he worked against county option. His party recognizing his loyalty to the license policy elected him speaker of the house in 1906, when he appointed a temperance committee, twelve out of fifteen of which were against temperance legislation. Mr. Johnson is now suggested as a candidate for congress. Lieutenant Governor Eberhart, although personally a temperance man, after making the mistake of accepting the nomination of a party that believed in license was faithful to that policy and appointed a committee eight to one in favor of the brewers. He is being out forward for the next governor."

"The principle works both ways. Governor Harris of Ohio signed the county option bill and in the following election, although Taft received a very large majority, Harris was cast out politically by a defeat of 90,000 Governor Hanley of Indiana was likewise set fairly on fire."

"The legislative movement for prohibition in Minnesota has gained more than any other organization without an exception—4,900 in 1902, 53,000 in 1903."

Mr. Calderwood will speak tonight in Victor hall, 5223 Grand avenue, West Duluth.

DEAF WOMAN KILLED: DID NOT HEAR WHISTLE.

New Richmond, Wis., July 13.—A local train on the Omaha road ran down and killed Miss Ella Brown, one mile north of Clayton. The young woman was walking on the tracks ahead of the train. The engine crew blew the whistle and rang the bell, but they were not heard by the victim who was deaf. She was 25 years old and a resident of Clayton.

TWO MORE ARE FINED

The Customs Collector Continues to Arrest Launch Owners.

Fines of $400 Are Collected for Violations of Law.

The owners of two gasoline launches, the "Gee Whizz" and the "Bessie M." were today fined $200 each by L. M. Wilkison, United States collector of customs for the port of Duluth, for violating the act of Feb. 8, 1895, relative to the equipment and operation of boats.

The charge against the "Gee Whizz" was running after sunset without displaying the lights prescribed by law. The "Bessie M." was running during the day without the proper equipment, as provided by law. She had no lights on board, and was short a bell. These fines are the result of trips made about the river and harbor by the government launch.

Mr. Wilkison asserts positively that the rules and regulations governing the equipment of boats in the local harbor, and on the river, must be obeyed. He says it is a fact that there are many launch owners who make no attempt to properly equip their boats with lights, a whistle and bell, where it is very important that they should be thus equipped. He indicated that these fines would not by any means deter the search for violators of the law, and motor boat owners may expect to meet the customs launch at any hour of the day or night from now on.

"It will be a big money saver for these individuals if they will take the hint now, and expend enough cash to properly equip their boats," said Mr. Wilkison this afternoon. "The cash outlay is small, and no one can conscientiously say that the law requiring lights, a bell and whistle, but more particularly lights, is an unjust one."

HIS PROPERTY IS ATTACHED

Trouble Is Brewing for Orlando E. Kenyon at Spokane.

Word reached Duluth today that Orlando E. Kenyon, the "evangelist" who attempted to hire the Lyceum theater while here last winter to give his rather original ideas of modern Christianity, has "rotten in bed" at Spokane, Wash.

Thomas Golden of that city has issued a writ of attachment against the real estate holdings of the religious fanatic, claiming that he has absconded, leaving various creditors, and that his whereabouts at the present time are unknown to his creditors.

While here, Mr. Kenyon attracted a good deal of attention by his rather unique mannerisms. He stepped at the Spaulding and spent money with a lavish hand. He was very much taken with a member of the theatrical profession, having followed her to this city. He attempted to speak at one of the meetings of the Bethel, but was told that his line of reasoning was rather too progressive. The Y. M. C. A. too, refused to permit him to spread his doctrine through the use of its rooms.

It was then that Mr. Kenyon stated that he would hire the Lyceum and hold a monster mass meeting, but he did not return to carry out his promise.

ITALY HAS COOL DAYS AND THUNDER STORMS.

Rome, July 13.—Italy, and especially Rome, is experiencing unprecedented weather for this season of the year. In July it is customary to have a drought with the temperature above 100 degs. in the shade, but this year it has been raining in July and the temperature registers 60 degs. This morning a violent hail storm broke over the city, the streets were flooded and a number of trees struck by lightning. The rivers have been turned into torrents and are overflowing their banks, and agriculture is suffering.

TWO SITES PROPOSED

West Duluthians Are After Playgrounds and Public Parks.

Commercial Club Committee Will Report on Its Investigations.

Two sites for the proposed new parks and playgrounds for West Duluth will probably be recommended by the special committee of West Duluth Commercial club, operating at a recent meeting of the club, and which is in session this afternoon, looking over the field for desirable squares.

It is understood that one of the locations that is meeting with considerable favor on the part of the committee is a tract of land at Fifty-sixth avenue west and Eighth street.

The other location is spoken of as being on Eighth street, at Fifty-ninth avenue west. Either one of the sites would make a desirable park, and either would be especially adapted for the purpose of a children's romping ground, something hitherto unknown to the children of West Duluth.

By conferring with a committee from the West End Commercial club, and with members of the Duluth Playgrounds association, it is hoped that the West Duluthians of the park board may become interested in the proposition, and that some of the park bonds may be sold and the land purchased.

The need of another park in West Duluth has been urged for some time, and the West Duluth Commercial club has been active in the agitation.

Between Twenty-fifth avenue west and Seventy-third avenue west, there are no city recreation grounds, and West Duluthians are clamoring for a more central location. The two sites which are favored are centrally located, and it is thought that little if any objection will be offered to them.

The committee which is looking up the sites will report to the club at an early meeting. Those who comprise the committee are L. A. Barnes, Emil Zauf, J. J. Frey, H. H. Phelps and David Sand.

FIFTH LECTURE.

W. S. Calderwood Will Speak on Prohibition at Victor Hall.

W. S. Calderwood, secretary of the state prohibition committee, will give the fifth evening lecture of a series of talks on the temperance situation in Minnesota, tonight at Victor hall, 5528 Grand avenue west.

Mr. Calderwood gives a different speech every evening, although his sole theme is the people of Duluth is the abolition of the liquor traffic by passing a law which would put a stop to the manufacture as well as sale of all alcoholic beverages.

Is Recovering.

Edward Hanson, the West Duluth man who was stricken with heart trouble yesterday while being shaved at the barber shop of R. B. Newsome, is reported as better today, at the hospital.

It was thought at first that the shock might prove fatal, but his attack and the hospital say there is no danger.

LOSS ESTIMATED.

Damage Done By Saturday's Fire Will Not Exceed $300,000.

General Manager S. J. Cusson of the Virginia & Rainy Lake lumber company has placed the loss in Saturday's fire at $300,000 and has estimated that the amount of lumber destroyed was 15,000,000 feet. As soon as the insurance is adjusted, the company will make repairs to the docks.

A force of men was employed last evening and men have been working today building tramways.

Death of Orators.

Difficulty is experienced by those having the arrangement of the annual banquet of the West Duluth Republican club in charge, in getting speakers for the program.

The banquet will have to be postponed for a short time. It was originally intended to hold the function some time in August.

New Store Building.

Work on the new Getchell building at 408 North Central avenue is progressing rapidly. The basement has already been finished, and the walls are now going up. The building is to be a modern one-story brick structure and will be used for mercantile purposes.

Trip to Dakota.

Mrs. Charles E. Flora and daughter Olive of 713 North Fifty-fourth avenue will leave this city for points in North Dakota on a six weeks' visit. They will stop at Grand Forks, Wahalla, Calvin and Daniels before returning to West Duluth.

Hemerick Funeral.

Funeral services over the body of John Hemerick, who died Sunday night at Proctor, were held this afternoon from the Philatrust undertaking parlors.

Rev. Ramsdell of Proctor officiated and the Eangles of Proctor attended. Burial was made at Onocia cemetery. The deceased was 46 years old and had no relatives living in this country.

The Third Degree.

Kitchi Gammil lodge, No. 123, Knights of Pythias, will confer the third degree upon a large class Thursday evening at the clubrooms over the Western State bank.

Committees will also be appointed to decide the winners in the contest, which will close last Thursday. The lodge will also take part in the joint meeting with the North Star lodge to be held at West Duluth on July 30, when a large class will be taken in.

West Duluth Briefs.

Ray W. Abbott and E. G. Kreidler have returned from Fond du Lac, where they enjoyed a three days' outing.

Miss Ruth Irgens of 435 West Fifth street has as her guest Miss Inez Field of Fergus Falls.

William Burr and son, George, have returned from Coverdale, Idaho, where they have been for the past few months.

Mrs. Edward Evans and her friend, Miss Moore of New York, are guests at the home of Mrs. J. E. Evans of 402 Seventy-second avenue west.

L. L. Meade of the West Duluth fire department returned this morning from his vacation trip. He has been spending a few days in the Michigan copper country.

Fred Erickson and John Johnson of Spirit Lake are West Duluth visitors today.

James Woods of Ashtabula, Ohio, is registered at the Phillips hotel. Mr. Woods is a contractor.

Thomas Murphy is ill at the Duluth hospital. His condition was reported as being favorable.

Mrs. M. R. Abrahamson and children have returned from a visit at St. Paul.

Mrs. S. Goldberg of St. Paul is being entertained at the home of her sister, ter, Mrs. M. B. Abrahamson of West Duluth.

Clyde Kintz has returned from a trip on the range, where he has been for the past few days.

Wesley Briggs, Albert Laureman and Chris Dahlgaard are back from a trip to St. Paul.

Mrs. F. Butler of Stillwater, Minn., is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cavanaugh, 422 North Fifty-fourth avenue west.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Brain returned last evening from a ten days' visit with relatives at Eau Claire, Augusta, and Shell Lake, Wis.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Academy M. E. church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frances Juntun, 611 North Fifty-ninth avenue west.

The Knights and the Ladies of the Modern Macabees and their friends will have a basket picnic at Lester park tomorrow afternoon.

Watch repairing, Hurst, W. Duluth.

INJURED IN ACCIDENT

Victim of Derailment at Dalton a Former Duluth Man.

Robert L. Knebel Will Probably Die From His Injuries.

Robert L. Knebel, superintendent of the Milwaukee road, who was perhaps fatally injured by the derailment of a railroad automobile speeder near Dalton, Iowa, was formerly in railroad work in this city and Superior and is well known to railroad men of the Head of the Lakes.

The account of the accident states that the injured man's back is broken and that there is apparently little chance of recovery.

Mr. Knebel was in the employ of the old Duluth & Winnipeg in 1890. He remained with the road until 1895, when he became secretary to Supt. Philbin of the Great Northern, who was stationed at Duluth at that time. He held the position for about eight months, going from that position to the position of chief clerk in the superintendent's office at Superior.

From that position Mr. Knebel was promoted to the position of assistant superintendent in the operating department of the lake division. He was transferred to the William division of the Great Northern, going from that division to the Fergus Falls division. The injured man is known as a thorough railroad man and has many friends at the Head of the Lakes, not only among the railroad men, but also among business and professional men. He was highly esteemed by his employers and fellow employees.

ARE PAID MILLION FOR BIG MINING PROPERTY.

Butte, Mont., July 13.—Information from Los Angeles is that R. D. Grant, formerly superintendent of the old Parrot smelter, and Phil Wiseman, also of Butte, have just sold their interest in the Ray Consolidated Mining company of Arizona for $1,000,000.

The purchaser was Bernard Barnich, representing the Guggenheims. Grant and Wiseman promoted the Ray company several years ago.

Bemidji Warns Rain.

Bemidji, Minn., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The rain which fell in intermittent showers late Sunday afternoon and evening, became a downpour later in the night, lasting well into yesterday afternoon, has proven a veritable godsend to this section of the state, and came just in time to save small grains and many varieties of vegetables from being utterly destroyed, because of the extreme drought of the past few weeks.

WORKING ON DRIVEWAY

Rock Drillers Are Set at Work Widening the Boulevard.

New Road Is Also Being Constructed in Congdon Park.

Rock drillers will be set at work this week on the boulevard West Duluth extension, and in Congdon park, to blast the rock for the purpose of widening the old roadway or making a new one. There is quite a lot of work yet to be done on the extension before it is in as good shape as the main boulevard, but it is suitable for traveling over now, and no attempt will be made to entirely finish it, this year.

The set of rules suggested to the council last night, for governing traffic over the extension, are necessary because of the fact that the roadway is so narrow in spots as to scarcely allow two rigs to pass. The rules provide that all vehicles shall be driven from east to west and that the speed limit of automobiles shall be twelve miles an hour, except in narrow places where sharp turns, where the speed shall be reduced to six miles an hour. Signs will be posted along the extension notifying people of the bad spots. The rules are considered necessary for the safety of teams and automobiles traveling the road.

Work will be done on the roadway as the park fund will permit. There are quite a few points of rock that must be blasted out, and several of these will be done away with this summer. Narrow places due to existing rocks will also be widened by the dynamite system. The new drive is already proving to be a popular one. The surface of the road is in first-class condition and the scenery along the route is quite equal to that along the old boulevard.

The rock drillers at Congdon park will probably be kept busy five weeks putting the driveway and road that have been mapped out in suitable shape and were present in an effort to prove that Dr. Boyajian was insane at the time of the murder. Prosecutor Van Sile objected to the question. Lengthy argument followed.

ASKS QUESTION THAT CONTAINS 3,000 WORDS.

Detroit, Mich., July 13.—The record for long hypothetical questions was broken today when Attorney Bump, counsel for Dr. G. K. Boyajian, on trial for murder, propounded a question containing 3,000 words. The recipient of the interrogation was Dr. David R. Clark, alienist for the defense. The question embraces all of the testimony given by the other witnesses in the case and was propounded in an effort to prove that Dr. Boyajian was insane at the time of the murder. Prosecutor Van Sile objected to the question. Lengthy argument followed.

EPISCOPAL LAYMEN MEET.

Cambridge, Mass., July 13.—Sectional meetings of the annual summer conference of the Episcopal church under the direction of the Seabury society of New York were begun today in St. John's chapel. A conference on the topic "church laymen and church extension" at which fifty young laymen delegates were present, was the feature of the day's program. Classes for the study of the first epistle of St. John and several mission study classes were started today.

North Dakota Masons Meet.

Bozeman, D. T., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The fourth annual open air communion held by the R. and A. M. at Park Island, Lake Meigs, opened this morning. Masons from all sections of the state are in attendance at the communion, which will continue three days.

CAPTAIN OF THE COWLE IS A NERVOUS WRECK

He Plainly Shows the Effects of His Terrible Experience.

Is Brought to Duluth in Company With Second Mate.

Capt. W. G. Rogers of the ill-fated steamer Cowle, which sank off Whitefish Point yesterday morning after a collision with the Isaac M. Scott, arrived in port this morning aboard the steamer Goodyear, which picked him up along with the second mate, William Niles.

The experience must have been most harrowing. Capt. Rogers refused to talk. He was in an extremely nervous condition, and said that if he could only be quiet long enough, the boat would be all right for him. "I am in no condition to talk," said the captain. "Good heavens! man, after an experience of that kind, words seem empty and sentences seem so vague, and the tragedy is so indescribable, that it is impossible for me to tell you what happened. Besides, these things, I know very little. The second mate and I don't know yet what saved. I haven't a list of my men, and I am as anxious as you are to know what happened."

Capt. Rogers' face is badly scratched, his voice quivers when he talks, and his nervousness is plainly to be seen.

A telegram from down the lakes brings news that his son, Alva, who was with him on the trip, but who was lost at the time of the collision, is safe. Until some of the boats that picked up the remainder of the crew reach port, and the men are accounted for, it will be hard to say just how many were lost and how many were saved.

After arriving in the city Capt. Rogers reported at once to the office of G. A. Tomlinson in the Board of Trade building, which is customary in the case of accidents on the Great Lakes. Capt. Rogers was warned to say as little as possible about the affair.

Mr. Tomlinson believes the condition of the captain very critical, and it is probable that he will have to enter a hospital for treatment. He is completely broken up over the accident and he says he is not right. He says that he should know much more about the wreck but that his mind seems to have deserted him and everything seems hazy.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., July 12.—(Special to The Herald.) Two survivors of the ill-fated steamer John B. Cowle, which was rammed yesterday morning, about 6:30 o'clock, by the steamer Isaac M. Scott, left the Sault this morning for Duluth. The survivors are Capt. Rogers and William Niles, second mate. They were in a ragged condition, and their clothing was soiled with blood and other fluids. They were accompanied by a doctor, who was with them when they were picked up. The doctor, who is a member of the Sault Ste. Marie hospital, said that the captain and second mate were in a very bad state of mind, and that they were suffering from shock. He said that they were both badly scratched, and that they were both suffering from nervousness. He said that they were both suffering from a loss of memory, and that they were both suffering from a loss of consciousness. He said that they were both suffering from a loss of sight, and that they were both suffering from a loss of hearing. He said that they were both suffering from a loss of taste, and that they were both suffering from a loss of smell. He said that they were both suffering from a loss of touch, and that they were both suffering from a loss of feeling. He said that they were both suffering from a loss of thought, and that they were both suffering from a loss of reason. He said that they were both suffering from a loss of will, and that they were both suffering from a loss of power. He said that they were both suffering from a loss of courage, and that they were both suffering from a loss of strength. He said that they were both suffering from a loss of confidence, and that they were both suffering from a loss of faith. He said that they were both suffering from a loss of hope, and that they were both suffering from a loss of love. He said that they were both suffering from a loss of life, and that they were both suffering from a loss of death.

ATTORNEY AFTER FEES

Client Answers Suit With a Demand for $500 Damages.

Claiming that she refused to pay his fees after she had dismissed her suit against her husband for divorce, James H. Whitely, an attorney, is suing Mrs. Augusta Ramstad in district court, for $500. Mrs. Ramstad answers the complaint by a demand for $500, the amount she claims to have been injured by carelessness on the part of Mr. Whitely in handling the case, and the delays she says were caused by his inattention to her interests.

Mr. Whitely claims that he acted as the woman's attorney last fall when she brought suit for divorce, and asserts that his services were worth $150, which Mrs. Ramstad refused to pay.
Mrs. Ramstad's answer is sarcastic in its tone when Mr. Whitely's ability is mentioned. Mrs. Ramstad asserts that in security for the fee agreed upon, she decided to Mr. Whitely a piano worth $150. She claims that his services weren't worth anything to her, but worked her an injury.
Mr. Whitely was on the stand for a short time this morning when an argument came up as to the sufficiency of the plaintiff's pleadings, and the jury was dismissed until this afternoon to allow the attorneys to make their arguments on the point. The case will probably be finished this afternoon.

The case is the first to be tried before a jury at the July term of court. There is only one more civil case for trial by jury and only six or seven cases to be heard by the court.
The jury case remaining is that of Roy Baldwin against the city of Duluth. It will probably be tried tomorrow and the criminal calendar will be taken up Thursday morning.
The cases of Albert Halckey vs.
Hubert Iron company and Stone-Gordon-Wells company against Cotton Lumber company were continued this morning to the September term of court. The court case of Arthur S.
Kitt vs. Rose E. Everett, John Everett, Frank E. Webster and Martha A.
Webster was submitted to Judge Ditch.

500 HERALD NEWSBOYS ATTEND ANNUAL PICNIC AT LESTER PARK

THE CROWD OF NEWSBOYS.

HERALD CARRIERS.

Five hundred lively youngsters, parts in the organization which places The Herald into the homes of Duluth each evening, were the guests of the paper at the annual carriers and newsboys' picnic at Lester Park yesterday. And it was some picnic. Never has there been such a day in the short lives of the boys, and after they had disposed of their papers last night, they could go to their beds, tired, but happy, full of thoughts of strenuous times in which energy was well spent.

Five hundred boys, imbued with the plein spirit, blessed with good lungs, fine powers of locomotion and appetites that know no limit, can make a sizeable little picnic. Turned loose in Lester Park, with plenty of good things to eat, and a program of sports that produced something for amusement every minute, the boys made merry as only the small boy can for a holiday can.

Circulation Manager E. Armstrong and Assistant Manager George Hunter had charge of the affair, and they didn't impose too many restrictions. The boys were poured into the park and told to enjoy themselves. They did, and then some. They ran and jumped and swam and yelled and played and roared and rode on the merry-go-round. Oh, yes, they ate. The lunch consisted of rolls, bougathans, cookies, pop ice cream and crackerjack, and when the 500 small specimens of tired humanity boarded the cars for the return trip, there wasn't enough of the lunch remaining to feed a dyspeptic canary bird.

Special Cars.
The boys were carried to the park in special cars. For the accommodation of the West Duluth and West end boys, a car ran through from Sixtythird avenue west to the park, and the downtown boys boarded another car at Eighth avenue west at 9 o'clock in the morning. With hearty yells to let the people along the route know they lived, the boys rode through Superior street and landed up at the park ready for the day's frolic.

The first event was the baseball game between the downtown boys and the carriers of the West Duluth branch.
It was a good game, with the downtown boys winning by a score of 9 to 7. Then the athletic program was pulled off, after which there was lunch.
The lunch was the thing. Newsboys' appetites are proverbial. Every single member of yesterday's party had a large-stomach appetite ready for instant use, and when 500 appetites are working right, any kind of a lunch does a quick disappearance act. There was plenty for everybody, and those young appetites worked until they were worn out. Then the fun began again.
The pie-eating contest was a scream.
Six of the gang were placed on an elevated stand, their hands were tied behind their backs, and they were told to turn their faces into the pie. It was pie, sticky, smelly, bluetery pie, and there was no telling the color of their small faces when the contest was over. It was great fun for the spectators, and even the contestants seemed to enjoy it.

Peppert Scramble.
The peppert scramble was another laugh. Mr. Hunter ran through the park, starting with 100 pounds of peppers in the sack on his back, and as he ran the contents streamed through holes cut in the bottom of the sack.
Five hundred scrambling boys followed him, and every last pepper was snapped up almost as soon as it struck the ground.

After the scramble the boys were free to enjoy themselves until the cars started on the return trip at 3 o'clock.
Before the evening edition was sent out the prizes were distributed at the office to the successful contestants in the different races.

It was a great day. The boys were out for a good time, but they were well-mannered. There were no unpleasant features. L. A. Anderson, manager of the pavilion, assisted materially in the entertain-

BED IN CAPTAIN'S CABIN.
International Falls, Minn., July 13.
—(Special to The Herald).—The steamer Seagull, which for years plowed the waters of Rainy lake but which has more recently been tied up at the river bank near the International laundry, has been dismantled, her machinery having been taken out and placed on shore.

The captain's cabin is now occupied by a worker on the dam who finds it a comfortable lodging place but the steamer's hull is in such shape that he will soon have to remove or suffer immersion.

A WAY OF GETTING REAL ESTATE REVALUATION

Mayor Says State Will Advance Money to Cover Cost.

D. & I. R. Tracks Will Be Placed Under London Road.

Mayor Haven, in a communication to the council last evening, pointed out a way to get a revaluation of local real estate this year, without any expense money for such work coming out of the city treasury until two years hence. He recommended that the revaluation be made.

The mayor explained that the last legislature empowered the state tax commission to order a revaluation of real estate in any part of Minnesota, whenever and wherever it was deemed necessary. If the community affected is not able to bear the expense of the work at the time it is made, there is a provision which calls upon the state to pay for it. The community in question to reimburse the state within a period of two years.

Mayor Haven said that when members of the tax commission were in the city last week they expressed themselves as being of the opinion that a revaluation in Duluth was necessary, and intimated that if the city so desired they would immediately order that the work be done, and would see to it that the state paid for it, with the understanding that the cost would be returned two years hence. The mayor also asserts that whether the city wants it or not, the chances are the

WHAT THE COUNCIL DID.

Received communication from Mayor Haven, recommending that advantage be taken of the law which provides that the state can pay for a real estate revaluation, later to be repaid by the district benefited.

The Duluth & Iron Range road notified the aldermen that it was ready to place its tracks under the street where they cross London road.

Approved plan of board of public works for sanitary main trunk sewer in West Duluth. Decision of city, should stand cost of lowering grade of Fifth avenue west in front of the new courthouse.

Approved the letting of contract to R. S. Home & Co. of Chicago for the paving of Twenty-fifth avenue east with granite.

Park board suggests rules for governing traffic on boulevard extension.

Commission will order the revaluation, so very evident is it that one is needed, not necessarily to raise the assessment, but to equalize individual assessments.

Last winter City Assessor Rakowsky impressed upon the aldermen the fact that there should be some work done along this line and asked for a $5,000 appropriation, so that he could revalue all the real estate in the city. The council could not see its way clear towards appropriating this amount because of a shortage in city funds, but did allow Mr. Rakowsky $1,000, with which he was able to prove, as later reported to the aldermen, that a revaluation was really necessary. He pointed out numerous instances where properties were assessed too low, too high or else were not assessed at all. The council took no action in regard to the matter last night.

East Enders, led by Alderman Moore, have been trying for the past two weeks to get the Duluth & Iron Range road to do away with its grade crossing where the tracks cross London road, and this road is the last to be about. The railroad company, in a communication to the council last evening, offered to place its tracks under London road at this point, an improvement that will cost a considerable sum of money. The council adopted a resolution directing the road to go ahead with the improvement.

In order to get its tracks under the roadway, it will be necessary for the Duluth & Iron Range to build an embankment on the west side of Twenty-eighth avenue east, the top of the embankment to be level with the top of the roadway, and to build a foot road on the east side, leaving room on the north side for a half a foot road, on the lake side of the city's expense. The works will be properly protected with hand rails. The roadway will be paved with asphalt.

The board of public works was authorized to advertise for bids for the construction of a sanitary main trunk sewer in West Duluth, in the Grand avenue and Keane creek district. The improvement will cost, it is estimated, about $22,025.75.

The new ordinance providing for laying wires underground on East Superior street was laid over for one week.

The action of the board of public works in awarding the contract for paving Twenty-fifth avenue east, from First to Sixth street, to R. S. Home & Company of Chicago, was approved. The Home company figures were $17,590, and the material to be used is granite.

Harry Lehnert, secretary of the board of fire commissioners, acting for the board, asked that the fire department be authorized to purchase a new first-class engine for October delivery; that it be authorized to sell two horses unit for services and buy two more to replace them, and that repairs at one of the fire halls be authorized. The requests were referred to the fire department committee.

The sinking fund commission reported a balance of $45,421.67 on hand July 1.

Secretary Helm of the board of park commissioners submitted a set of rules governing traffic on the boulevard West Duluth extension, with the recommendation that the council adopt them. They were referred to the committee on ordinances and resolutions. The committee is claimed, to prevent accidents.

These rules are adopted, all vehicles, including automobiles, must be driven from the east to the west only, along the extension. The limit of automobiles shall be twelve miles an hour, which shall be reduced to six miles at six turns and narrow places. Signs will be placed along the extension for the guidance of drivers.

An expenditure of $30 was authorized to provide transportation for the aldermen on their annual inspection of the fire department.

Big Stick For Taxpayers. Washington, July 13.—President Taft

yesterday was presented with a surprise "big stick"—a bludgeon six feet long and shaped much like the one which became famous in cartoons during the last administration. The donor was J. P. Forbes of Ottawa, Kan., who sent with the stick this message: "The bludgeon is hereby given to you as a stick for some good purpose, and I suspect that it will be to allow you to swing the tariff bill and other schemes of criminal extortion."

NAGEL SHAKES UP HIS DEPARTMENT

"Efficiency Record" Investigation Leads to Many Changes in Staff.

Washington, July 13.—The greatest shake-up that has ever occurred in the personnel of the department of commerce and labor took place yesterday, when approximately 100 employees were reduced and the resignations of about 100 others accepted.

This action was taken by Secretary Nagel as the result of an investigation into the "efficiency record" of the employees in his department. The reductions were made, it is said, because the employees were found to have "loafed on the job" while those who were allowed to resign were found to be inefficient.

Further changes are to be made and resignations asked for it is intimated, as soon as Secretary Nagel completes his examination of the efficiency record. Many of the clerks will receive discharges.

Believing that there was considerable "dead timber" in his department, Secretary Nagel about six weeks ago directed the various bureau chiefs to prepare for him a bona fide report on the efficiency record of the employees under their jurisdiction from the high-salaried clerks down to the messengers.

As a result of these reports it was found that about 10 per cent of the clerks were found to be deficient to a greater or less extent. A strange feature of the matter is that since the reports were made the efficiency record of the employees in the department has increased 30 per cent.

The chief guest of honor will be Henry L. Brown of Texas, supreme chancellor of the order, and other honored guests will be Frank P. Ellis, governor of the state, and Fred E. Wheaton of Minneapolis, grand keeper of records and seals. Other prominent Pythians from Minnesota and Wisconsin will be present.

A meeting will be held Friday afternoon, July 30, in North Star lodge's hall, when the visitors will deliver addresses and there will be welcoming addresses by local knights.

In the evening, the degree team of North Star lodge will render the third degree upon a number of knights. This team is considered one of the best in the country and the grand officers are anxious to see its work.

The local knights will show the visitors the wonders of the iron ranges Saturday and the beauties of Duluth in the evening.

It is expected that there will be a large attendance at these festivities, Pythians in the neighboring towns planning to be present.

HINTS OF MURDER NOW IN LIEUTENANT'S DEATH.

Annapolis, Md., July 13.—The forthcoming investigation of the death of Lieut. James N. Sutton, U. S. M. C., in 1907, who, according to the finding of the prior investigation, committed suicide, continues to hold interest here, and new evidence in the case is constantly being sought. It is said that witnesses have been discovered who can testify that the night he met his death, Lieut. Sutton had not been drinking much, and that he left in an automobile with four other officers who had spent considerable time in the bar-room of the hotel. It is also said that evidence will be forthcoming to show that before the party had gone far there was a quarrel among those in the automobile, that profane language was used, and that the others in the party set upon Lieut. Sutton.

HUSBAND SHOT BY MAN HE CHIDED BEFORE WIFE.

Kankakee, Ill., July 13.—J. B. Saylor, vice president of the First National bank of Crescent City, Ill., was shot dead by a man who had been chided by him before his wife.

Mr. Saylor went home and found Dr. Miller there with Mrs. Saylor, wife of the man slain. The shooting was not made public until yesterday.

Mr. Saylor attended a ball game coast. Mayor Markbreit announced yesterday that he will appoint Mr. Herrmann a director of public safety at a salary of $3,000 a year.

COP, SHUVER AND BOOZE. CLERK ACCUSED OF THEFT.

New York, July 13.—One thousand rare hybrid rhododendrons, valued at $5 each, part of a gift of $50,000 made to Central park by Mrs. Russell Sage, have been dug up and stolen during the last six weeks by vandals.

Three arrests made yesterday—a policeman, a chauffeur and a bartender are the prisoners—disclosed the theft. The plants were carted off in the dead of night in a taxicab from a strip nearly a mile long, along the east drive of the park. They were planted at Mrs. Sage's expense and comprised the finest collection of the kind in the world, having been imported from Belgium. The collection is greatly damaged, though many of the plants have been traced and will be recovered.

It is charged that a policeman on duty in the park assisted in the theft at times and at others closed his eyes while the taxicab halted at intervals and the occupants despoiled the beds.

TWO FATALITY HURT.

Sioux City, Iowa, July 13.—Robert L. Knabbe, superintendent of the Sioux City division of the Milwaukee road, and William Brand, division carpenter, were fatally injured yesterday when an automobile speeder on which they were riding was derailed near Dalton. Knabbe's back was broken and he sustained internal injuries.

Pat Job For Garry Hermann. Cincinnati, Ohio, July 13.—Whether he is successful at Los Angeles in winning his fight for the post of grand exalted ruler of the Elks or not, August (Garry) Hermann of this city, will be given a handsome recognition by Mayor Markbreit of this city upon the return of the former from the London, July 13.—The national service bill, which provides for the compulsory service in the territorial army of all male citizens between the ages of 18 and 30, was introduced in the house of lords yesterday by Lord Roberts, who, in support of the measure, painted a gloomy picture of the condition of the country's defenses and the threatening dangers of the empire.

Lord Roberts denounced the policy of the country and the empire, and he claimed that his bill would furnish 1,000,000 well-trained and disciplined soldiers in a few years.

A DIVISION IS ASKED

County Board Petitioned to Divide School District No. 41.

Fencing in of County Roads Must Be Discontinued.

A petition was filed with the county board yesterday for the division of school district No. 41. The district is in Commissioner McMahon's district, and as Mr. McMahon was not present, action was deferred until the August meeting. The commissioners do not look very favorably on the petition. The district is made up of several small and out-of-the-way towns. The petitioners propose to form a new district from about two and one-half towns, leaving only the remaining town in district No. 41. The commissioners do not believe the petitioners will have to produce some good arguments to convince them.

A resolution was passed at the meeting yesterday prohibiting the fencing in of county roads and providing punishment according to the state laws. Petitioners have made a number of fences in highways, whether legalized or not, and the objections are so many that the commissioners decided to call a halt.

The reason for the refusal of the committee appointed to investigate the petition was that there was not a sufficient number of signatures to the petition for division and the petitioners also failed to show that twenty-five legal voters remained in the town. The law requires that twenty-five voters must sign the petition for division and twenty-five voters must remain in that portion of the town they propose to leave. Another petition will probably be made, as the petitioners are anxious to break away from the people now in control of the town's affairs.

The annual session of the treasurer's office was made yesterday and the county was found to be in good financial condition. There was on hand in cash and in deposits in the different banks of the county yesterday the sum of $1,679,064.04.

The board appropriated $11,000 for clerk hire in the auditor's office for the fiscal year of 1910 and $5,000 for a similar purpose in the treasurer's office.

Dr. Cavanaugh, the jail physician, appeared before the board yesterday and explained the reason for his exceeding the appropriation for medicine. He said he had been called to give the prisoners the very best of care in the jail and in that duty he believed he saved the county considerable money by the prisoners not being sent to the hospitals. He asked the board to increase the appropriation in order that he might not be hurried in his work. The matter will probably be taken up at a later meeting.

Give a Clean Milkman Your Trade

Our dairies are sanitary. Our cows are inspected; so are the men who milk them. We promise you germless milk. You will get from us nothing but rich Holstein milk, and the cost will be six cents per quart.

That is our proposition. We ask you to try us one day.

Get one can of Van Camp's and make one milk dish with it. Learn the flavor that comes from whole milk.

Serve it once in your coffee. Let your children drink one glass. Learn what pure milk means.

Find out, for one day, how convenient it is to have rich milk or cream when you want it.

We refer you to scores of your neighbors. We are their milkmen. Ask how they like our milk.

Then give us one chance to do for you what we have done for them.

Not a Half-Milk

When you taste your first milk dish made with Van Camp's, you'll be surprised at the richness and flavor.

You'll wonder what we have added. But we add nothing at all.

You have been used to a half-milk, because milkman's milk separates. The butter fat rises and the solids fall, before and after you get it.

In Van Camp's, for the first time, you get whole, rich milk. And you learn what milk should be.

You'll never be content with milkman's milk after cooking one dish with Van Camp's.

The Natural Milk

Van Camp's is simply rich Holstein milk, with two-thirds the water evaporated. Nothing whatever is added. Nothing is subtracted save water.

It is only the richest milk, fresh from the cow, evaporated close to our dairies.

It is preserved solely by sterilization. So it comes to you as fresh as it came from the cow.

The slight almond flavor—apparent only when the milk is drunk cold—is due to sterilization. No milk can be pure without it.

When you heat the milk—as in cooking or coffee—this slight flavor disappears. Then you have but the natural flavor of the richest milk or cream.

Cheaper Than Raw Milk

Van Camp's is as thick as thick cream—so thick that you add one part water for coffee. Yet it doesn't cost half what you pay your milkman for cream.

Add two parts water and you have rich milk. The cost of such milk, when you buy Van Camp's by the case, is but six cents per quart.

Then you have no waste—no milk left over. That saving, in itself, is enormous.

So you have a cow in your kitchen—rich milk or cream whenever you want it. Yet it costs less than day-to-day buying.

You have a pure rich milk for less than you pay for a half-milk laden with germs.

Milk Without Germs

In Van Camp's you get milk without sickness, no germs of consumption from tubercular cows. None of the infections which make raw milk the most terrible foe of humanity.

Our cows are inspected; so are the men who milk them. Our dairies are sanitary. Our buildings are built without wood.

Then our milk is pasteurized.

Your children can drink Van Camp's without risk. You can serve it without serving disease.

Not so with milkman's milk. In every drop there lurks a myriad of germs, and you never know what they are.

Not Condensed Milk

Condensed milk is half sugar. You can't use it for cooking. Don't think that Van Camp's is like that.

Nor is it like other brands of evaporated.

Van Camp's Milk shows about 8 per cent of butter fat. That's because we use Holstein milk, and take out two-thirds the water.

But milk less rich, or with more water left in, may still be called "evaporated."

These lesser brands cost the same as Van Camp's. Be careful to get the best.

BEAUTIFUL LAKE CHELAN

Rev. Dr. Kirtley Tells of a Trip to One of the Beauty Spots of the Cascades—Not Yet Reached by Railroad.

Seattle, Wash., July 12.—(Special to The Herald.)—I could not resist the attractions of Lake Cheelan, this time, as I had been compelled to do on my visit to the coast three years ago. Very few people have ever heard of the lake, because it is not yet in easy reach of the traveling public. It is, however, one of my chief objectives in travel, to get acquainted with our mountains and lakes and streams, and I am prepared to say that up to the present time, Lake Cheelan holds first place for beauty in its formation and sublimity in its environment.

There was a time when a glacier lay like a great beast, northwest and southeast in the Cascade mountains, the center of Washington, and as it melted it formed the basin of a lake, fifty-two miles long and from one to three miles wide, winding through mountains which tower to a height of 2,000 feet, while back of it and on either side range on range and a succession of peaks complete the sublime environment. The lake is at a level of 1,400 feet above the sea and in one place is 1,400 feet deep. As I was rowing over it, those cold depths gave me some wholesome suggestions about taking caution.

I wanted to accomplish several points in my brief sojourn of four days in the Cheelan region—take a row, catch some of those speckled beauties that are as abundant as beautiful in the Indian waters of the Cheelan and climb to the top where I could get a view of the miles on miles of splendor lying to the north and west in the Cascades. Up at the head of the lake I got the boat ride, and rowing along under precipitous cliffs of basalt and granite, I felt what Buchanan Head expresses in his "Drift-ling." The fish-well I must be strictly accurate and say that I did not have time to "drop a line" to my funny friends and invite them to come up to 6 o'clock dinner with me, but I saw strings of them, which other men had caught—cut throat trout and Dolly Varden trout, weighing from one to two pounds each. As to mountain climbing, I had time to follow a few miles up the Stehlikin river, that brings the waters of melting snows down into the lake, and there I saw the Rainbow falls, leaping 270 feet over the rocks. I had time to climb part of the way up the mountains at Purple point and see the purple lake and its surrounding mountains from a good elevation. But back to Bridge creek and the overhanging glaciers and Railroad creek to the great mining regions. I could not get to the approach to the Cheelan country is by boat on the Columbia river from Wenatchee, where the Great Northern crosses. Forty-four miles you go against a stiff current and over rapids on the brave little boat Columbia. At the mouth of the Cheelan river, you take a four-horse coach and go around the falls to the town of Cheelan, where the river comes out of the lake. There you take a boat and get deeper and deeper into the mountains as you go up the lake.

Here is the great Cheelan fruit country. The strawberries are just in memory still. Suits of many kinds including fine English wools are produced. But they make a specialty of apples. The air is sweet like nectar. Back from the lake they have great herds of sheep. Along the lake little patches of ground are lending rare fruits and vegetables. Summer resorts are found here and there. James J. Hies has the right-of-way for an electric line from Wenatchee to his line further north and the falls of the river flowing out of the lake to the Columbia river, 300 feet lower, have an estimated value of 10,000 horse power. Exceptionally good hotels are at Cheelan and Stehlikin, the two ends of the lake, free from the usual grating and grating methods of the summer hotel proprietor. When the railroad enables one to reach the lake at any point, there seems every reason why the traveling public should put Cheelan in the list of points that simply must be visited.

Never, remaining in the air five minutes and thirty seconds, during which time the machine attained the exceptional speed of about forty miles an hour and circled the parade grounds half a dozen times a total distance of about three and one-half miles.

Keeping a crowd of nearly 1,000 expectant people, including a number of persons prominent in official life, waiting for an hour and a half, owing to an unfavorable wind, the airplane started on its flight at 7:07 p. m. The aviator concluded not to prolong the trial because the motor of the machine, which had just been repaired, was not working perfectly. Each time the airplane circled past the starting point the spectators cheered.

Both of the Wrights expressed themselves pleased with the performance. They intend to make only short flights until the new bearings have become worn down and the propelling motor is working perfectly. When these things have adjusted themselves to the satisfaction of the aviators, they intend to attack their main task, to which these minor flights are preliminary—that of satisfying the conditions prescribed by the government for the official test.

AMERICANS VICTIMS OF MEXICAN BANDITS.

El Paso, Tex., July 13.—News has reached here of the raiding of the town of San Jose del Rio, in the state of Chihuahua, Mex., by bandits. Among the victims were two Americans, W. W. Tuttle, a civil engineer, and Mike Farrell, both of whom were wounded and left tied hand and foot. It is believed the band was a part of that which robbed a band of Hines and Honner Farall a short time ago.

To Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for a Thorough Cure in a Stubborn Case of Sciatica.

A really remarkable cure of sciatica by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is that of Mr. William H. Shine, of No. 2111 22nd Avenue, South, Minneapolis, Minn. Mr. Shine is employed by the Flour City Ornamental Iron Works and is a member and Chief Forester of Camp 484, Modern Woodmen of America. During the Sioux campaign in which Sitting Bull was killed, Mr. Shine was a member of Troop K, Sixth U. S. Cavalry. Mr. Shine has lived in Minneapolis for twenty-five years. In telling recently of his cure by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, he says:

"About five years ago I was engaged in work which required heavy lifting and I think this may possibly have been the cause of the sciatica in my case. For three months I was confined to bed and was sick altogether for about two years and a half. I was on crutches for about seven months. There were sharp, cutting pains from my back down to my heel. It was very painful for me to get up after I had been sitting down for a while. The cords of my foot and heel seemed to draw together. The muscles of my legs had to be rubbed before I could sleep. My feet were swollen so that I had to wear shoes much too large for me and I could hardly hobble along."

"I was treated by two doctors and each pronounced my case sciatica. Neither doctor helped me much. The last doctor gave me electric treatments three times a week for at least three months. After finding that this did not help me to any extent, I took vapor baths for about the same length of time. I followed this with sulphur baths for five weeks but nothing seemed to help me. I then began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and after taking them for a few days I began to feel better. When I began taking the pills I was unable to work and was walking with a cane. After a fair treatment I began to feel results from the pills. I continued using the pills until they effected a complete cure. I wish by this statement to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills credit for my cure."

Sciatica is neuritis of the sciatic nerve and this remedy has cured stubborn cases of neuritis in many forms. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or sent postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

NEWS OF THE NORTHWEST

GRAIN DOES VERY WELL

Crop Conditions in North Dakota Could Not Be Better.

Same Story of Fine Prospects Comes From All Points.

Grand Forks, N. D., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Another week of continued fair weather, with just enough rain at either end of the week to keep the crops up in splendid condition, has prevailed in North Dakota, and the prospects of a large yield this year, heretofore the very best, has grown even brighter. The situation this year is a most remarkable one, as all through the state, almost without exception, the crop prospects are the very finest.

Even last Monday fell over the entire northern part of the state, and while it was not needed at the time, still no damage resulted. Sunday afternoon and night there was also a general fall of rain, followed by a general warming up Monday afternoon. These rains have not been welcome in certain districts of Pembina county, but in the rest of the state have no complaint to make as to the conditions.

The wheat has been heading out during the past week, gaining steadily in condition. In North Dakota this year, it is not behind the crop in seasons when normal conditions prevail. Last year was somewhat earlier than other years, the season being an exceptionally early one.

It is evident that the conditions over a state so large as North Dakota are universally the same, but such is the condition in North Dakota this year. From every quarter of the state comes the same report—conditions good. The hay crop will be stacked. The grain will be harvested during the next few weeks in putting up their crop of that product. The grass this year is not the very best, and a large hay crop will be stacked.

BAGLEY LOSES ITS FINE MILL

Roller Mill Takes Fire and Is Completely Destroyed.

Bagley, Minn., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Bagley roller mill, one of the most complete 75-barrel mills in the state, was destroyed by fire early yesterday. The fire originated from combustion. The fire department got to the scene of the fire early and, by hard work, saved the Bagley Lumber company's saw and lumber yards, adjoining the roller mill, and 32,000 cords of wood which was piled east of the mill. Despite the fire, it was with difficulty that the flames were confined to the four mill. Fire started several times in the lumber yards, as well as in the wood pile, which was quickly extinguished.

The roller mill was a complete affair in every way, containing the latest of all kinds of machinery, including snout machines and electric blenders. The loss was from $18,000 to $22,000, with $12,000 insurance. A good share of the flour in the mill company's western warehouse was saved.

At this time it is not known whether the mill will be rebuilt or not, but it is probable that it will be.

NOT ELIGIBLE TO AN OFFICE

Cloud Cast Upon Citizenship of Cass County Official.

Cass Lake, Minn., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—It is claimed that the commissioner from the third district of Cass county, Ed O'Donnell, is not legally holding office.

O'Donnell has a claim in the southern part of the county and when he went to prove up on it recently it developed that he did not have any second citizenship papers and was prevented from proving up as soon as the county attorney learned of this. He immediately called upon the commissioner and told him that he was not legally holding office, explaining him the reason. O'Donnell stated that he would resign, but later withdrew his resignation. The county attorney has taken the matter up with the attorney general and that officer will at once take steps to look into the matter. It has since been claimed that O'Donnell had his papers taken out at Eau Claire, Wis., but that they were burned in a hotel fire a while later.

ROBS SLEEPING MAN.

Grand Forks Pickpocket Pleads Guilty and Gets Sentence.

Grand Forks, N. D., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Harvey Johnstone, who claims his home is in Michigan, entered a plea of guilty in police court to a charge of petty larceny. He was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail and to pay a fine of $50, in default of which he must serve thirty additional days in jail.

Johnstone was arrested on a west-bound Great Northern train Monday morning on the complaint of William Jenkins of Dominion, Alberta, Can. Jenkins charged Johnstone with

AGENT GIVEN BANQUET.

Red Lake Falls Citizens Pay Tribute to J. L. Tracy.

Red Lake Falls, Minn., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—J. L. Tracy, who has been the Great Northern agent in this city for the past six years, left yesterday for Fargo, where he has been associated for a number of years. Tracy is a well-known and popular man in this city. He has been associated with the Great Northern for a number of years and has been a great help to the citizens of this city. He has been a great help to the citizens of this city. He has been a great help to the citizens of this city.

JUMPS TO HER DEATH.

Woman Just From Sanitarium Makes Sensational Finish.

Milwaukee, Wis., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Tearing herself from the grasp of her aged mother and a brother, with whom she had been allowed to come into the city, Miss Estelle May Dunn, aged 32 years, hurried herself through an open window of the second story of the public museum late yesterday afternoon and met almost instant death on the sidewalk, forty feet below.

Miss Dunn, a wealthy Jeweler of Bloomington, Ill., and sister of May Dunn, an inmate of the Milwaukee sanitarium, at Wauwatosa.

BOY DYNAMITES FISH.

Youthful Law-breaker Is Arrested at Negaunee, Mich.

Negaunee, Mich., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The officers of the Negaunee Gun & Rod club were instrumental in securing the arrest of a 14-year-old boy, named Roberts, residing here, on the charge of violating the game laws. The boy recently blasted a spawning bed in the Dead river north of the city, killing many trout of various sizes, some of them over twelve inches in length. He brought home about a bushel of the fish and others that he could not carry were left on the shore or floating in the water.

The case was placed in the hands of Deputy Game Warden Harrington. The boy evidently did not know the nature of the offense as he told his companions what he had done and showed them a number of the fish he brought home.

MUCH ORE BEING MOVED.

Ishpeming and Negaunee Mines Are Running Full Force.

Ishpeming, Mich., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—There is at present a larger percentage of ore moving from the mines in both Ishpeming and Negaunee than at any previous time this season. All of the railroad crews are kept constantly on the move and much overtime is being required. All of the Northwestern switching crews worked yesterday and they have also put in many extra hours at night since the season opened. The heaviest rush of ore at the present time is from the Hartford and Regent properties, operated by the Oliver company, and the Negaunee, operated by the Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company. Night and day crews are loading and shipping from the Richmond mine, Cascade range, and an average of forty cars in each twenty-four hours is going forward. The Cleveland-Cliffs Iron company has started shipping from the South Jackson property at Negaunee. Practically every steam shovel on the range is now at work, and all the mines are shipping the greater part of the ore being hoisted.

DAKOTA BRIEFS

Stanley, N. D.—The first national bank to be established in Monticelli county is the First National Bank of Stanley, currently the Security State bank. The officers are: President, T. F. Mikela; vice president, H. Blatman; secretary, Dr. Wardner; treasurer, Dr. Marshall; executive committee, C. F. Mickela, Charles Nelson and R. M. Farnham.

Grand Forks, N. D.—Next Thursday will occur the old settlers' picnic and reunion at the new plant of the Great Northern railway.

Bozells, N. D.—Mrs. Laura Lucy was injured Monday afternoon by the overturning of a buggy in a runaway accident. She sustained a dislocation of the hip bone, and also sustained a severe laceration of the left eye, several bones of the face were broken.

Blomark, N. D.—Clerk of the Supreme Court, Hoskins and family have left for Tacoma and Seattle for a six day visit. They will be gone until about August.

Jameson, N. D.—A cargo of Stinson wheat was shipped Thursday by George Brown to Seattle, destined for the Pacific coast.

Devils Lake, N. D.—L. G. Hoffman of this city, now residing at Chautauque, has returned home with a crew of men for the purpose of clearing the water in the lake. Mr. Hoffman has received a great deal of enthusiastic support from the people here who have interviewed him.

Fargo, N. D.—Ed L. Sears of this city, formerly in the livery business here, received a telegram telling of the death of his brother, Daniel Sears, aged 61, at the home of his wife, Mrs. Sears, in Fargo. The telegram announced that his brother had been killed in a runaway accident, but no details were given.

Grand Forks, N. D.—Ed Spafford Saturday sold a quarter section in section 17 of Union township for $6,000. This makes the price of the land $40 an acre, which shows that Grand Forks county soil is still in demand.

Reinark, N. D.—Receiver John Satterfield of the land office has been having a recurrence of his old trouble with his eyes, and has gone to the hospital for a few days of quiet treatment. His trouble is not serious, but painful, and it is hoped that a few days of treatment will bring him around all right.

Sloux Falls, S. D.—The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Millage, who reside on a farm near Worthing, south of Sloux Falls, was drowned as the result of wandering from the yard about her home and falling into a ditch of water beside the highway. The child was only 15 months old.

PENINSULA BRIEFS

Hancock—All bids for the carrying of ore to the postoffice headquarters at Washington, where they will be acted on by the contract awarded.

Houghton—Morton Sturges of Iron Mountain has been appointed to examine in the upper peninsula. Mr. Sturges is well known to many Copper country men, having served with the Michigan fourth Michigan in the Spanish war.

Escanaba—Final arrangements have been completed by President Amos S. Musselman of the National Grocer company for the construction of the corporation's big branch warehouse here.

Calumet—Engelhardt Anderson, aged 82 years, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Frank Nordstrom, of Gay Saturday. The deceased had lived in the Copper country thirty-six years, coming here from Norway. The funeral service took place Monday afternoon from the Norwegian Lutheran church, Calumet.

Lake Linden—Rev. Father Hosking of Stanton, Pa. is here for a few days for the purpose of visiting his sister, Sister Immaculate at the St. Ann's academy. While in town he will be the guest of Father Raymond.

Negaunee—John Stager, a former well known passenger conductor on the Chicago and Northwestern railway running between Green Bay and Menasha, is now manager of the Menasha company's pulp and paper mill at Ashland, Wis.

Marquette—J. E. Bush, charged with violating the liquor laws by having Mrs. Kaupila serve beer to him one night last week, waived extradition and came before Justice Byrne Saturday afternoon to answer to circuit court.

Calumet—The newly organized village improvement work. An excellent road is being built through the town. This is now being graded. It will cost $700. It is believed. The town is to have a drainage system. The proposed five protection is to be arranged for work.

Negaunee—Mrs. John Kaupila, residing on Gold street, near the Negaunee Bottling Works, died Tuesday of a heart attack. She was 35 years of age and five small children, the oldest of whom is 10 years. Mr. and Mrs. Kaupila were married in Negaunee and the deceased was generally well thought of by the Finnish people.

MINNESOTA BRIEFS

East Grand Forks—Work has begun in earnest digging the main for the extension of the water works. H. J. Board has given the city from $20,000 to $30,000 for the work. Paul to take charge of the engineering part of it and soon had the big French digger working and had the river falls dug out.

Thief River Falls—Hugh Dean, who has charge of the Thief River Falls Lumber company's drive in the streams that flow into the Red lake, has returned home with a crew of men. Owing to the fact that the water in the river is so low the work of driving logs has had to be abandoned until it rains.

St. Cloud—Twenty-five Minnesota mowers, made at the state prison, have been shipped out to farmers in different parts of the state. The mowers are being packed for shipment to farmers by the state prison.

Brainerd—The remains of Joseph W. Slone, who died Tuesday last, were taken to the funeral home of J. W. Slone, where they will be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Rev. W. J. Lowrie officiating. Interment was in Evergreen cemetery.

Cass Lake—R. F. Ewald of the firm of Ewald & Sons of Minneapolis, manufacturers of crates and boxes, has rented the Byrre feed store and will manufacture berry boxes during the season. The firm will employ six or eight men and boys and will supply the berry pickers and dealers with all the packing material needed in the trade.

Onamia—A petition signed by fifty or more persons asking for the establishment of a rural free delivery route between this place and Vineland, has been forwarded to the postoffice department at Washington. The route, if granted, will pass up along Millie Lakes shore from here and continue on down the west side of the Rum river on the return trip.

International Falls—John Stone has the village council for $1,000 damages each for maintaining a nuisance, they having removed the police station from his lots to Third avenue and left the same abutting his property, to the detriment of his property.

Aitkin—Burdett Goff has been appointed postmaster at Glen to succeed A. E. Marcus, who has resigned, as he is going to leave this country. It is understood that the change in postmasters will make a change in the location of the postoffice.

Badger—A meeting preliminary to the organization of a county medical society was held at the office of Dr. Norlin in Roseau, recently, and Dr. Norlin was elected president of the society. The society will be organized with the State Medical society and make arrangements for the organization of a branch for this county.

St. Cloud—The Freeman brewery on Saturday shipped another carload of beer to Glenview, Mont. This is the second carload shipped within the past two weeks and are the first that were ever shipped outside of the state.

Sebeok—Henry Herforson lost his barn by fire Tuesday afternoon. The fire was discovered shortly before 6 o'clock. The alarm was given and the fire department responded promptly.

INSANITY PLEA WILL BE RAISED

In Behalf of Former Grand Forks Man Who Killed Cowboy.

Grand Forks, N. D., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—W. H. Kelsey, a prominent real estate dealer of this city, who returned Monday from Miles City, Mont., where he was called by the case of his brother, D. B. Kelsey, a former Grand Forks man, in jail for murder, believes that his brother was insane at the time of the shooting. This is supposed, under the line of defense when the case comes to trial. Details of the shooting show it to be somewhat of a tragedy. Kelsey, who had the cow killed by Kelsey toward the latter home on a ranch near Moorhead, Mont. A settlement was agreed to, but Kelsey failed to carry this out, and when Kelsey appeared in his refusal to pay up the cow, he turned and walked toward Kelsey toward his brother. Kelsey, thinking Kelsey was going to get a gun, ordered him to halt. He then fired two shots, one of which took effect. After the shooting, Kelsey rode to a mile and gave himself up to the officials.

CAUSE FOR REJOICING.

Cass Lake Methodists Pleased Over Churchmen's Visit.

Cass Lake, Minn., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Cass Lake Methodists are rejoicing at the visit of the Rev. Robert Forbes, D. D., of Philadelphia, and the Rev. E. K. Copper, superintendent of the Brainerd district, as while they were here $500 were subscribed in a few minutes toward liquidation of the debt on the church, leaving a small balance to be raised by the pastor, Rev. G. O. Parrish, which will be readily accomplished before the conference convenes at Duluth in September.

Dr. Forbes gave a very able address, and Sup. Copper assisted in raising the money.

GAS WELL FLOWING.

Strike Near Lansford, N. D., Is Believed to Be Permanent.

Lansford, N. D., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The casing has been pulled out of the new gas well near here, and the well has ceased to spout, but sufficient gas is still working through about 150 feet of earth to make the water boil continually. The force has blown a hole fully three or four feet in diameter and thirty-five feet deep. When the gusher was at its best it blew sand and little stones into the air fully 400 feet. This it kept up for two days and covered the entire farm yard with a deep layer of a bluish gas sand.

MAY BE CASE OF MURDER SEWERS FOR THE SUBURBS

Julius Henz Found Dead in Home of His Cousin.

Several Bruises Noticed on Head—Coroner Is In- vestigating.

Julius Henz, 50 years old and unmarried, was found dead in the residence of a cousin, with whom he was living, in the township of Gnesen, on the Howard and Gnesen road, ten miles north of Duluth, yesterday afternoon.

He is believed to have died as the result of injuries received in falling down stairs. The matter was reported to the coroner by the cousin, who says that when he came into the house, after being absent twenty minutes or half an hour, he found the man lying dead at the foot of the stairs.

There are several bruises about the dead man's head, which might have been inflicted by a fall. There is believed, however, to be a possibility that Henz came to his death by foul means, and a coroner's inquest is being held this afternoon to thoroughly investigate all the facts in the case. The cousin says that he drove to town immediately after finding the body, to make the report. He expresses the opinion that Henz died from a fall. He was lying in such a position as to indicate that he had slipped on the stairs and pitched forward head foremost. The relative with whom he was living says he does not believe Henz had any enemies, and cannot imagine any combination of circumstances which would likely lead to his cousin's murder.

The remains were brought to Duluth and placed in the undertaking rooms of Flood & Horgan.

FOUR ARRESTED IN MURDER CASE

Doctor Who Fired Shots and Widow of Victim Are Prisoners.

Watseka, Ill., July 13.—This section of the country is still greatly excited over the killing of H. B. Saylor, vice president of the First National bank of Crescent City, by Dr. W. R. Miller, a well-known physician of the same city. On the day of the tragedy, when Mr. Saylor was absent from home, it is alleged that Mrs. Saylor, Dr. Miller, John Grander, father of Mrs. Saylor and a resident of Okla-homa, who was visiting his daughter, and Ira Grander, a brother of Mrs. Saylor, had been drinking.

This statement was made today by Ira Grander, who gave himself up to the sheriff. Grander said that he had been overcome by the effect of the drink and was sound asleep when the shooting began. So deep was his slumber, he declared, that even the shots and ensuing confusion did not awaken him.

Dr. Miller, both Grunders and Mrs. Saylor are in jail. No move to make bail has been made so far. Peter Wease, a brother-in-law of Mrs. Saylor, has arrived to assist the latter in her trouble. Miller is held on the charge of murder, the others as accessories.

William Saylor, a brother of the slain man, is credited with quieting a crowd at Crescent City, which talked of wreaking mob vengeance on Dr. Miller and Mrs. Saylor. He is said to have visited the doctor and his wife and counselled and persuaded them to let the law take its course.

The funeral of Mr. Saylor will be held at Crescent City tomorrow afternoon.

GOOD STRAWBERRY CROP.

Luscious Fruit Around Bayfield for the Duluth Market.

Bayfield, Wis., July 13.—Strawberries will be a profitable crop to growers in this section, the crop ripening just late enough to command big prices. The quality of the fruit is excellent. Harvey Nourse has a large force of pickers at work on his farm and expects to ship a carload every other day to the markets of St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth.

Washburn, Wis., July 13.—Buyers who have been out in the woods in this section during the week state that there will be one of the biggest blueberry crops this year there has been for some time. The berry this year escaped the frost entirely, and the yield will be enormous.

MADISON MERCHANT IS DROWNED WHILE BOATING.

Madison, Wis., July 13.—Herman Thuringer, aged 46 years, a merchant of Madison, was drowned while bathing in Lake Monona near the Monona Lake Assembly grounds last Sunday afternoon. The body was recovered three hours later. Mr. Thuringer was enjoying an outing with relatives and it was suggested that the men go swimming.

Mr. Thuringer was wading around near the shore when he slipped into a deep hole caused by the recent dredging of Murphy's creek and being unable to swim, sank. His companions tried to rescue him, but were unable to do so.

WELL DIGGER ASPHYXIATED.

Napoleon, N. D., July 13.—Frederick Lieberg, a prosperous farmer near here, was asphyxiated while digging a well. He had been digging a well and went down to work this morning and after being down a few minutes signalled to the helpers to draw him up. He was pulled to within five feet of the top when his hold gave away and he fell to the bottom of the well. Helpers finally brought the body to the top but Lieberg was dead.

Three New Main Trunk Sewers Will Be Con- structed.

They Will Drain Woodland, Lakeside and West Duluth.

The preliminaries for the construction of three big sanitary main trunk sewers in Duluth, are now well under way. One, in West Duluth, was ordered by the council last evening, and the other two, in Woodland and Lakeside, will be ordered by that body before the end of the present month.

The Woodland sewer will probably cover a bigger district than any other main trunk line now in operation in Duluth. It will drain all that territory between the lake and the city limits on the north, and Twenty-fifth avenue east and the easterly line of Woodland park on the west and east. The cost of this work will run rather high, but an estimate has not yet been made, although the area has been surveyed, and the sewer district has been mapped out.

This main trunk line will follow along the course of Tischer's creek from Hunter's park to the northerly end of Congdon park, where it will cross the creek and extend to Thirty-eighth avenue east. The outlet will be at the foot of Thirty-eighth avenue east.

The cost of the West Duluth sewer, as estimated, will be about $22,000. It will cover the Grand avenue and Keene creek district, with a branch along Sherburn street. Its outlet will be in the bay at the foot of Forty-ninth avenue west, near the outlet of the old main trunk line, which drains the district north of Elinor street. The new sewer will drain the district south of Elinor street.

It is expected that Proctor will be providing for a sewer system within a year or two, and in case it does the system probably will connect with the new trunk line about to be constructed in West Duluth.

The main trunk sewer proposed for Lakeside will cost about $7,000, according to present estimates. It will cover the district along Fifty-fourth avenue east and Wyoming street, emptying into the lake at Fifty-fourth avenue.

A number of smaller sewer lines are now being constructed, or are about to be constructed, in different parts of the city. This will be a big year for Duluth in sewer building. Activity in this direction is reaching every part of the city, from West Duluth to Lakeside and Woodland.

TWO CHICAGO BANKS UNITE

Commercial National Absorbs the Bankers' National of That City.

Chicago, July 13.—Under the terms of an agreement reached yesterday, the Commercial National Bank of Chicago today absorbed the Bankers' National bank of the same city. The Commercial National bank, which was organized in 1887, is the largest of the two banks. The Bankers' National bank, which was organized in 1892, is the smaller of the two.

The absorption of the Bankers' National bank by the Commercial National bank will result in a new bank of 60 institutions. The Commercial National bank will declare an extra dividend of 60 cents per share on the 1st of August. The Bankers' National bank will exchange their shares for shares of the Commercial National bank.

Income Capital Stock.

The capital stock of the latter will be increased to $7,000,000, which will be a small part of the value of the bank. The stock will be sold at par by the stockholders of the two banks.

ORIGIN Of a Famous Human Food.

The story of great discoveries or inventions is a story of the human mind. It is a story of the human brain working out its own plan. It is a story of the human body working out its own plan. It is a story of the human soul working out its own plan.

He knew that a food which was a brain food and nerve builder (rather than a mere fat maker) was universally needed. He knew that meat with the average man does not accomplish the desired results. He knew that the soft gray substance in brain and nerve centers is made from Albumen and Phosphate of Potash obtained from food. Then he started to solve the problem.

Careful and extensive experiments evolved Grape-Nuts, the now famous food. It contains the brain and nerve building food elements in condition for easy digestion.

The result of eating Grape-Nuts daily is easily seen in a marked sturdiness and activity of the brain and nervous system, making it a pleasure for one to carry on the daily duties without fatigue or exhaustion.

Grape-Nuts food is in no sense a stimulant, but is simply food which renews and replaces the daily waste of brain and nerves.

Its flavor is charming, and, being fully and thoroughly digested, it is served instantly with cream.

The signature of the brain worker spoken of, C. W. Post, is to be seen on each genuine package of Grape-Nuts. Look in pkgs. for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville." There's a Reason.

SECOND DAY OF THE BIG RACE

Cars in Glidden Tour Leave Kalamazoo on 175- Mile Run.

Kalamazoo, Mich., July 13.—With a run of 175 miles ahead of them, the thirty automobiles which are making the Glidden tour began leaving the control here at one-minute intervals after 7 o'clock this morning.

Pathfinder D. H. Lewis had preceded them at 5:40 o'clock, and the last car, a Buick, left at 11:15 minutes ahead of the first contestant in his machine.

Weather conditions were splendid and every prospect was auspicious for the second day of the tour. The official time for the day's run to Chicago is eight hours and forty minutes. The automobiles will pass through Dowagiac and Niles, Mich., and South Bend, La Porte and Valparaiso, Ind.

South Bend, Ind., July 13.—The Glidden tourists reached South Bend at 8:45. The control and office station in Leeper park was thronged by hundreds of automobile enthusiasts. South Bend was presented with a luncheon by the Studebaker. The cars passed on through South Bend to La Porte, escorted by several local machines.

ON THE IRON RANGES

RAIN BROUGHT JOY TO RANGE

While More Moisture Is Needed, Monday's Helped Lot.

Virginia, Minn., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Not since Governor Johnson's veto of the tonnage tax has there been such general rejoicing on the Mesaba range as came with yesterday's soaking rain which visited all sections and put an effective damper, for the present at least, on the myriad of brush fires burning all over this section and continually menacing property.

While the rain did not last as long as desired it was very welcome and every one is hoping it will play a return engagement.

EVELETH MINES ARE VERY BUSY

Overburden From the Adams Stripping Filling Up Depressions.

Eveleth, Minn., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—Work in the local mines is going on very steadily in all branches except stripping.

The overburden from the new Adams stripping is being used to fill up the caves that have been dug out by previous mining. Near the Missabe depot and also along the Virginia road large caves are being filled up to the surface with this overburden. All the surrounding mines, the Adams, Spruce and Fayal are shipping in good shape and a large number of men are being employed.

NEW HOTEL IS ALMOST READY

Nashauk's New Hostelry Will Soon Be Open to the Public.

Nashauk, Minn., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—August Koisko is building a three-story dwelling house, including a basement on Third street. As soon as the building is completed, Mr. Koisko will rent each floor to ten-story residence on Third street.

The Olla hotel which was to have been built for occupancy by August Koisko, but not yet finished with the exception of the basement, has been under construction for the past two weeks. The upper stories of the building, consisting of bedrooms are finished and the second floor is being finished.

BEAR ON FRONT PORCH.

Big Bruin Slain By Farmer Near Two Harbors.

Two Harbors, Minn., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The carcass of a big black bear, killed on the porch of R. P. Pien's farmhouse, about six miles from here, yesterday, was brought to town last night and attracted much comment. The bear had been in the farm yard several times and had killed a number of chickens. The animal was shot yesterday and was seen upon the front porch of the house, secured a shotgun and went out the back way, going round the house he shot the bear.

BLOWING UP STUMPS.

Powder Company Shows Land Can Be Cleared for $30 Per Acre.

Hibbing, Minn., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—A large party of land-owners went out to the Close farm, about five miles from town, yesterday, to witness the demonstration of stump blowing, conducted by an agent for the Dupont Powder company. It was demonstrated that the average stump could be removed of these nuisances for about $20 per acre.

It was shown that by putting two sticks of dynamite under opposite sides of the stump, instead of a large charge of powder in the center of the stump, clearing the land could be achieved at about half the cost in powder used. A meeting of the Commercial club was held last night here to discuss the stump clearing. There was a large attendance of members, but no definite action was taken.

WANTS MORE MEN.

Virginia Lumber Company Would Hire 300 at Virginia.

Virginia, Minn., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Virginia Lumber company would add 300 men to its present list of men here at once if they could, making the total employed by the company in the city 1,000, and more would be employed if they could be readily secured.

The company will use the additional force in the planing mill, in working on the water power proposition and making improvements.

PLAN MUCH ROAD WORK.

Missabe Mountain Township Will Fix Up Many Highways.

Eveleth, Minn., July 13.—(Special to The Herald.)—The Missabe Mountain township board is planning on extensive improvements with the new steam roller, which cost $5,000.

The roller is being used to level out the road leading into Gilbert, along the Virginia road. It is already finished giving residents at the Genoa location and old Genoa a good walk into town.

COULDN'T FOOL HIM.

Doctor Was Firm and Was Right. Many doctors forbid their patients to drink coffee but the patients still drink it on the sly and thus spoil all the doctor's efforts, and keep themselves sick.

Sometimes the doctor makes sure that the patient is not drinking coffee, and there was a case of that kind in St. Paul, where a business man said: "After a very severe illness last winter which almost caused my death, the doctor said Postum was the only thing that I could drink, and he just made me quit coffee and drink Postum. My illness was caused by indigestion from the use of tea and coffee."

"The state of my stomach was so bad that it became terribly indignant and finally resulted in a rupture. I had not drunk Postum very long before my lost blood was restored and my stomach was well and strong, and I have now been using Postum for almost a year. When I got up from bed after my illness I weighed 88 pounds, and now my weight is 120."

"There is no doubt that Postum was the cause of this wonderful improvement. I shall never go back to tea or coffee, but shall always stick to the drink that brought me back to health and strength."

Look for the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true and full of human interest.

COLERAINE NOTES.

replying to charges that senate amendments to the tariff law would be creating the cost of woolen and cotton clothing, shoes and other articles of comfort, as well as other necessities of life. The statement will show that the cost of these articles has been reduced, that there has not been a single case of any article of necessity increasing in price.

Means to Collect Old Tax. An effort will be made to show that most of the labor are not in reality increases of rates, but that they provide for the collection of the rates fixed by the Dingley law, which had been set aside by the misinterpretation of that law.

At a conference at the White House yesterday it was definitely decided that the rates to be levied under the new corporation tax shall be reduced from 2 per cent to 1 per cent, and that in redrafting the measure, now in conference along with the tariff bill, to meet various objections that have been raised, due consideration shall be given to the demands of the mutual life insurance companies, whose income would be seriously affected by the tax in its original form.

President Taft was the central figure in a number of conferences yesterday and is living up to the prediction made many weeks ago that in the conference that the tariff conference made satisfactory progress yesterday. In spite of the fact that the house members were compelled to be absent much of the day, the tariff conference was held in the senate yesterday.

Talk Works With Them. The president is in daily conference with the conferees. He told several of his callers yesterday that he is finding the conferees conciliatory, and that he is hoping that a hearty agreement will be reached by the end of next week.

Proceeding along lines of least resistance, the tariff conference made satisfactory progress yesterday. In spite of the fact that the house members were compelled to be absent much of the day, the tariff conference was held in the senate yesterday.

sition in full force if they do not surrender. The safety of foreigners does not is held up, and consequently there has been no settlement of the amendments to the tariff in the cabinet schedule, such as paints, the basis of which is, less than 10 per cent. A good example of the manner in which the conferees have proceeded. Bontic, salicylic and oxalic acids, tetrachloride and numerous other articles over which there was content in the cabinet, are among the subjects that must be taken up later.

Stalemate Not Subject. The paragraph relating to electric light carbons threatened to give the conferees trouble and its consideration was postponed. The senate changed the duties from ad-valorem to specific, and the house conferees contend that the duties were thereby increased. The same is true in regard to the window glass, on which the senate fixed a graduated tax according to sizes.

More important of the subjects passed over in the metal schedule are iron ore, lead bullion and zinc ore and bullion. There are a large number of amendments relating to finished products of these ores that cannot be disposed of until the main subjects are settled.

From one was placed on the free list by the house and made dutiable at 25 per cent by the senate. The Dingley rate is 40 cents a ton. The general impression is that the senate will make a concession to the house and that as a compromise the rate may be fixed at 10 or 15 cents a ton.

Of Jewish Origin. Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg is of Jewish origin. The Bethmann family left Holland two centuries ago on account of its religion, and settled in Frankfurt, where the man entered the banking business. His great-grandfather married John James Hollweg, who added his wife's name to his own. His grandfather was the first member of the family to enter public service. This was 20 years old, and he had been made district governor of Ober-Barnim and later he became provincial president of Posen.

Had Rapid Promotion. Following his sojourn at Potsdam, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg was promoted to the rank of colonel in the Prussian army. He then followed Posadowsky as imperial minister, and showed in parliament his powers of plain and effective statement. He is without the graces of expression and wit of Prince von Buelow, but he is a man of convincing thought and substance.

As much as Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg has had no experience in foreign affairs, it is presumed that he will rely on the foreign secretary in this branch to a greater extent than has Prince von Buelow.

to secure the views of the governors. It is particularly desired that all available data regarding the resources, products and physical characteristics of each state and territory be sent by the bureau.

Attention is called to the fact that numerous inquiries are received as to where vacant lands may be had, and how those questions may be answered. The bureau will be glad to co-operate with the governors in the attention of admitted aliens and others to such opportunities for settlement.

The question then is asked if the governors have appointed agents to represent their states at any of the international exhibitions. If not, it is urged that consideration be given to the matter. Every facility will be afforded such agents to carry on their work successfully.

OUR SEMI-ANNUAL CLEARANCE

Offers the Biggest and Best Bargains of the Season in MEN'S STYLISH SUITS---

We are winding up the largest spring and summer business we've known. That's all. A housekeeper can have her potatoes boiled at the same time by putting on only those of uniform size to cook, but we can not prepare merchandise so as to have all gone at a certain time. To deserve and get big business, we must plan liberally, buy in excess of our needs. Now we are taking a loss on our surplus—taking it philosophically, too, for although the number of suits is large and the reductions extreme, the loss is but a small per cent on our season's business, and besides these losses help to greater things—we make new friends and cement old friendships by giving bargains. Of the clothing there is no need to say that it is up to the Oak Hall standard of quality. It is Oak Hall clothing through and through—made of all-wool materials, made by hand, made in the best manner known to ready-made, made as custom clothing is fashioned.

TO INSPECT EQUIPMENT

Annual Visit to the Fire Halls Will Soon Be Made.

None of Improvements Urged Last Year Have Been Made.

The annual inspection of the city fire department will be made next week by Chief Randall, Mayor Haven, the aldermen, and other city officials. The date has not yet been set, but it will probably occur on Thursday.

When the inspection was made a year ago, the late Chief Black pointed out to the aldermen many improvements about the fire halls that were very badly needed. Not a single improvement of any consequence has been made since then, and the city officials will find the department in much worse shape now than it was last July.

While the aldermen recognize the needs of the fire fighters, they say there is no money with which to provide for them. When the city fathers visited the Lakeside hall last summer, for example, some of them expressed the opinion that unless new halls were provided within a few months the Lakeside apparatus would have to be removed to some other part of the city, in such bad shape was the old building. No new building has been provided and the old hall, of course, is even in worse condition than it was in 1908, and this condition is steadily growing worse.

Aside from the lack of some new flooring, placing new windows on the roof, and some other minor work, the same class of improvements have been made on the different buildings of the department since last summer, although an addition has been authorized for hall No. 3, corner of First and Third streets. Last year it was pointed out to the aldermen that in the West end, conditions were very unsanitary, as well as being unsatisfactory, through the fact that men and horses and equipment all had to occupy the same building. The sleeping quarters of the men were directly over the stables, and the air from the horses' stalls circulated freely through the sleeping quarters of the men. Conditions at this hall are now just the same as they were at the time of the last inspection.

Much the same holds true of all the improvements were pointed out, and there is no money in sight to make them. The council last Monday evening authorized the purchase of one first class fire engine, the cost of which will run above $2,000, but this expenditure, of course, will not benefit any of the buildings.

The inspection next week will be made by a committee of aldermen, provided the council acts favorably on the request for funds to pay expenses, which it will doubtless do.

CASE STILL BEING HEARD

Attorney Suing for His Fees in Ramstad Divorce Case.

The suit of James H. Whitley against Mrs. Augusta Ramstad for $150 he claims to be due him as attorney fees for bringing a divorce action for Mrs. Ramstad last fall, is still on trial before Judge Hughes and a jury in district court. It was thought yesterday that the trial would take only one day, but the testimony proved to be of greater volume than was at first expected and a number of arguments between the attorneys have prolonged the trial.

De La Motte, attorney for Mrs. Ramstad, this morning moved for judgment on the pleadings, claiming that the reply of the plaintiff denied the existence of an express contract, which was afterwards proven to exist. After the arguments, Judge Hughes decided in favor of the defendant, and the case of the defense was taken up.

The defendant said in a counter claim for $500, claiming that she was damaged to that extent by the failure of the car to proceed with the case with due dispatch after she had engaged him to act for her. She claimed that she was subjected to the ridicule of her friends on account of Mr. Whitley's careless handling of the case, and was forced to go out and work by the day to support herself and her child. She also claims that she transferred a piano to Mr. Whitley as security for the fees and that he still has possession of the piano.

Some months after Mrs. Ramstad's suit against her husband was filed, their differences were adjusted, and the suit was dismissed. They are now living together.

From the appearance of the court-rooms one would hardly think that a new term of court had opened last week. The jury case before Judge Hughes is the only one on trial, and there is but one civil case remaining for trial by jury. The criminal calendar will be taken up tomorrow or Friday.

There are six men under indictment for trial. The first case to be taken up will probably be that of the Fred Raymer Smith, charged with burglary in the third degree.

Only a few cases remain on the court calendar. This morning, two cases were submitted to Judge Dibel, those of Pearl A. M. Stahl vs. George H. Gamble et al., and Spies Karis vs. J. D. Campbell.

WINTER WHEAT SUCCESS.
North Dakota Farmers Pleased With Their Venture.

Fargo, N. D., July 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The farmers of the state are jubilant over the success of the winter wheat crop. A few best small experiments with it three years ago had more followed till there is a considerable acreage this season. The crop is very promising.

One of the advantages claimed for the winter wheat is that it ripens early and is out of the way before the spring wheat is ready for harvest. Many farmers need one-fourth to one-half their acreage in the winter wheat. The yield has been very satisfactory. The claim is made that it is something of a weed destroyer, too.

QUARTERS FOR RANGE COURT

Virginia City Hall Will Be Remodeled and Added to.

County Auditor Odin Halden has received for this files of the board of county commissioners a copy of the plans and specifications for the alterations which will be made to the city hall of Virginia, for the accommodation of the range district court. Last week at their meeting the commissioners closed a deal with the officials of the range city for the rental of a portion of the remodeled building. The Virginia city council has authorized the bids and the work will be done as soon as possible.

The range court will have commodious quarters, according to the plans. The courtroom will be in front of the building, where the council chamber now is. The addition, which will be just to the west of the present council chamber, will be given over on that floor to the officers of the court. A vault will open off the clerk's office. The sheriff and county attorney will also have offices on the same floor. The court will have one jury room, but the municipal court will also have a new jury room, which will probably be available for the district court in emergencies. The quarters will be conveniently arranged, so that there will be occasion for the city and county using the same rooms, as they are.

The second term of court at Virginia will open July 27. The jury summons have already been placed in the hands of W. H. Opeil, the deputy sheriff at Virginia, and he is serving them. The calendar is not expected to be very heavy, though there will be more cases than there were at the April term. An adjournment of the July term will also be taken to fitting for the trial of cases in which Hibbing people are interested.

The new range court is proving to be exceptionally popular among the applicants for naturalization papers. Deputy Clerk of Court U. G. Holloway, who is resident here, has already been taken about thirty applications for second papers and fully fifty people have declared their intention of becoming citizens. The first hearing on the petitions for citizenship was held on Sept. 18 and thereafter hearings will be held on the third Saturday of each month.

Chicago, July 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Richard Baldwin, ex-postmaster of Bessemer, Mich., who was arrested here yesterday on the charge of embezzling $2,000 and for whom the federal authorities have been searching three years, will go back and face charges without putting up a fight. He waived examination and not resisting extradition left today accompanied by an officer to Marquette to await the action of the next federal grand jury.

SPAIN BOMBARDS CAMPS OF MOORS.

Melilla, Morocco, July 14.—Spain has begun measures against the Moors for the recent murder of four Spanish workmen in Morocco. The Spanish gunboat Dona Maria de Moleira yesterday bombarded the Moorish camps near here for several hours. The heavy seas at present prevents the landing of troops.

Madrid, July 14.—A dispatch from Tetuan says that Roghi, leader of the rebellious tribesmen, made an attack on Fez and succeeded in forcing an entry to the city. His followers pillaged the stores, and many of the merchants fled. The fate of Muti Haddi is unknown. Official advices from Melilla state

A black and white illustration of a woman in a long, light-colored coat and a wide-brimmed hat, standing next to a vintage car. She is holding a long, thin object, possibly a cane or a long glove. The car is a classic open-top model with large spoked wheels. The illustration is signed 'G-1631' in the bottom right corner.

CONCERNING WOMAN.

The matinee girl has come into her own. "Camille" is in her midst and if there's anything that can make one enjoy an afternoon most completely, it is not "Camille." The romance of it; the pity of it; the keen sorrow of it; the delight of it; when tears unbidden but not to be stayed, stray down the pink, plump cheeks of the matinee girl.

"Camille" is so nice. Some one who ought to know, or at least some one who is given the credit for knowing, says that "Camille" is the way back to nature and may, but it is contrary to all the matinee girl's experience. "Camille" right in the first act, gets perfectly crazy. It is not "Camille" of course that is quite so it is in the first act. Armond announces in the first three minutes that he knows her, that though he has known her for five years, now any one with a head for figures can see right away where that's going to carry them. Armond's progression which according to vague memories, progresses very fast, is as nothing compared to Armond's passion.

But oh, how he loves her! Then everybody on the stage talks about this. They make it the mainstay of their conversation, and Armond and "Camille" discuss it with any one who happens to be handy quite as usual people discuss the weather.

Then, is just the least bit of a time, when ordinary people are getting along comfortably on their favorite subjects, or "don't you love to go canoeing?" or something, and an interesting subject like that, "Camille" and her young man are planning to go themselves to the country without the formality of an engagement. They are going to the country, and anything like that, "Camille" just adds all her jewels and her house, and her money, and her carriage, and anything most she can lay her hands on, and plans to pay all the expenses. For Armond is poor, worse luck.

But oh, how he loves her. And then sorrow and fate and stern parents and real-world considerations and death come to poster them. "Camille" gives Armond up! Retirees him!

And oh, how she does love him. She goes away and she is perfectly terrible about it, and the matinee girls just sob right.

And then they meet again, for the play is only half over. Armond is excited, and Armond—oh, mercy! He's all wrought up. But he's good and much too, and Armond, real money, and her. Like real life? Ask any married woman.

And the next act comes on. "Camille" is very, very sick. Anybody can see that, because she can't hardly walk across the stage. And then Armond comes and he's all right, and he's a fat that she's going to die. But it's getting close to a clock and it's time to go to the city. Armond is so busy that she was about it, and so she does. Right there in this.

How he loves her. What, says the matinee girl, with a sob in her voice, while she wipes away a tear, "do you think Rodney knows where at the end of that silk ribbon he always wears around his neck?"

"Whose picture?" asks the first matinee girl.

"I don't know," says her companion. "Let's go and get a Peter Pan. Isn't 'Camille' sad?"

COTILLON CLUB

Will Entertain This Week at Country Club.

The Cotillon club will entertain at a midsummer affair Friday evening at the country club. A number of the out of town visitors will be guests at the affair. The cotillon will be the first half of the evening and the cotillon and the cotillon will be the second half of the evening. A delightful dance will be enjoyed at the country club Monday evening by a number of the members.

HOUSE PARTY.

Duluth Guests Have Returned From Marble.

A number of Duluth guests were entertained at a house party at Marble over the week end by Mr. Dudley. The house party was given by Mr. Frank Leach of this city and Mrs. Charles Clayton of Colorado. The party was composed of Misses Kathryn Hubbell, Jessie Hartley, Irma Hartley, Julia Hunter, Emily Welch and Andy White and Miss Marie Johnson of Springfield, Ill. who is visiting Mrs. Clayton. The party returned yesterday.

In Honor of Guests.

Mrs. H. C. Starnes has hosted at an informal tea tomorrow afternoon in compliment to her guests, Mrs. William E. Marcus and her daughter, Miss Dorothy Marcus of Montclair, N. J.

Basket Picnic.

The members of the Zenith chapter, No. 25, of the Order of the Eastern Star, will entertain at the annual basket picnic tomorrow at Lincoln park. Luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock.

Dance at Boat Club.

The members of the Junior assembly will entertain at a dance at the main house of the boat club Thursday evening of next week, July 22. The committee in charge of the affair is composed of Fred Ryan and the Longhorns. The chairmen will be Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McGregor.

Women's Meeting.

The regular women's meeting will be held tomorrow afternoon at the Lake avenue Baptist at the usual hour, 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Florence Porter will be the speaker and the subject will be "The Passover as a Type of Jesus Christ." There will be special music with Miss Maud Mattson as the soloist.

Postpone Picnic.

The members of the Queen Esther circles of the Methodist churches of the city were to have held a picnic together at Lester park today. The affair was postponed on account of the weather.

Personal Mention.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius H. Barnes and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. William Reedy of New York, will leave tomorrow for Minneapolis to attend the regatta. They will make the return trip by automobile.

Miss Irene Whitting left this afternoon for a visit at St. Paul.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Lenam will leave tomorrow to attend the regatta at St. Paul.

Mrs. J. C. Herman Engel of 2105 East Fifth street left today for a three weeks' visit with relatives at Minneapolis and St. Louis.

Miss Lillian M. Thoney left last evening for her home at Marquette, Mich., after a two-months' visit with her friend, Miss Bada Schmidt of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollenbeck and Miss Hollenbeck of Toledo, formerly of this city are the guests of friends in Du-

MARRIED EDITOR OF MAGAZINE

MRS. R. L. S. MCCLURE.

One of the most beautiful of this summer's brides is Mrs. R. L. S. McClure. As Edith Dodge she was one of the beauties of Springfield, Ill. She met Mr. McClure, who is a son of S. S. McClure the publisher at Knox college, Galesburg, where they graduated in the same class. Mr. and Mrs. McClure will travel in Europe for several months and then return to Germany where Mr. McClure is studying the German language. He expects to make an exhaustive study of the governments of foreign countries before returning to the United States to assume the editorship of McClure's Magazine.

For a few weeks, Miss Hollenbeck formerly resided in Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Sehenius who are traveling abroad have recently been the guests of Col. C. H. Gray and Mrs. Gray at Stockholm, Sweden. Col. Gray is the American representative at the Swedish court.

Mrs. George W. Stiles of 511 First avenue west, left last evening for a trip to Detroit.

Mrs. J. A. Sukeforth and son of 1091 Lake street left today for Chicago to meet at Mrs. La Salle of Chicago.

Mrs. A. G. Osman of 315 East Second street and her guests, sister Mrs. Fuller and son and Mrs. Grindall of Arpona, Pa.

Mrs. Ernest Rackle of Cleveland is the guest of Mrs. La Salle of Chicago.

Mrs. N. A. Gearhart of 118 East Third street has as her guest her cousin, Miss Mae Gilbert of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Ferguson and little daughter are visiting at Chicago.

Linen Skirts.

The separate linen skirt will remain as popular as ever for wear with dainty lingerie blouses.

When cut with a slightly raised waist-line, it is particularly becoming to slender figures. The skirt is finished with the narrow, tight-fitting, light-colored, which it falls in smooth fitting lines.

Separate skirts of colored linen in the lighter tones will be most charming worn with the white, lingerie blouses over a china silk slip to match the skirt.

The Season's Fads.

Flowers are more natural looking. No more pink lilies, black cowslips and blue roses.

A new pongee ribbon in daisy designs is intended not so much for hat decorations as for women's neckties. The new coat collars are large round affairs of rich or shiny lace. Radia handbags are to be found in almost every color and shape.

Ostrich feathers are much used, although few of the uncurled sort are seen.

Curious and fascinating dog collars are made of old coins joined together. The newest shoes are arched for the shortening effect, and have a medium vamp.

PARK POINT NOTES

Mrs. J. E. Capron, Mrs. Elva Moe and son, Frederick Moe, of 3005 Minnesota avenue, returned here from a week's outing at Solon Springs, Wis.

Miss Martha Stanbury has returned to her home in Superior after spending a few days here as the guest of the Misses Florence and Ethel McKay.

A party composed of Miss Edith Thompson of Hancock, Miss Lucy Wood of Duluth, Miss Catharine Larson of Hancock, Miss Olive Capron and Misses Florence and Ethel McKay of Park Point, enjoyed a launch ride and picnic at Wisconsin Point Monday, as guests of H. V. Gard. The trip was made in the launch Albatross. Mrs. Capron chaperoned the party.

Miss Dorothy Gordon was the guest of friends here the early part of the week.

The Park Point branch of the Presbyterian auxiliary will hold its regular meeting Thursday afternoon, July 15, at the home of Mrs. E. Frank Barker.

Dr. Booth of Superior, who has been camping on Park Point, left yesterday for Milwaukee.

Miss Florence Webb of 3126 Lake avenue spent last week in Superior, the guest of friends.

John Maher of 2310 Minnesota avenue will leave this week for Isle Royale for the remainder of the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. MacFarland of Superior have taken Dr. Booth's cottage at Thirty-fourth street for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Radcliffe of 3109 Lake avenue celebrated their thirty-third wedding anniversary Monday evening. Three launches took the guests to Wisconsin Point, where they held a picnic. Those in the party were: Messrs. and Mesdames Parsons, Kinney, Foreman, Vernon Price, Leggett, Hattaway, Mrs. Henry, Miss Margaret Ames and Miss Mary Hart of Park Point, Mr. and Mrs. MacFarland, Mrs. N. S. Thompson and son Ralph, Dr. Booth of Superior, Mrs. Symons of Kansas City and Mrs. Mer and Miss Minnie Kruse of Duluth.

WEST END MODERN HOUSES BEING BUILT

Many Handsome Dwellings Going Up in the West End.

Ground is being broken in the West end for a number of fine residences, and building is particularly active along West Second street, where in past seven or eight months several fine structures have gone up.

One of the latest buildings to be put up on West Second street represents a new type. It is owned by O. B. Johnson, a West end hardware dealer, at 2221 West Second street. The building, which is shown in the accompanying cut, was built by Jacobson Bros. contractors.

The Johnson home is modern in every particular and includes a fine heating plant and a well equipped basement. Oak is used as an interior finishing. The interior of the structure is uniquely arranged. The house was completed this summer.

JUMPED TRACK IN THE WEST END

Northern Pacific Engine Leaves Rails at Broken Switch.

Derailed by an open switch between Twentieth and Twenty-first avenues west, a freight train running between Fond du Lac and Duluth on the Northern Pacific line, jumped the track about 6 o'clock last evening. Outside of a broken switch no damage resulted.

Thirty minutes' delay was caused the limited train from St. Paul on account of the accident. The engine and train were out of commission and another locomotive had to take the train into the Union station.

The train was moving slowly at the time of the accident and only the engine left the tracks. No one was injured.

TWENTY BOYS TO HAVE CAMP

Esquires of Holy Grail Organize for an Outing.

About twenty West end boys, ranging in age from 12 to 16 years, will leave Monday for Burnett, about twenty-five miles out of Duluth on the Milwaukee road, where a week of camping, fishing and other out-of-door sports will be enjoyed.

The boys comprise the Esquires of the Holy Grail of the Grace M. E. church, and Rev. M. O. Stockland, pastor of the church, will accompany them on their trip. They will pitch camp at Burnett about one mile from the station.

Twelve of the boys are members of the church, while the remainder are from the neighborhood. They will be accompanied by their parents.

OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED.
Epworth League of First Norwegian-Danish Church Gives Program.

Members of the Epworth League of the First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church met last evening in the church parlors and installed the newly elected officers. An interesting program was also given.

Andrew Ostrum, who is president of the league, read a paper on "The Duty of the Epworth League to the Church." It was responded to by Rev. H. K. Madison, who showed how the church was obligated to the league.

The girls of the league, in behalf of the subject of a paper read by A. B. Anderson, Miss Anna Hanson, in behalf of the young ladies returned the compliment by reading a paper on "The Boys of the League." A very pleasing reception was given by Miss Lydia Olson and Miss Milla Olson won much favor with her vocal solo.

The officers installed followed: Peter Kjaerstad, first vice president; Miss Kate Aronson, second vice president; Miss Lydia Olson, third vice president; A. B. Anderson, fourth vice president; Carl Thueseth, secretary; Ellen Ostrum, treasurer; and Carl Thueseth, organist.

West End Shortfalls.
Rev. Theodore Fossum, pastor of the Zion Norwegian Lutheran church, is in Winnipeg on a business mission.

F. C. Stevenson of Minneapolis is a guest today at the Desmond hotel. Joseph Ebel of St. Paul is a West end business visitor today.

Joseph Krann of Minneapolis is registered at the Desmond.

A daughter was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Jutila of West Fourth street.

Regular prayer meeting services of the First Swedish Baptist church will be held tomorrow evening.

Green Esther Circle of the Grace M. E. church met last evening to make arrangements for a picnic. The picnic was to have been held this afternoon at Lester park, but has since been called off on account of the weather.

A routine meeting of the Gustavus Adolphus lodge, United Swedish Sons of America, was held last evening at Columbia hall, Twentieth avenue west and Superior street.

Misses Alma and Calla Anne of West Michigan street, having just returned from a visit to Denver, Seattle and San Francisco. They will return after one month.

Arnold Page of 2009 West Second street has gone to Brazil.

Mrs. J. Redell and Miss Eva Bloom of 126 North Fifteenth street, went yesterday for a visit in the Twin Cities.

The Sewing Circle of the Epworth League of the First Norwegian-Danish M. E. church will give an ice cream social at the church on Thursday, July 15. The social will be featured by a program which is now in course of preparation and to be furnished by the ladies of the society.

J. C. Beckman's book and stationery store has been moved from 2018 West Superior street to 1922 West Superior street.

ELKS HONOR BEMIDJI MAN

ated this matter was to the effect that the members of the lodge are no wise to blame for the rapid extinction of the elk. This report detailed the exhaustive investigation of the subject made by the committee.

Other committees to report were those which have investigated the question of a change of location for the lodge home and the erection of a much more pretentious and commodious structure, the committee on the matter of establishment of an orphanage and the committee which has investigated the laws passed in regard to the use of Elks' emblems by lodges.

The amusement program for today was carried out at Long Beach, where thousands of visitors went to partake of a barbecue and to witness yacht and motor boat races and to enjoy a race on the ocean. A grand ball will be given at Long Beach tonight.

Bemidji Man Gets Office.
The grand lodge yesterday elected the following officers:

Exalted ruler, James U. Sammis, Le Mans, Iowa; leading knight, Warren J. Savers, Washburn, Ind.; lecturing knight, J. J. Jones, Scranton, Pa.; secretary, Fred C. Robinson, Duluth, Iowa; treasurer, Edwin H. Leach, New York; trustees, Perry A. Clay, Denver, Colo.; Charles L. Becker, Bemidji, Minn.; inner guard, A. M. Taylor, St. Augustine, Fla.

The balloting for grand exalted ruler resulted in no election, four candidates being voted for, and no one receiving a majority. J. J. Preston of Wyoming received 325 votes. Another election will be taken today. The vote for exalted ruler was very close. Sammis receiving 602 votes and Hermann 529.

The flight of the session was over the election of a grand exalted ruler. During the last hours the struggle for votes, led by the Iowa delegation for Sammis and the Ohio delegation for Hermann, grew into a bitter one and into this time the Iowa delegation, including Rush L. Holland, the present grand exalted ruler, were drawn in a statement regarding the publication of a letter he had written to Sammis, Mr. Holland maintained that unfairness had been shown in not giving out the entire contents of the letter, but only such portions as made it appear that he had endorsed the candidacy of Sammis.

Detroit Gets Next Meeting.
The only other contest was for the office of grand exalted lecturing knight. Harry Walker, Duluth, Minn., and J. J. Jones of Scranton, Pa., were nominated.

Detroit was selected as the place for holding the reunion in 1910.

In the annual report of Grand Exalted Ruler Holland, the matter of establishing an orphanage for the children of deceased Elks was submitted to the grand lodge without recommendation.

The location of the national Elks' home at Bedford, Va., was criticized by the grand exalted ruler, who suggested that a fund of $25,000 be raised by the order during the next ten years by an annual assessment of 5 cents a member and that a new home be built in some other city.

The report shows that the last year has been one of unprecedented prosperity for the order. Forty-two new lodges have been established and the total number of members exceeds 50,000. The report commends the use of membership in the Elks' order for political purposes and the expulsion of any member so abusing his privileges.

ARTILLERY USED BY COSSACKS IN SHAH'S CAPITAL

flag is flying over the house of Col. Laik (fr. Nationalists) and are being fired on by Persian Cossacks stationed under the roof of this house.

Little and artillery fire has been continuous since yesterday morning. Soldiers of the shah's army have approached to within three miles of the city and are now shelling Bakhtiars. The situation of the city, where the parliament building is situated, is reported to be the most serious. It is reported that the shah's troops are endeavoring to enter the city by one of the northern gates.

Recent events in Turkey are being repeated in Persia. The constitutional forces, the Bakhtiars, are being defeated by the shah's army. The shah's army is now in possession of the greater part of the city, which they entered yesterday morning without encountering organized resistance.

Ended by Stragglers.
While Semadoun and Shingdar, the leaders in the movement, concentrated the intention of the Royalists by demonstrations to the shah, a small body of Nationalists and Bakhtiars made their way unnoted around the city, from which point the capture of the capital was not difficult. The shah's army, which was in the city, was surprised by the Nationalists and the invaders marched in the foreign soldiers' quarters, taking up their quarters in the old messes building.

This gives the Nationalists command of the city, with the exception of the artillery, which is still in the old grounds adjoining. The Royalists are being driven out of the city, and the Cossacks, who are under command of Russian officers, remain outside the city, and are being resisted by the Nationalists.

The shah's army is being maintained by the Nationalists, who are placing guards at the gates and other points. The shah's army is being maintained by the Nationalists, who are placing guards at the gates and other points.

The Nationalists leader, in a note to the Russian officers, guarantees security of life and property to foreigners, adding that nothing is demanded from the shah, but a real constitution. Spindler also has summoned the Bakhtiars to offer resistance to the Russian forces.

Only One Invader Killed.
The invaders lost only one man while making their way into the city. The loss to the Royalists is unknown. It cannot be known as the Cossacks were the only defenders to offer resistance.

There is much ill feeling against the Russians, and the Nationalists are endeavoring to prevent any incident that might justify a Russian force entering the city.

WOMEN MAY CAST VOTES

Have Equal Rights With Men at Annual School Elections.

Directors Anxious to See a Large Vote Polled
Saturday.

At the school election Saturday, women will have equal rights with men. Members of the fair sex may step boldly into the booths and inscribe their crosses opposite the names of any of the candidates whose names or deeds happen to strike them most favorably.

Members of the board of education hope for a large vote. They would like to see all the voters of the district turn out and signify their preference for members of the board, showing that they take an interest in the local school system and the selection of the men who direct its affairs.

Four directors are to be elected, three for terms of three years each and one for a term of a year, this last being the third year of J. L. Washburn's unexpired term.

The directors whose terms expire are Dr. C. E. Codding, who has been president of the board for several years; P. A. Brewer, D. E. Stevens and Wilson G. Crosby. Dr. Codding refused to consider re-election but the others are candidates Messrs. Brewer and Stevens for the three year terms, and Mr. Crosby for the one-year term. Mr. Crosby is the only candidate for the one-year term and his election, naturally, is a certainty.

The rest of the ticket promises some close contests, however, as there are even chances on the official ballot for the three-year terms on the board are: P. A. Brewer, D. E. Stevens, Dr. C. E. Codding, L. C. Harris, P. H. Martin, Andrew Nelson and J. J. Thomas.

Balls will open at 6 o'clock in the morning and remain open until 7 o'clock in the evening. The election officials have been named and the polling places selected. They are designated in the official notice of the election which has been printed several times in The Herald.

SHIPPING IN FEVER PATIENTS

Duluth's Epidemic Partly Caused By Carelessness of Other Towns.

Health Commissioner Patton yesterday wrote a letter to Dr. Bracken of the state board of health, complaining that carelessness in quarantine regulations in cities outside Duluth is in large measure responsible for the present serious fever epidemic here. He says many cases are brought into the city from outside points.

In the letter he speaks particularly of the case of a woman who was visiting at Thompson, N. D., and who found, upon her return here, that her son, who accompanied her, had acquired fever as the result of exposure in the Dakota town. The Thompson family had allowed her to depart without realizing the nature of the disease. Dr. Patton wants the state board to take the matter up with the Dakota authorities.

THOUSANDS OF ACRES INJURED

First Destructive Hail Storm of Season in North Dakota.

Grand Forks, N. D., July 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The first destructive hail storm of the season swept over four counties of this state yesterday, extensive damage being done in Bottineau, Cavalier, Teton and Logan counties. Other parts of the northern portion of the state were also visited. The storm was especially severe in Bottineau county, several thousand acres of grain around Cavalier, South, West Hope and Russell being destroyed.

Cavalier county the storm took in a small strip between Calvin and Karlee, the latter being a small town, completely with enough hail on the ground to furnish a road for a horse, and what was an hour before promising rain. The damage in Bottineau county occurred south and southwest of Cavalier, near the Red river. In Benson county a strip of small grain, between Church's Ferry and Brimfield, will be a total loss. The storm was accompanied by a terrific rain, which also did some damage.

Bottineau, N. D., July 14.—A hail storm visited several sections of this county yesterday afternoon and several thousand acres of grain around Cavalier, South, West Hope and Russell were destroyed.

ALLEGED FORGER IS CAUGHT IN PORTLAND.

St. Cloud, Minn., July 14.—James de Boie of Sauk Rapids, charged with having passed worthless checks on a Minneapolis brewery and on several local saloon keepers last winter, was arrested at Portland, Or., by Sheriff Motitz of St. Cloud. The checks were written on St. Cloud banks, and the prosecution was brought by the officers of those institutions.

Uncle Sam Is Invited.

Washington, July 14.—Senator Pina, the Spanish minister to the United States, by direction of his government has requested the secretary of state to send a representative of the United States to the fifth international congress of Esperantists to be held at Barcelona, Spain, from 5 to 11 next. The king of Spain is a patron and protector of this congress.

Wages Go Up Again.
Lebanon, Pa., July 14.—The Lackawanna Iron & Steel company announced yesterday that beginning July 16 the wage scale in the plant will be increased 10 per cent. Eight hundred men are affected.

PROBING INTO MURDER CASE

Preliminary Hearing in Ledbetter Mystery Starts at Mankato.

Mankato, Minn., July 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The preliminary hearing of Mrs. Grace Ledbetter, Mr. and Mrs. William Schwandt, charged with the murder of Frank Smith, the farm hand, is held here today.

The mystery surrounding the murder of Ledbetter has not been cleared in the least in the last week. Smith sticks to the story he gave out the night of his arrest, charging Mrs. Ledbetter with the murder and implicating Schwandt and his wife.

The attorneys for the defense will attempt to break down the story told by Smith and it is said they are confident of being able to produce evidence which will show the events on the night of the murder were not as Smith alleged. It is said the defense of Mrs. Ledbetter will include an endeavor to prove that Ledbetter's body was taken to the

LABOR MEN WILL WELCOME GOMPERS.

Washington, July 14.—Union labor of Washington will give Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, an enthusiastic reception when he visits this city after his return from Europe. Soon after he arrives at New York he will come to Washington, being met at Philadelphia by a large committee and escorted to this city.

The army of organized labor here will, according to plans thus far formed, meet Mr. Gompers at the station and make him the principal figure of a parade that will follow the principal streets to Convention hall, where exercises will be held.

Several representatives of labor in the lower house of congress will address the assemblage, as will also Mr. Gompers.

PRICES OF AUTO TIRES WILL GO UP FRIDAY.

New York, July 14.—In view of the increased price of manufacture, the price of crude rubber having doubled within the last three months, the American tiremakers have issued a circular advising their customers and dealers, announcing an advance of from 15 to 25 per cent on all tires. The advancement was not unexpected by the dealers, but such a large increase in price was not expected. The increase will take place Friday.

WANTS CONGRESS TO ADJOURN SO HE CAN TAKE FISHING TRIP.

Washington, July 14.—Secretary of the Navy Meyer is anxiously awaiting the adjournment of congress so he may get away from his official duties for a vacation. He anticipates some good sport at fishing in Canada as soon as he leaves Washington. Yesterday Representative Sulzer of New York assured the secretary that congress would adjourn within a reasonable time, possibly within ten days, and this assurance gratified Mr. Meyer, for the hot Washington weather is beginning to tell on him, as it is on most other government officials. Mr. Meyer said:

"I want some good salmon fishing in the Canadian woods. I have taken on a license and paid for the privilege, and as the season for salmon fishing ends there Aug. 15, I naturally am anxious to get away in time to catch a few fish."

The secretary will spend some of his vacation at Hamilton, Mass., where he has a summer home, and which is near the "summer capital," Beverly, Mass.

VISITING HATCHERIES.

Wisconsin Fish Commission Looking Over State Plants.

Madison, Wis., July 14.—The state fish car Badger has gone to Bayfield, carrying the commissioners of fisheries on their annual tour of inspection of the state hatcheries. The party consisted of the governor, Commissioners Calvert, Spensley, E. A. Birge, W. J. Starr and Dr. A. A. Dye. Supt. Nevill and State Warden Ricker. Commissioner George B. Hudman will join them at Wild Rose.

The commissioners will visit the several state hatcheries, arriving at Bayfield Friday morning. While on this trip they will let the contract for a hatchery, building and dwelling house at Wild Rose and improvements at other hatcheries will be ordered.

Preparations are being made by the commission to do an extensive business in saving and transplanting fish from the Mississippi river back waters during the summer and fall. An appropriation for this purpose was made by the last legislature and the commission expects to do a large amount of work along this line.

MINNEAPOLIS-DULUTH COAL RATES ARE UPHELD.

Washington, July 14.—The interstate commerce commission has decided that rates between Minneapolis and Duluth on hard and soft coal are not excessive. The decision was announced on the complaint of James Mahanah of Minneapolis against the Northern Pacific and other roads carrying this traffic, except the Omaha, which was not included in the complaint. The commission says:

"There is nothing specified in the record to justify the finding that the rates charged are unreasonable. They certainly compare favorably, all things considered, with the coal rates for similar distances in that section, and in other sections of the country, and the bituminous rates is the lowest shown in the traffic of the defendants on any route between the points named."

Killed by Falling Tree.

Enau Claire, Wis., July 14.—Steve Kokie, who, a few weeks ago, left his wife and family in Austria to come over here and prepare a home for them, was killed at the lumber camp of the John H. Kaiser Lumber company, when a tree which he was cutting down fell on his head, crushing it.

FOR EVERY HOUSEKEEPER

Easy Way to Rid the House of Cockroaches, Rats, Mice, Etc.

It is the easiest thing in the world to rid the house of rats, mice, cockroaches, waterbugs, etc., by using the old reliable Stearns' Electric Rat and Roach Paste, which has been on the market for thirty years.

It is ready mixed for use and as it is in paste form, there is no powder to blow away and get into food.

See that every package bears the signature of J. J. Kearney, and then you will get the genuine; the only guaranteed exterminator, the only one where your druggist will refund your money if it does not do the work.

Apply Stearns' Electric Paste at night, in sinks, pantries, etc., and in the morning you can sweep up a panful of dead cockroaches.

Use it where there are rats and mice, and after eating it, they will run out of doors to die.

All reliable druggists sell Stearns' Electric Paste: 2 oz. box 25c; 16 oz. box $1.00, or sent express prepaid. Stearns' Electric Paste Co., Chicago, Ill.

were warmly greeted by the crowds outside the palace.

Following the interview with Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, Emperor William granted audiences to Herr Delbrueck, in the interior department, and Herr Wernuth, under secretary of state of the interior.

Various other cabinet changes are expected today. Herr Delbrueck of the interior department, succeeds Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg as minister of the interior and vice-chancellor; Richard Sadow, secretary of the imperial treasury, goes to the department of commerce; Herr Wernuth, under secretary for the interior, under Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, becomes secretary of the treasury, and Ludwig Holle, Prussian minister of instruction, replaces on occasion of the interior treasury, goes to the department of commerce; Herr Wernuth, under secretary for the interior, under Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, becomes secretary of the treasury, and Ludwig Holle, Prussian minister of instruction, replaces on occasion of the interior treasury, goes to the department of commerce.

Herr Wernuth, who was German commissioner to the Chicago Exposition, has many personal friends in America, and always has followed American affairs with special interest.

New Chancellor Conservative. Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, in his political principles is a mild conservative, but he is most particular in the application to himself of the traditional policy that the servants of the crown must be non-partisan.

When he was district governor of Brunswick the conservative interests sought to use his influence in a local election, and to his questioners Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg declared indignantly:

"If an administrative official, not an election agent."

The new chancellor's speeches on social questions since he has been minister of the interior have been liberal in tone. This was particularly marked in an address in which he condemned certain aspects of morality in Berlin and defended the German workman's need for proper recreation.

Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg has devoted himself to improving the condition of the artisan class, whereas almost all social legislation has been applied up to the present time to the workingmen's problem.

Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg has been a member of the interior Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg has distinguished himself by presenting an imperial insurance law and a law controlling a right of assembly, both of which passed the reichstag.

Prince von Hohenlohe recently said of the new chancellor: "He is a very able man and of a profound nature."

Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg possesses an excellent knowledge of the English language and is a student of American affairs.

In a conversation today with a representative of a Hamburg newspaper, Prince von Buelow, commenting upon the fact that he had been reproached with want of courage in not dissolving the reichstag, explained that he had not taken this step because elections in the present state of public opinion would have resulted in increasing the forces of Socialism, and because the Reichstag would not have passed the financial bill. "The Conservatives had made the mistake, from which they and the country would suffer, of refusing the inheritance tax. They had made that reasonable property tax the issue upon which the party was to stand or fall."

"I have been able," Prince von Buelow continued, "to overcome the Socialists and give them a smashing defeat at the elections without resorting to impressive police measures. We shall see whether Socialism shall continue to grow, and whether the Germanization of Poland and the suppression of the Gdansk in the future. I hope so, but we shall see what this new combination of Conservatives and Socialists will do for the empire."

desperation she took her own life by poison.

Ling, the report states, was absent at the time, and found the body of the girl upon the bed upon his return. Flustered by the discovery, he called Ching Sing, says the report, who advised him that should he tell the truth to the police regarding the finding of the body he would not be believed, and probably would be hanged.

While the view of the case, Ling admitted desperate efforts to dispose of the body and conceal his own whereabouts.

Concurrence Is Encouraged. The report of the Chinese consul at New York endorsing these statements was sent to Pekin more than three weeks ago.

The report evidently is regarded by the Chinese authorities as revealing the true facts of the case, and is probably would be hanged.

"Only God can find Leung Ling now. He is under the protection of the Chinese. The Chinese of this country will aid in the search for the fugitive should he be taken with a grain of salt."

ON THE IRON RANGES

DOWNPOUR HAS PUT OUT FIRES

No Immediate Danger Confronts Gilbert or Other Range Towns.

Eveleth, Minn., July 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The heavy rains of the past few days have been very beneficial in putting out the threatening forest fires of the past week, and no danger is expected from that source for some time.

Up to Monday noon the forest fires around Gilbert threatened to destroy the village at any time and many men were out fighting them. The timber around Gilbert has all been destroyed and the village is in a good position to stand off any future fire that may arise.

The volunteer fire department, under Chief Silver, did very effective work, fighting the forest fires last week. The volunteers' tournament at Aurora next month, in which the Gilbert department will play an important part.

BLIND PIGGERS CAUGHT IN ACT

Five Austrians, Selling Liquor in Mining Camps, Nabbed.

Nashville, Minn., July 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Five blind piggers were caught selling liquor and arrested by Sheriff T. T. Riley.

They were taken to Grand Rapids, the accused, who are Austrians, alleged to have been selling liquor without a license, because of the home near here. They were caught in the act and taken in custody.

LUNDQUIST IS DEAD OF INJURY

Laborer Struck By the Iron Range Train Dies in Hospital.

Two Harbors, Minn., July 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—Y. A. Lundquist, a laborer, who was struck by an iron range passenger train, north of here, Tuesday of last week, is dead at a local hospital. He was a stranger in these parts, and the body is being held pending receipt of information from relatives, if they can be located.

The deceased, when hit by the train, sustained a fractured skull, a broken jaw and lost several toes of his feet.

Grand Rapids, Minn., July 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The members of the state tax commission are in this locality, looking over the mines of the Western Mesaba. The commissioners are here today, holding a meeting and acquainting the members with conditions. The village council has decided to reimburse for the paving of seven blocks on Third street, extending from 200 feet east of Sleeper avenue to the west side of Houghton street, with gravel.

The main contract was let to the Bloom company of Chicago some time ago.

CHISHOLM WOULD HAVE PAID FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Chisholm, Minn., July 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The citizens of this village, which now boasts of about 6,000 population, are anxious to have a paid fire department, claiming the village council has been out-grown and a more systematic method of fighting fires is desirable.

There are so many buildings of the first-class order in the new village that the taxpayers believe a paid department a necessity. It is estimated the cost of operating a paid department would not exceed the amount at present paid the volunteers.

Grand Rapids Ball Games. Grand Rapids, Minn., July 14.—(Special to The Herald.)—The baseball here Sunday was between the Grand Rapids and the Duluth River Juniors. The game was a close one, and the Duluth team, who were the victors, won by a score of 4 to 3.

packet said to be in Mr. Sayer's private strong box in the vault of the little bank at Crescent City. During the two years it was the habit of Mr. Sayer, when leaving the city, to leave sealed instructions in this box, with instructions to W. R. Nightingale, cashier of the bank, to open it only in case of death. The packet left some time ago when the banker left the city, and was never destroyed. It is believed, and may shed light on the tragedy.

Was Near Lynching. That Dr. Miller stood in great danger of being lynched Monday night is asserted by Mr. Nightingale and many others. The doctor, who was in the streets of the usually quiet village of Crescent City, trying to organize himself for an attack on the bank, was followed by a mob of men, who were believed, and may shed light on the tragedy.

CLOSING OUT THE "PILLS"

Tobacco Dealers Getting Rid of Their Stocks of Cigarettes.

Little more than two weeks remain before the selling or giving away of cigarettes or cigarette papers becomes unlawful, and local dealers are preparing to close out their stocks of the "chest expanders."

A few of them are slashing prices in efforts to get rid of their stocks of some brands of cigarettes, while others are still retailing them at the old prices, but ordering no new stocks. "Many people are ordering cigarettes in large quantities, for delivery on the last day of the month," said J. Russell Math, a Superior street cigar merchant, today.

"Our store and several others are booking these orders now, from smokers who intend to lay in good supplies of cigarettes before the law prohibiting their sale takes effect. "I understand that some are cutting prices, but I don't think many of them will. We all know this was coming, and have not been getting large stocks of cigarettes, and every one expects to be sold out before the 1st of August."

"Probably there will be a grand rush for cigarettes and 'the makings' the last few days of the month." One local cigar store, which is a part of a company owning cigar stores in nearly every city in the country, is ordering additional stocks of cigarettes, intending to conduct special sales of them right up to the time the anti-cigarette law goes into effect. This store can do it without taking chances on a loss, as the cigarettes unsold can be sent to some of the company's other stores where the sale of them will still be lawful.

Department Has a Run. The fire department made a run about 10 o'clock this morning to the alley in the rear of Ford's livery, 14 East First street, where a telegraph pole caught fire through a short circuit. The flames did not spread to adjoining buildings and were extinguished before any damage was done.

Undergoes Operation. Webster Arnesen, 210 East Second street was operated on last evening for appendicitis at St. Mary's hospital.

Mrs. Brewer's Funeral. The funeral of Mrs. Catherine Brewer, formerly of the West end, who died at Mechanicsville, N. Y., will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Central Baptist church. Rev. J. W. Loughbridge will officiate. Interment will be made at Park Hill cemetery.

NEW TIRE IS INVENTED

Will Be Tried Soon on Auto Trucks in Duluth.

A tire that may mark a revolution in the automobile tire business, is the invention of Benjamin and Amund Dahl of Minneapolis, who have invented a solid vulcanized substance that is pliable and resilient, yet at the same time hard enough to support the weight of the heaviest auto truck or car.

A company is being organized at the present time to place the tires on the market. It will be incorporated within a few days. Some Duluth firms have already ordered some of the tires for their auto trucks, the P. A. Patrick company being one of them.

The young inventors naturally will not divulge what the substance is that the new tire is composed of. Experiments have been tried with the tire, and it has been found that the coldest or the most sultry weather will not have the least effect upon it. In fact experiments have progressed far enough to prove the tire a success. It is claimed, and it is expected that it will be placed upon the market within a few days.

B. P. Neff of the P. A. Patrick company has examined the tire and he is of the opinion that it will work a revolution in the automobile business. He says that the tire is soft enough to remove all the jar from the machine, and at the same time rigid enough to bear the heaviest load.

The inventors of the tire have also invented some adjustable steel rims. By screws in these rims the tire can be made soft or very hard, varying with the load that it is compelled to bear. By this method heavy trucks could have the tire more compressed and lighter machines can have a more resilient tire.

Patents are pending for the new tire. When the patents are secured the tire will be placed upon the market. It is probable that some Duluth capital will be interested in the company that is being organized at the present time to place the new invention upon the market.

The tire will permit motorists taking a long trip without fear of having a tire punctured. A cut in the tire can be easily bound up, and it will not slip easily, it is claimed.

A solid tire has long been sought by the automobile manufacturers, but none of them have ever been a success. In view of the increase in the price of tires, announced today, the news will be of special interest to automobile owners.

Fast Driving Charged. On a warrant sworn out by J. J. Wahl, Harry Webster was arrested this morning by Chief Teyer for reckless automobile driving. He pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for Thursday morning.

Getting Ready for War. La Paz, Bolivia, July 14.—Conditions are quieter at La Paz, the anger of the people being somewhat appeased by the government's refusal to accept Argentina's decision. Bolivia's reason for non-acceptance is that a part of the territory which Peru never occupied is recognized by the award as belonging to Peru.

The populace, fearing a war and scarcity of provisions are buying heavily. Many Peruvians are leaving the country, the Peruvian government paying their expenses.

SALOONS WILL

Mary Loretta Davey, the Chicago girl whose body was found floating in Klinger lake seven miles west of here yesterday, ended her life by leaping into the water during a fit of despondency, due to ill health, is the theory now generally accepted by the authorities of St. Joseph county and by the Hunt, the young farmer, who is believed to have been drowned in an effort to save the girl.

The body of the dead girl was taken to Chicago yesterday by her father. An inquest was held, the authorities believing that there was no question but that death was caused by drowning.
